Russian Education Tradition And Transition:

Russian Education Brian Holmes, Gerald H. Read, Natalya Voskresenskaya, 1995 First Published in 1995 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company School, Reform and Society in the New Russia S. Webber, 1999-10-11 The Russian school system should have an important role to play in the process of democratisation and the revival and modernisation of the economy in that country Is it in a position to respond to this task In this book an analysis is conducted of the attempts to reform the Russian school system in the 1990s setting the progress made and problems encountered by the schools against the broader context of political economical and social flux in Russia as a whole Business and

Management Education in Transitioning and Developing Countries John R McIntyre, Ilan Alon, 2014-12-18 Business education is a critical ingredient in establishing a viable middle class of managers in transitioning and developing economies Compiled in association with the Center for International Business Education and Research this comprehensive examination of business and management education pedagogical models and curricula innovations in institutions around the world is the first such work to emphasize emerging markets Philosophical and Cultural Interpretations of Russian Modernisation Katja Lehtisaari, Arto Mustajoki, 2016-09-13 In this book the expert international contributors attempt to answer questions such as How far is it possible to attribute change in contemporary Russia as due to cultural factors How does the process of change in cultural institutions reflect the general development of Russia Are there certain philosophical ideas that explain the Russian interpretation of a modern state This edited volume elaborates on processes of Russian modernisation regarding a wide range of factors including the use of modern technology elements of civil society a reliable legal system high levels of education equality among citizens freedom of speech religion and trade The main focus is on the Putin era but historical backgrounds are also discussed adding context The chapters cover a wide spectrum of research fields from philosophy and political ideas to gender issues language the education system and the position of music as a constituent of modern identity Throughout the book the chapters are written so as to introduce experts from other fields to new perspectives on Russian modernisation and de modernisation processes It will be of great interest to postgraduates and scholars in Philosophy Politics IR Music and Cultural Studies and of course Russian studies Schooling in New Russia J.

Sutherland, 1998-11-11 The book traces the origins of change in general education in the last years of the Soviet Union and afterwards in the Russian Federation It describes what happened during perestroika and glasnost and the struggles for liberalization which were finally given official recognition in 1998 After the anti Gorbachev coup in 1991 with the disintegration of Soviet and Communist power decentralization and regionalization developed together with the emergence of alternative schools and finally a small private sector The book also describes the many problems faced by schools and teachers with the near collapse of the Russian economy A Comparative Study of Educational Leadership

Characteristics and Attitudes of American and Russian Secondary School Administrators in Moultrie, Georgia,

U.S.A. and Novokuznetsk, Kemerovo, Russia Richard McLendon, 2006-04-19 Since 1991 the Russian Federation has dealt with extreme political economic and social change On the national level and at the local level opponents of democratic reforms have retained their control of many important offices This has resulted in contradictions and confusion in regards to national and local laws and policies and has had little impact on local educational policies and practices Added to this general crisis of Russian education reform is the inability of so called Western education experts to comprehend the complexities and cultural differences of Russia and its education system when compared to the west There have been several studies of business management ideology since the breakup of the Soviet Union but American and Russian comparative educational leadership studies are not to be found Inquiry has produced no empirical studies in Russia and only two American empirical studies that have direct bearing on this research Also studies by the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development the United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization and the World Bank have looked at the total educational system with little or no specific study of educational administration The purpose of this descriptive study is to obtain an impression of how secondary school educators in the Russian Federation and the United States perceive their job responsibilities and organizational structure This research study is of interest in terms of realizing the similarities and dissimilarities of Russian and American educational leadership The survey instrument based on Hofstede's Values Survey Module 1994 was distributed among secondary school administrators and faculty at Colquitt County High School in Moultrie Georgia and their professional counterparts at Secondary Comprehensive School No 56 in Novokuznetsk Russia The collected data may help in understanding organizational dynamics in general and allow for the judgment of cultural contexts on Russian and American educational leadership This research study makes broad use of materials drawn from Russian and Western publications government documentations and other scholarly analyses

The Unification of German Education Val Dean Rust, Diane Rust, 1995 This study of the integration of East and West German education following the collapse of the German Democratic Republic in 1989 focuses on policy formation and implementation during this period of great social and political turbulence It is the result of a research project undertaken shortly after the unification The authors lived in East Germany for a full year looking carefully at individual schools vocational training centers teacher colleges and universities They asked macro analytic questions What are the conditions in which educational policy is successfully formulated How is this educational policy implemented What are the consequences of this policy From the start West Germany demanded a complete dismantling of the educational system in the former German Democratic Republic West German political leaders insisted as a condition of unification that all important agreements concerning education made by the GDR states be accepted by the new states The authors research shows that even before the unification East Germans had already opted for a system consistent with West German education law However the West Germans disregarded these changes and imposed their own version of reform on East Germany The study reveals that in this period of confusion the East Germans did not fully analyze the implications of the imposed conditions which now have unforeseen negative consequences The German situation is of great interest to all educators particularly students of educational policy making as well as researchers in political science economics and sociology Religion and Politics in Contemporary Russia Tobias Köllner,2020-12-13 Based on extensive original research at the local level this book explores the relationship between Russian Orthodoxy and politics in contemporary Russia It reveals close personal links between politicians at the local regional and national levels and their counterparts at the equivalent level in the Russian Orthodox Church priests and monks bishops and archbishops who are extensively consulted about political decisions It outlines a convergence of conservative ideology between politicians and clerics and also highlights that despite working closely together there are nevertheless many tensions The book examines in detail particular areas of cooperation and tension reform to religious education and a growing emphasis on traditional moral values the restitution of former church property and the introduction of new festive days Overall the book concludes that there is much uncertainty ambiguity and great local variation National Identity and Educational Reform Elizabeth Worden,2014-02-18 National identity in Moldova remains contested despite repeated attempts by governments historians and educators to cultivate a shared sense of national belonging through the development of history textbooks Concern over professional status and distrust of the government s motivations halted these reforms demonstrating that the success of such efforts greatly depends on teachers and citizens social memory and everyday lives This volume looks at educational reform and the struggle over national identity in the history classroom from the perspectives of five different groups elected politicians Ministry of Education officials textbook authors and historians teachers and students Each chapter explores the actors motivations and agendas regarding reform their role in promoting or obstructing the reform process and their opinions about the ensuing controversy Drawing on months of fieldwork and original research author Elizabeth Worden examines the importance of teachers and students in the success or failure of a reform initiative Handbook of Research on Individualism and Identity in the Globalized Digital Age Topor, F. Sigmund,2016-08-15 Globalization has shifted perspectives on individualism and identity as cultural exchange occurs more rapidly in an age of heightened connectivity As technology connects those around the world it too helps to provoke a shift in the autonomy of individuals The Handbook of Research on Individualism and Identity in the Globalized Digital Age is an essential resource for researchers professionals and graduate level students This book explores and explains how globalization has impacted humans with specific emphasis on education and human development This research based publication presents critical perspectives on universal changes that are occurring due to globalization
