Notable American Women Susan Ware, 2004 This latest volume brings the project up to date with entries on almost 500 women whose death dates fall between 1976 and 1999 You will find here stars of the golden ages of radio film dance and television scientists and scholars civil rights activists and religious leaders Native American craftspeople and world renowned artists For each subject the volume offers a biographical essay by a distinguished authority that integrates the woman's personal life with her professional achievements set in the context of larger historical developments

Art of Illusion Dan Karlholm, 2006 To survey art history as a whole was a pressing task for a generation of German scholars around the mid nineteenth century Their projections of a historicist chain of artworks ranged from textual narratives without illustrations to separate picture compendia as well as images of a more allegorical kind Other means with which to picture art history as part of a virtually all encompassing cultural history were the museums of art erected in Germany at the time in Berlin and Munich especially This book deals with practices of representing art history in various media This includes post Hegelian texts and engravings of art history from the 1840s onwards by Franz Kugler Julius Schnorr and others In addition works of art of the late twentieth century by Andy Warhol Anselm Kiefer and others provide opportunities to speculate on the after effects and discursive traces of the old regime Extending the concept of historiography to include not just textual or institutional endeavours but a host of different images as well from reproductive prints to pop paintings and visual archives of the digital era this study is intended to contribute in new ways to a critical historiography of the field of art history and visual culture today

American Women Photographers Martha Kreisel, 1999-02-28 American women have made significant contributions to the field of photography for well over a century This bibliography compiles more than 1 070 sources for over 600 photographers from the 1880s to the present As women's role in society changed so did their role as photographers In the early years women often served as photographic assistants in their husbands studios The photography equipment initially heavy and difficult to transport was improved in the 1880s by George Eastman's innovations With the lighter camera equipment photography became accessible to everyone Women photographers became journalists and portraitists who documented vanishing cultures and ways of life Many of these important female photographers recorded life in the growing Northwest and the streets of New York City became pioneers of historic photography as they captured the plight of Americans fleeing the Dust Bowl and the horrors of the concentration camps and were members of the Photo Secessionist Movement to promote photography as a true art form This source serves as a checklist for not only the famous but also the less familiar women photographers who deserve attention New York Magazine ,1995-05-08 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea New York Magazine ,1995-05-22 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Ruth Orkin Ruth Orkin,1995
