Settler Colonial Ways of Seeing Danielle Taschereau Mamers, 2023-12-05 An innovative analysis of Indigenous strategies for overcoming the settler state How do bureaucratic documents create and reproduce a state's capacity to see What kinds of worlds do documents help create Further how might such documentary practices and settler colonial ways of seeing be refused Settler Colonial Ways of Seeing investigates how the Canadian state has used documents lists and databases to generate make visible and invisible Indigenous identity With an archive of legislative documents registration forms identity cards and reports Danielle Taschereau Mamers traces the political and media history of Indian status in Canada demonstrating how paperwork has been used by the state to materialize identity categories in the service of colonial governance Her analysis of bureaucratic artifacts is led by the interventions of Indigenous artists including Robert Houle Nadia Myre Cheryl L Hirondelle and Rebecca Belmore Bringing together media theories of documentation and the strategies of these artists Settler Colonial Ways of Seeing develops a method for identifying how bureaucratic documents mediate power relations as well as how those relations may be disobeyed and re imagined By integrating art led inquiry with media theory and settler colonial studies approaches Taschereau Mamers offers a political and media history of the documents that have reproduced Indian status More importantly she provides us with an innovative guide for using art as a method of theorizing decolonial political relations This is a crucial book for any reader interested in the intersection of state archives settler colonial studies and visual culture in the context of Canada's complex and violent relationship with Indigenous peoples

Art for an Undivided Earth Jessica L. Horton, 2017-05-18 In Art for an Undivided Earth Jessica L Horton reveals how the spatial philosophies underlying the American Indian Movement AIM were refigured by a generation of artists searching for new places to stand Upending the assumption that Jimmie Durham James Luna Kay WalkingStick Robert Houle and others were primarily concerned with identity politics she joins them in remapping the coordinates of a widely shared yet deeply contested modernity that is defined in great part by the colonization of the Americas She follows their installations performances and paintings across the ocean and back in time as they retrace the paths of Native diplomats scholars performers and objects in Europe after 1492 Along the way Horton intervenes in a range of theories about global modernisms Native American sovereignty racial difference archival logic artistic itinerancy and new materialisms Writing in creative dialogue with contemporary artists she builds a picture of a spatially temporally and materially interconnected world an undivided earth
