River Runts Ted Merrill, Bill Merrill, 2006-08-10 This is an engaging and unique memoir told with a wry wit by two brothers now in their eighties Living in a small Idaho town their schoolteacher father had summers free and these stories tell of the authors growing up years camping and fishing on Idaho's Wood River and Salmon River for two to three months each summer The book paints a picture of a close and functional family and touches on parenting history and society It appears on the surface as isolated vignettes of treasured places and events but on a deeper level it shows an orderly progression of lessons learned and skills gained of cultures and values being passed on and the passing of an era on our planet The Trade-mark Reporter, 1943 Hunting the Edges Richard Yatzeck, 1999 Hunting the Edges offers both fine and funny examples of the classic hunting story and something more an acknowledgment of that edge between the cycles of modern life and the age old seasonal call of the hunt Dick Yatzeck's tales of hunting and fishing through his youth and adulthood will resonate with many readers who also leave behind a job and house in town for boots and camouflage and the wild cries of geese Hearings United States.
