

Critical Analysis of the Film Requiem for a Dream

The film Requiem for a Dream (dir. Darren Aronofsky, 2000) depicts four individuals and their increasing addiction to substances. This psychological drama narrates parallel encounters linked by the relationship among the lonely. Taking place in Brooklyn, the audience tracks the four interconnected characters down a spiraling pit with no return. While the film could perceive as merely a reflection on addiction, Aronofsky's content is based on the obsession with consumption and is unlimited to the conventional definition of a drug. In fact, Requiem for a Dream questions what could be considered a drug, the individual and group delusions of the 'American Dream', the obsessions from which these fallacies form, and to what heights to which the characters will climb to fulfill such misconceptions and the depths to which they plunge when the rose-colored glasses are removed.

The general approach to Requiem for a Dream is to digest it as a film about addiction, but addiction solely acts as a plot device to move the storyline. Aronofsky presents a controlling metaphor in the first scenes of each character as they present themselves on the screen. As they introduce themselves to the viewer, it is apparent that each character is trapped. For example, the first scene in which the mother, Sarah Goldfarb, has locked herself in a closet while her son, Harry, is attempting to coax her into allowing him to steal her television. The screen is split in two as we witness Sara refuse and as Harry persuades. Sara is trapped inside this closet as an object tries to take away her comfort.

When Sara receives an anonymous phone call about how she has been 'selected' to be on television, her obsession begins. Sara progressively becomes dependent on the idea of Requiem TV and Requiem TV becomes a

Requiem de Manifesto James Jennings, James E. Jennings, 2004 Handbook of Narrative Analysis Luc Herman, Bart Vervaeck, 2019-12-01 Stories are everywhere from fiction across media to politics and personal identity Handbook of Narrative Analysis sorts out both traditional and recent narrative theories providing the necessary skills to interpret any story In addition to discussing classical theorists such as Gérard Genette Mieke Bal and Seymour Chatman Handbook of Narrative Analysis presents precursors such as E M Forster related theorists Franz Stanzel Dorrit Cohn and a large variety of postclassical critics Among the latter particular attention is paid to rhetorical cognitive and cultural approaches intermediality storyworlds gender theory and natural and unnatural narratology Not content to consider theory as an end in itself Luc Herman and Bart Vervaeck use two short stories and a graphic narrative by contemporary authors as touchstones to illustrate each approach to narrative In doing so they illuminate the practical implications of theoretical preferences and the ideological leanings underlying them Marginal glosses guide the reader through discussions of theoretical issues and an extensive bibliography points readers to the most current publications in the field Written in an accessible style this handbook combines a comprehensive treatment of its subject with a user friendly format appropriate for specialists and nonspecialists alike Handbook of Narrative Analysis is the go to book for understanding and interpreting narrative This new edition revises and extends the first edition to describe and apply the last fifteen years of cutting edge scholarship in the field of narrative theory Music Theory, Analysis, and Society Robert P. Morgan, 2017-07-05 Robert P Morgan is one of a small number of music theorists writing in English who treat music theory and in particular Schenkerian theory as part of general intellectual life Morgan's writings are renowned within the field of music scholarship he is the author of the well known Norton volume Twentieth Century Music and of additional books relating to Schenkerian and other theory analysis and society This volume of Morgan's previously published essays encompasses a broad range of issues including historical and social issues and is of importance to anyone concerned with modern Western music His specially written introduction treats his writings as a whole but also provides additional material relating to the articles included in this volume Performing Brazil Severino J. Albuquerque, Kathryn Bishop-Sanchez, 2015 These essays on Brazilian performance culture comprise the first English language book to study the varied manifestations of performance in and beyond Brazil from carnival and capoeira to gender acts curatorial practice and political protest Evaluation in Planning E.R. Alexander, 2016-04-22 Evaluation is a critical stage in urban and regional planning and development with the consideration of alternative proposals essential for informed debate and decision Evaluation in planning has become even more important with the new paradigm attempting to integrate economic efficiency with equity sustainability and social responsibility The craft of pre development evaluation has long been influenced by Nathaniel Lichfield and in his honour this book brings together prominent researchers and practitioners to discuss evaluation in planning its conceptual foundations and subsequent development its strengths and persisting dilemmas and its best practices and their potential for improving future planning and development The chapters trace evaluation in planning from its historical origin to current applications Part one reviews the evolution of evaluation theory and practice and part two contains a selection of best practice application The final integrating chapter notes key problems and offers directions for future development in evaluation research and practice

The Rise and Fall of Modern Empires, Volume IV Martin Shipway, 2016-12-05 The collection of essays in this volume offers an overview of scholarly approaches to the ways in which diverse actors representing the colonised or the colonising nations or indeed the international community reacted to colonialism during the lifetime of the modern colonial empires or in their aftermath The coverage is broad in terms of geographical scope and historical period with articles on the major colonial empires in Asia and Africa and the imperial centres of Paris London and Berlin from the conquests of the late nineteenth century to the period of decolonisation The selection also reflects recent academic trends by focusing on countries whose colonial past and experience of decolonisation have been studied and debated with particular intensity such as Algeria Kenya and India The volume draws on previously published articles and book chapters by leading international scholars writing in or translated into English and includes a critical introduction which situates each essay in relation to recent debates in this dynamic and expanding field of study

Exploring Animal Encounters Dominik Ohrem, Matthew Calarco, 2018-07-28 This collection of essays offers multifaceted explorations of animal encounters in a range of philosophical cultural literary and historical contexts Exploring Animal Encounters encourages us to think about the richness and complexity of animal lives and human animal relations foregrounding the intricate roles nonhuman creatures play in the always already more than human sphere of ethics and politics In this way the essays in this volume can be understood as a contribution to alternative imaginings of interspecies coexistence in a time in which the issue of human relations with earth and earth others has come to the fore with unprecedented force and severity

Art and Interpretation Eric Dayton, 1999-02-02 Art and Interpretation is a comprehensive anthology of readings on aesthetics Its aim is to present fundamental philosophical issues in such a way as to create a common vocabulary for those from diverse backgrounds to communicate meaningfully about aesthetic issues To that end the editor has provided selections from a wide variety of challenging works in aesthetic theory both classical and modern The approach is often cross disciplinary Within the discipline of philosophy it seeks to balance readings from the analytic tradition with continental European hermeneutical postmodern including deconstructionist and feminist readings The anthology is thus broadly conceived but by grouping the readings into sections such as Expression and Aesthetic object Psychology and Interpretation Marxist Theory and Culture Gender and Difference it aims as well to provide depth of coverage for each topic or issue The book opens with a historical section containing substantial selections from Plato Aristotle Hume Kant Shelley and Nietzsche these readings introduce themes that recur and are developed in the remainder of the anthology
