Deferrals of Domain NA NA,2016-04-30 Contemporary female novelists tend to portray the relationship between women and the state as profoundly negative in contrast to various constructions in current feminist theory Martine Watson Brownley analyzes novels by Margaret Atwood Paule Marshall Nadine Gordimer and Margaret Drabble to explore the significance of this disparity The book uses literary analysis to highlight elements of state power that many feminist theorists currently occlude ranging from women s still minimal access to state politics to the terrifying violence exercised by modern states At the same time however feminist theory clarifies major elements in many contemporary women s lives about which the novels are ambivalent or misleading such as romantic love and the role of sexuality in state politics Deferrals of Domain fills a double gap both authorial and topical in current critical treatments of women writers and will be of interest to both literary and women s studies scholars
