McCarty,2005-01-01 Humanities Computing provides a rationale for a computing practice that is of and for as well as in the humanities and the interpretative social sciences It engages philosophical historical ethnographic and critical perspectives to show how computing helps us fulfil the basic mandate of the humane sciences to ask ever better questions of the most challenging kind It strengthens current practice by stimulating debate on the role of the computer in our intellectual life and outlines an agenda for the field to which individual scholars across the humanities can contribute Roberto Busa, S. J., and the Emergence of Humanities Computing Steven E. Jones,2016-03-31 It s the founding myth of humanities computing and digital humanities In 1949 the Italian Jesuit scholar Roberto Busa S J persuaded IBM to offer technical and financial support for the mechanized creation of a massive lemmatized concordance to the works of St Thomas Aquinas Using Busa s own papers recently accessioned in Milan as well as IBM archives and other sources Jones illuminates this DH origin story He examines relationships between the layers of hardware software human agents culture and history and answers the question of how specific technologies afford and even constrain cultural practices including in this case the academic research agendas of humanities computing and later digital humanities
