Okoro,2010 Religions and Discourse explores religious language in the major world faiths from various viewpoints including semiotics pragmatics and cognitive linguistics and reflects on how it is situated within wider intellectual and cultural contexts In particular a key issue is the role of figurative speech Many fascinating metaphors originate in religion e g revelation as a garment apostasy as adultery loving kindness as the circumcision of the heart Spirit and Salvation Veli-Matti Karkkainen,2016-12-09 The fourth installment in a wide and deep constructive theology for our time This fourth volume in Veli Matti K rkk inen s ambitious five volume systematic theology develops a constructive Christian pneumatology and soteriology in dialogue with the diverse global Christian tradition and with other major living faiths Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism The Oxford Handbook of Islamic Theology Sabine Schmidtke,2016 Within the field of Islamic Studies scientific research of Muslim theology is a comparatively young discipline Much progress has been achieved over the past decades with respect both to discoveries of new materials and to scholarly approaches to the field The Oxford Handbook of Islamic Theology provides a comprehensive and authoritative survey of the current state of the field It provides a variegated picture of the state of the art and at the same time suggests new directions for future research Part One covers the various strands of Islamic theology during the formative and early middle periods rational as well as scripturalist To demonstrate the continuous interaction among the various theological strands and its repercussions during the formative and early middle period and beyond Part Two offers a number of case studies These focus on specific theological issues that have developed through the dilemmatic and often polemical interactions between the different theological schools and thinkers Part Three covers Islamic theology during the later middle and early modern periods One of the characteristics of this period is the growing amalgamation of theology with philosophy Peripatetic and Illuminationist and mysticism Part Four addresses the impact of political and social developments on theology through a number of case studies the famous mihna instituted by al Ma mun r 189 813 218 833 as well as the mihna to which Ibn Aqil d 769 1367 was subjected the religious policy of the Almohads as well as the shifting interpretations throughout history particularly during Mamluk and Ottoman times of the relation between Ash arism and Maturidism that were often motivated by political motives Part Five considers Islamic theological thought from the end of the early modern and during the modern period

Handbook of Biblical Social Values, Third Edition John J. Pilch,Bruce Malina,2016-11-04 Values are culturally specific This handbook explains select biblical social values in their Mediterranean cultural contexts Some examples of values are altruism freedom family centeredness obedience parenting and power Though the English words for the values described here would be familiar to readers e g altruism the meanings of such words differ between cultures In the Mediterranean world for instance altruism is a duty incumbent upon anyone who has surplus It is interpersonal and group specific In the West especially in the United States altruism is impersonal and universally oriented generosity that operates in a highly organized context This handbook not only presents the Mediterranean meanings of these value words but also contrasts those meanings with Western ones

The Muslim Conquest of Iberia Nicola Clarke,2012 Medieval Islamic society set great store by the transmission of history to edify argue legal points explain present conditions offer political and religious legitimacy and entertain Modern scholars too have had much to say about the usefulness of early Islamic history writing although this debate has traditionally focused overwhelmingly on the central Islamic lands This book looks instead at local and regional history writing in Medieval Iberia Drawing on numerous Arabic texts e historical geographical and biographical e composed and transmitted in al Andalus North Africa and the Islamic east between the ninth and fourteenth centuries Nicola Clarke offers a nuanced and detailed analysis of narratives about the eighth century Muslim conquest of Iberia Comparing how individual episodes characters and themes are treated in different texts and how this treatment relates to intellectual debates literary trends and socio political conditions at the time of writing she shows how competing priorities shaped myriad variations on a single story and how the scholars and patrons of a corner of the Islamic world distant from Baghdad viewed their own history Offering a framework in which historians of Christian Iberia and of Christian Europe more generally can approach and make sense of culturally significant texts from Muslim Iberia this book will also be relevant to broader debates about the historiography of early Islam As such it will be of great interest to scholars of historiography world history and Islamic studies

Muslim-Christian Polemics across the Mediterranean Diego R. Sarrió Cucarella, 2015-01-27 In Muslim-Christian Polemics across the Mediterranean Diego R Sarri Cucarella provides an exposition and analysis of Shih b al D n al Qar f s d 684 1285 Splendid Replies to Insolent Questions al Ajwiba al f khira an al as ila al f jira Written in response to an apology for Christianity by the Melkite Bishop of Sidon Paul of Antioch the Splendid Replies is among the most extensive and most important medieval Muslim refutations of Christianity and the primary significance of this study is to provide detailed access to its argumentation and intellectual context for the first time in a western language Moreover the Introduction and Conclusion creatively situate the work within the challenges of modern day Christian Muslim dialogue

Sacrifice in Religious Experience Albert I. Baumgartner, 2018-09-24 This book presents revised papers delivered at the 1998 and 1999 Taubes Minerva Center for Religious Anthropology conferences The papers from the 1998 conference discuss the role of sacrifice in religious experience from a comparative perspective Those from the second conference examine alternatives to sacrifice The first theme has been much elaborated in recent scholarship and the essays here participate in that on going inquiry The second theme has been less explored and the goal of this volume is to stimulate examination of the topic by offering a set of test cases In both sections of the volume a wide variety of religious traditions are considered The essays show that in spite of the inclination we may sometimes have to consider sacrifice part of the idolatrous past long overcome it remains a persistent and meaningful part of religious experience

Language Politics and Language Survival Bruce Mitchell, 2006 Language Politics and Language Survival Yiddish among the haredim in post war Britain outlines the history and development of the Yiddish language as it is used among Ultra Orthodox Jews in contemporary Britain The language policies of these communities are analysed and placed within the greater socio historical and religious context of rabbinic justifications for the use of Jewish languages and of Yiddish in particular Reasons for the general abandonment of Yiddish outside of the haredi world are also summarized and placed in juxtaposition with the Yiddish language of loyalty of the haredim Yiddish language and corpus planning in haredi schools is analysed using communal documents and newspaper articles educational assessments of Jewish schools compiled by Her Majesty s Inspectors a number of interviews with communal educators tape recordings of lessons given in Yiddish and observations made during my own visits to haredi educational institutions A significant part of this book is dedicated to the analysis of the Yiddish language itself as it is currently used in Britain The analysis of spoken Yiddish is based on recordings of speech patterns collected in the course of field work in haredi schools in London and Manchester and focuses primarily on dialectal usage based on religious sect and the geographic region within Britain A brief sociological analysis of haredi literature in Yiddish is provided in order to demonstrate the ideological function of Yiddish language texts in contemporary Britain and in the haredi world in general The primary materials used for this are texts produced by and published within the haredi communities of Britain Ancient Israel Philip Francis Esler,2006 This volume brings together essays by an international group of biblical scholars on Old Testament topics employing social scientific methods anthropology macro sociology social psychology and so forth
