Body is Made of Camphor and Gopherwood Robert Bly, 1977 The Incorporative Consciousness of Robert Bly Victoria Frenkel Harris, 1992 Victoria Frenkel Harris traces the aesthetic journey of poet Robert Bly from his early structured works of mystical imagery and lyrical landscapes to his recent explorations of intimate relationships and male socialization. Examining the various ways Bly's prose poems articulate his opposition to the Vietnam War and his recent writings manipulate more formal patterns in detailing the intricacies of human relationships, Harris labels this evolution in form subject and imagery the incorporative consciousness incorporative because it assimilates Jungian psychological categories, international poetic traditions, and a compelling breadth of topics. Harris relies in part on contemporary feminist theory to throw revealing new light on Bly's recent works. Though sympathetic to Bly, Harris finds that in spite of his affirmation of the interaction of psychic creative and intellectual energies in both sexes, the poet's later erotic poems tend to objectify women in counterproductive ways. Bly's idealization of woman as a Jungian universal, Harris contends, can blind him toward actual women. Harris is at her best as she delimits with balance and precision the full complexity of the poet's work. Robert Bly Joyce Peseroff, 1984 A Study Guide for Robert Bly's "Driving to Town Late to Mail a Letter" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2016 A Study Guide for Robert Bly's Driving to Town Late to Mail a Letter excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Poetry for Students. This concise study guide includes plot summary, character analysis, author biography, study questions, historical context, suggestions for further reading, and much more. For any literature project, trust Poetry for Students for all of your research needs. Stealing Sugar from the Castle Robert Bly, 2016-03-01 Robert Bly is the most recent in a line of great American transcendentalist writers. New York Times Selected from throughout Robert Bly's monumental body of work from 1950 through the present, Stealing Sugar from the Castle represents the culmination of an astonishing career in American letters. Bly has long been the voice of transcendentalism and meditative mysticism for his generation. Influenced by Emerson and Thoreau, inspired by spiritual traditions from Sufism to Gnosticism, his vision is oracular. Antioch Review From the rich, earthy simplicity of Silence in the Snowy Fields (1962) to the wild yet intricately formal ghazals of My Sentence Was a Thousand Years of Joy (2005) and the striking richness and authority of Talking into the Ear of a Donkey (2011), Bly's poetry is spiritual yet worldly, celebrating the uncanny beauty of the everyday. I am happy. The moon rising above the turkey sheds. The small world of the car plunges through the deep fields of the night, he writes in Driving Toward the Lac Qui Parle River. Here is a poet moved by the mysteries of the world around him, speaking the language of images in a voice brilliant and bold.
