Ritual Masks Henry Pernet, 2006-03-01 Ritual masking is an important institution in many traditional societies and has attracted much attention from Western scholars In Ritual Masks Pernet provides a thorough survey of masks and masking traditions in Africa Oceania and the Americas based on a close analysis of the literature in several languages Pernet's approach provides him with an opportunity to examine issues of importance to the history of religion and anthropology These include the influence of theory on the interpretation of prehistoric documents androcentrism in anthropology and the history of religions and Western scholarship's recurrent problems in interpreting preliterate or traditional societies Ritual, Play, and Belief in Evolution and Early Human Societies Colin Renfrew, Iain Morley, Michael Boyd, 2018 This book presents unique new insights into the development of human ritual and society through our heritage of play and performance African Masks and Emotions Z. S. Strother, 2025-12-23 In this groundbreaking book Z S Strother inspired by dialogues with African masquerade patrons and performers disputes assumptions that masks universally hide reveal or transform In Western European languages the word mask exerts a powerful presence as a figure of speech To masquerade is to pretend to be someone or something one is not By extension unmasking is a heroic metaphor for exposing a hidden truth In this volume art historian Z S Strother counters that narrative using African case studies to offer an alternative vision of masquerading She explores the aesthetic emotions aroused by masks or more precisely by dances of masks joy wonder awe fear and the release of laughing out loud She also investigates the uncanny a sensation of delicious shiveriness triggered when familiar spaces and individuals become strange and changeable Inspired by Strother's studies in DR Congo African Masks and Emotions takes a comparative perspective and moves emotion from the periphery to the center of analysis Mask Makers and Their Craft Deborah Bell, 2014-01-10 Profiling 30 mask makers from around the world this book explores the motivations and challenges of contemporary artists working to bring the traditional methods and conventions of mask making to an evolving global theatre There are 181 photographs including two sections of color plates which illustrate how the mythic iconography of masks is used in the modern fields of dance mime theatre and storytelling Topics include the ways in which mask artists and performers maintain a sense of universality despite varying local customs the legacies of Italian mask makers Amleto and Donato Sartori and of the California based Dell Arte International School of Physical Theatre and the ways in which traditional approaches in mask artistry continue to influence commercial mask performance ventures in film on Broadway and in touring companies Elgar Encyclopedia of Political Anthropology Arpad Szakolczai, Paul O'Connor, 2025-09-10 This Encyclopedia explores the anthropological underpinnings of politics Featuring biographical entries that reconstruct the life works of key theorists from across the globe alongside topical entries on a range of issues in political anthropology it poses the question what does it mean to be human in contemporary times Masks T. H. M. Gellar-Goad, 2024 The Old Testament in Theology and Teaching Teresa Chai, Dave Johnson, 2018-03-23 APTS Press is

Sawyer, Joe Norris, 2016-09-07 This edited volume addresses the different methods professionals use to promote a critical reflective and reflexive stance among practitioners leading to both a reconceptualization of practice and its subsequent change The goal of increased reflection in professional education is intended to expand approaches for professionals to work with diverse others It is also intended to increase their levels of cognitive differentiation and depth of professional consciousness about themselves alongside diverse others in a rapidly changing world This is an important issue in a range of applied professional programs from education to medicine social work to psychology business to criminal justice in nearly every country in the world Subversive Seduction Travis Landry, 2013-01-10 Male male rivalry and female passive choice the two principal tenets of Darwinian sexual selection raise important ethical questions in The Descent of Man and in the decades since about the subjugation of women If female choice is a key component of evolutionary success what impact does the constraint of women's choices have on society The elaborate courtship plots of 19th century Spanish novels with their fixation on suitors and selectors rivalry and seduction were attempts to grapple with the question of female agency in a patriarchal society By reading Darwin through the lens of the Spanish realist novel and vice versa Travis Landry brings new insights to our understanding of both while Darwin's theories have often been seen as biologically deterministic Landry asserts that Darwin's theory of sexual selection was characterized by an open ended dynamic whose oxymoronic emphasis on passive female choice carries the potential for revolutionary change in the status of women Art and Religion in Africa Rosalind Hackett, Rosalind I. J. Hackett, 1998-10-01 Annotation Explores the interactive and interdependent relationship between art and religion in Africa challenging Western perceptions of what is important in the continent's visual and performing arts Case studies and examples reflect the geographical and gendered diversity of the arts and highlight changes imposed by Christianity Islam and the newer religious movements in post colonial Africa Includes bandw photos and illustrations and a few color photos Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Mirrors and Masks in the Roman Empire Shelley Hales, 2025-11-13 This book explores the ways in which masks and mirrors mediated encounters enabled performances and effected visual and social metamorphoses across the Roman empire The complex and multifaceted roles played by masks and mirrors in Roman culture has been the subject of several sophisticated analyses though to date there has been a lack of significant scholarly engagement with geographical context This volume explores the experiences of classical mirror and mask users across the Roman empire from Gaul and Africa to Asia Minor and the Levant It explores how particular themes are instantiated across a range of imperial contexts as well as offering carefully selected case studies for detailed analysis At once confrontational and evasive enabling and terrifying mirrors and masks hold extraordinary resonance as objects images and metaphors As such they had the capacity to mediate encounters enable performances and effect visual and social metamorphoses in myriad different ways throughout the Roman Empire Exploring these contexts can enrich our understanding of the meanings and uses of mirrors and masks in the Roman world not only in isolation in their immediate locations but also in the influence they might have exerted on each other By examining how the populations of empire encountered themselves and each other through these masks and mirrors we can also observe how classical culture allowed communication and miscommunication between these communities Crucially too we can trace how Roman understandings of these objects not only shaped their own attitude to provincial users but have also helped form perceptions that continue to mask those provincial populations today
