Urban Planning in North Africa Carlos Nunes Silva, 2016-07-07. There has been relatively little written on the history of urban planning in North Africa despite the wealth of towns and cities in this region which date back to Antiquity. The book explores the history of urban planning in North Africa and the challenges confronting contemporary urban planning in Algeria, Egypt, Libya, Morocco, and Tunisia. It examines the transnational flow of planning ideas during the colonial period, namely through the French, British, and Italian colonial presence, and the Portuguese and Spanish influences, as well as discusses key challenges.

currently confronting urban planning in the major urban centers in the region The fifteen chapters that constitute the book offer an informed analysis of the history of urban planning in North Africa covering the pre colonial colonial and post colonial periods
