Palestine Israel often begin with the collapse of the Ottoman Empire and Britain's arrival in 1917. However, this work argues that the contest over Palestine has its roots deep in the 19th century with Victorians who first cast the Holy Land as an area to be possessed by empire, then began to devise schemes for its settler colonization. The product of historical research among almost forgotten guidebooks, archives, and newspaper clippings, this book presents a previously unwritten chapter of Britain's colonial desire and reveals how indigenous Palestinians began to react against or accommodate themselves to the West's fascination with their ancestral land. From the travellers who tried to overturn Jerusalem's holiest sites to an uprising sparked by a church bell and a missionary's tragic actions to one Palestinian's eventful visit to the heart of the British Empire, Palestine in the Victorian Age reveals how the events of the nineteenth century have cast a long shadow over the politics of Palestine Israel ever since.
