Democracy Richard McGarvie, 1995-09-28 It is of vital importance to the future of Australia's democracy and federation that the right decision be made on the republic issue This is not a simple question of choosing between a monarchy and a republic between the Queen and an Australian head of state though that choice does need to be made But before Australians can make that choice they need a proper understanding of our present system and they must be offered a republic that preserves the quality of democracy of that system not one that would degrade it In Democracy Richard McGarvie explains the evolution of our system of government the safeguards provided by the roles of the governor general and state governors and why the reserve powers and the constitutional conventions are so important McGarvie's meticulous examination of the proposed models for a republic including the Turnbull model proposed in the November 1999 referendum question exposes the dangers in choosing the wrong republic He warns that the method of appointment and dismissal of the head of state are crucial to the maintenance of our democracy If Australia does choose to become a republic there is a safe way to proceed Democracy shows the way

Towards the Indonesian Republic: Marxist Lineages in the National Revolution Geoffrey Gunn, 2025-05-22 Drawing on little known archival sources this work brings to the fore the salience of a schism in the Indonesian communist movement between pro Moscow loyalists and national communists reaching back to the 1920s which survived even the Japanese occupation and surfaced in the throes of the National Revolution 1945-49 At the heart of the rift lay contrasting visions of revolutionary tactics the salience of Islam in an Islamic majority society the vexed question of alliance between leftists and other anti colonial forces and even the concept and definition of state and national ideology As such we cannot ignore the lineages of Marxism in the National Revolution which trace their roots to the pioneer actions on Java by Dutch communists themselves influenced by the Bolshevik Revolution Contrary to the image of a non revolutionary peasantry and a nationalist leadership broken or tamed by colonial carceral practices the picture that emerges is one of acute agency on the part of an awoken population at a critical historical moment at the end of World War II There is no more complicated period in the history of the Indonesian national revolution than that of 1945-49 during the war with the Dutch colonial armies nor a more complicated strand in Indonesian history than that of its Marxist lineage Dr Gunn's book is a truly unique and fascinating account of both fusing perspectives from a range of colonial as well as indigenous sources Sukarno Hatta Sjahrir Amir Sjariffudin all appear but none more so than Tan Malaka It is as provocative a read as any well researched historical novel but it is not fiction but reality It is very well documented and needs to be read at least twice Max Lane Visiting Senior Fellow Indonesia Studies

Programme ISEAS Yusof Ishak Institute There have been numerous books on Indonesian independence movements that led to the birth of the Republic of Indonesia Nevertheless this book by Geoffrey Gunn differs from previous ones in the sense that it focuses on the role of Marxist radical movements especially that of Tan Malaka in the Indonesian anti colonial struggle It begins with the emergence of the Communist movement failed rebellions of 1926 27 the Japanese occupation the Madiun Affair and ends with the international recognition of Indonesia s independence in 1949 Using various newly available archives including that of the Russian and recently published articles and books on the subject the author has presented a revisionist history of Indonesian independence with a fresh perspective Leo Suryadinata Visiting Senior Fellow ISEAS Yusof Ishak Institute formerly Professor in Political Science National University of Singapore Peace, Order, and Good Government Clement Macintyre, John Matthew Williams, John Williams, 2003 Fundamental reform of State Constitutions is needed now more than ever Indeed the process is under way in all States and Territories Across Australia there is a growing belief that public institutions must be made more relevant to the needs of an increasingly restless electorate
