Russias Race For Asia:

Race and Racism in Modern East Asia Rotem Kowner, Walter Demel, 2012-11-01 Race and Racism in Modern East Asia juxtaposes Western racial constructions of East Asians with constructions of race and their outcomes in modern East Asia This groundbreaking volume also offers an analysis of these constructions their evolution and their interrelations Russia's Race for Asi George Creel, 2011-08-01 Russia as an Aspiring Great Power in East Asia P. Rangsimaporn, 2009-08-27 Rangsimaporn argues that Russia aspires to become a great power and tries to achieve this through utilizing its position as a Eurasian country with vast territories in East Asia its economic assets primarily arms and energy and careful management of its role in a multipolar East Asia with a complex balance of power Russian Energy Strategy in the Asia-Pacific Elizabeth Buchanan, 2021-06-01 Given Australia s lack of energy security strategy it is not surprising that the country is void of institutional knowledge and know how of Russian foreign energy strategy The lucky country as it were relies entirely on sea lines of communication to the north to supply fuel and to export Australian coal and natural gas Australia has entered the 2020s as the world s largest liquefied natural gas LNG exporter however maintaining complacency in Canberra s current export activities will ultimately lead to a long term security crisis This book critically examines Russian energy strategy in the Asia Pacific with a view to determining the security implications for Australia Russia is important for global energy security chains because of its vast resource wealth and its geographical position a pivotal position to supply both the European and Asian markets Australia has no such luxury geographically constrained as an island continent it relies on the nearby Asia Pacific import market to demand our energy and to facilitate the delivery of our national oil supplies Understanding Russian foreign energy strategy in the region is crucial given the growing energy requirements in Australia s emerging Asia Pacific arena Russo-Chinese Energy Relations Stephen Blank, 2006 This report makes the point that in both Russia and China it is politics and not market or commercial considerations that largely drive energy relationships with each other and the outside world For both countries energy and energy security is regarded as a strategic asset and or objective that are at risk from outside forces The conditions that each state has attached to their energy policies ironically preclude the kind of easy cooperation seen in other strategic and political issues between Moscow and Beijing In both Central and Northeast Asia Russia has blocked Chinese efforts to realize its version of energy security yet it has not been able to come up either with the resources or means for a coherent policy of supplying China with reliable quantities of energy that would lead China away from non Russian producers The under fulfilment of the potential for Russia to supply China will continue and continue as well to be a source of strain in their relationship How the Far East Was Lost Dr. Anthony Kubek, 2017-06-28 The Far Eastern policy pursued during the Roosevelt Truman administrations has long been the subject of spirited controversy among historians This volume first published in 1963 is the result of seven years of intensive research into a mass of documentary data dealing with the Communist conquest of China Professor Kubek discusses with unusual candor and clear vision the many mistakes of the Roosevelt and Truman Administrations with reference to the Far East There are new data and fresh interpretations that lend additional evidence to support the contentions of earlier writers that the diplomacy of the Administrations of Roosevelt and Truman was disastrous in the extreme The strange actions of General Marshall in China and his blind policy while Secretary of State were chief factors in the loss of China to the Communists In a noteworthy chapter that all Americans should read Professor Kubek traces in damning detail the tragic role that Marshall played in the fall of Nationalist China This is a volume that will earn the sharpest criticisms of the motley hordes that crowded the Roosevelt and Truman bandwagons but it is a must book for any American who wants to know why the present sawdust Caesar Khrushchev can insult at will the President of the United States and can hurl continual threats to bury all Americans Soviet militate might is the direct product of billions of Democratic Lend Lease aid coddling of Communists in high places in the American Government and failure to understand the basic drives of world Communism Never before in our history was Presidential leadership so devoid of vision and never before had the mistakes of our Chief Executives been so fraught with peril to our nation Read this book and then begin to worry about how Americans will fare in the next decade Charles Callan Tansill Professor Emeritus of Diplomatic History Georgetown University Foreword Russia at War Timothy C.
