Busy Brownies E. Veale, 2017-07-12 All the Brownies had promised to help and when a Brownie undertakes a thing he works as busily as a beaver until it is accomplished Now this is what they determined to do Brownies chopping wood The Fairy Queen s palace had been destroyed a wind that had swept through the forest carrying trees before it and spreading ruin as it traveled had lifted up the Fairy Queen s home and dashed it all to pieces Poor little Queen how sorrowful she felt to lose the pretty house where the royal family of Fairyland had so long lived

Illustration of the paint incident described below But true to their nature the Brownies came to the rescue promising to build a palace far more beautiful than the one that was lost Such helpful little creatures as the Brownies never lived No chance of doing good to one in trouble ever escapes these generous little fellows and certainly this was a work to be hailed with much joy For a long while before they commenced you could see them gathered in groups discussing how and where they should begin and how they could make the palace more beautiful They were a funny looking set when they started out for the place where the house was to be built Each one carried something One little fellow had an axe another hammer and nails one the mortar hod and still another the plane while the master worker could be seen with the square in his hand giving directions to the whole crowd They commenced their work one beautiful moonlight night Brownies you know work when the darkness has put all the world to sleep What a time they had getting all the things together Arriving at the spot some fell to chopping wood while others mixed the mortar and rigged up the pulleys by which they were to raise the stuff to the roof How the hammers rang out as they struck the bright little nails The Dryatrix L.Z.M. Lightbrick,2016-04-08 One boy One prophecy One choice George is young impaired and completely alone He is responsible for the death of his parents and the reason why one inquisitive Faun needs to protect him Maliciously treated by his stepfather George wears the scars of his torment across his back He cannot escape his stepfather and he has all but given up hope of ever doing so But when he peers through the window of his stepfather s shack one night he sees something strange an earless creature in the middle of the street Intrigued by it George saves it from the road and the next thing he knows he s in the middle of nowhere Before he can enjoy his freedom however George is forced into a fiendish forest where he crosses paths with a Witch Tamsin and witnesses the callousness of nature as it turns on them Evading death George and Tamsin are saved by Thumbalas a Faun who identifies George as the Dryatrix a prophesied force said to be the saviour or destroyer of the natural world Country Life ,1921

Country Life Henry Hodgman Saylor,Reginald Townsend Townsend,1921 Burl Jane Wolfe,2022-06-14 Burl is the story of one man s unlikely rise from the coal mines of Appalachia to the pinnacle of journalism After being diagnosed with a fatal kidney disease as a child Burl Osborne pioneered home dialysis treatment and became the 130th person to undergo a live kidney transplant in 1966 then an unproven high risk operation While managing his challenging illness Burl distinguished himself early as a writer and reporter with The Associated Press eventually rising to the top of the wire service s executive ranks Then against the advice of his colleagues and the newspaper s own doctors he sought an even greater challenge joining The Dallas Morning News to lead the fight in one of America s last great newspaper wars Throughout his life and career he garnered respect from business and political leaders reporters editors and publishers around the country Burl thrusts readers into the improbable and remarkable life of a man at the forefront of both medicine and the golden age of journalism American Childhood ,1941 Includes music mostly songs with piano accompaniment Booksellers, Stationers and Fancy Goods Journal of Australia and New Zealand ,1929
