Rwanda Crisis History Of A Genocide:

The Rwanda Crisis Gérard Prunier, 1998 Offering an up to date historical perspective which should enable readers to fathom how the brutal massacres of 800 000 Rwandese came to pass in 1994 this volume includes a new chapter that brings the analysis up to the end of 1996 Gerard Prunier probes into how the genocidal events in Rwanda were part of a deadly logic a plan that served central political and economic interests rather than a result of primordial tribal hatreds a notion often invoked by the media to dramatize genocide The Rwanda Crisis Gérard Prunier, 1999 The Rwanda Crisis, 1959-1994 Gérard Prunier, 1995 This text analyzes the events leading up to genocidal conflicts in Rwanda during 1994 and discusses the country's prospects in their aftermath In tracing the political machinations that preceded the genocide the author argues that there was a carefully orchestrated plan which set the killings in motion For Prunier therefore the Hutu Tutsi conflict was not the result of insatiable bloodlust and ancestral hatreds but an act of political mass murder Accordingly he delineates the leading political actors and explains their role in events of 1991 1994 Who Must Die in Rwanda's Genocide? Kyrsten Sinema, 2015-09-11 This book provides a juridical sociopolitical history of the evolution of the 1994 Rwandan genocide Over one million citizens were massacred in less than 100 days via a highly organized efficiently executed genocide throughout the tiny country of Rwanda While genocide is not a unique phenomenon in modern times a genocide like Rwanda's is unique Unlike most genocides wherein a government plans and executes mass murder of a targeted portion of its population asking merely that the majority population look the other way or at most provide no harbor to the targeted population ex Germany the Rwandan government relied heavily on the civilian population to not only politically support but actively engage in the acts of genocide committed over the 100 days throughout the spring of 1994 This book seeks to understand why and how the Rwandan genocide occurred It analyzes the colonial roots of modern Rwandan government and the development of the political state of exception created in Rwanda that ultimately allowed the sovereign to dehumanize the minority Tutsi population and execute the most efficient genocide in modern history Foreign Interventions in Ethnic Conflicts Robert Nalbandov, 2016-04-15 This volume analyzes the successes and failures of foreign interventions in intrastate ethnic wars Adding value to current research in the fields of international security and conflict resolution it adopts the unique approach of considering successes of third party actions not by durable peace established in a target country which is the more traditional approach but by actual fulfilment of intervention goals and objectives because multilateral interventions are more likely to achieve success in the pursuit of their goals than unilateral actions Robert Nalbandov takes in depth studies of interventions in Chad Georgia Somalia and Rwanda and relates them to the main theories of international security the ethnic security dilemma and the credible commitment problem to produce a fascinating and valuable volume From Genocide to Continental War Gérard Prunier, 2009 process In From Genocide to Continental War Gerard Prunier describes in precise and chilling detail this massive yet little known conflict which became known as Africa's First World War It became a litmus test for the fragile state of the continent as Africans were struggling to usher in a new era as the twentieth century drew to a close Book Jacket

When Victims Become Killers Mahmood Mamdani, 2002-09 Rejecting easy explanations of the genocide as a mysterious evil force that was bizarrely unleashed one of Africa's best known intellectuals situates the tragedy in its proper context He coaxes to the surface the historical geographical and political forces that made it possible for so many Hutu to turn so brutally on their neighbors He finds answers in the nature of political identities generated during colonialism in the failures of the nationalist revolution to transcend these identities and in regional demographic and political currents that reach well beyond Rwanda In so doing Mahmood Mamdani broadens understanding of citizenship and political identity in postcolonial Africa Mamdani's analysis provides a foundation for future studies of the massacre His answers point a way out of crisis a direction for reforming political identity in central Africa and preventing future tragedies R sum de l diteur

The Routledge Handbook of Ethnic Conflict Karl Cordell, Stefan Wolff, 2016-01-22 A definitive global survey of the interaction of ethnicity nationalism and politics this handbook blends rigorous theoretically grounded analysis with empirically rich illustrations to provide a state of the art overview of the contemporary debates on one of the most pervasive international security challenges today Fully updated for the second edition the book includes a new section which offers detailed analyses of contemporary cases of conflict such as in Ukraine Kosovo the African Great Lakes region and in the Kurdish areas across the Middle East thus providing accessible examples that bridge the gap between theory and practice The contributors offer a 360 degree perspective on ethnic conflict from the theoretical foundations of nationalism and ethnicity to the causes and consequences of ethnic conflict and to the various strategies adopted in response to it Without privileging any specific explanation of why ethnic conflict happens at a particular place and time or why attempts at preventing or settling it might fail or succeed The Routledge Handbook of Ethnic Conflict enables readers to gain a better insight into such defining moments in post Cold War international history as the disintegration of the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia and their respective consequences the genocide in Rwanda and the relative success of conflict settlement efforts in Northern Ireland By contributing to understanding the varied and multiple causes of ethnic conflicts and to learning from the successes and failures of their prevention and settlement the Handbook makes a powerful case that ethnic conflicts are neither unavoidable nor unresolvable but rather that they require careful analysis and thoughtful and measured responses

Freedman, 2016-04-29 Internal security crises from environmental disaster extreme poverty and deprivation armed conflicts or ethnic or religious conflict provide sites of opportunity for those seeking to internationalize conflicts Domestic conflicts in Africa the Middle East and Southeast Asia have started as internal problems but have taken on regional and international dimensions as parties to the conflict within the country and sympathetic external forces have joined forces with each other for mutual gain This book examines the international dimension to internal conflicts and asks under what conditions do domestic conflicts become opportunities for regional or global actors to become involved Why have some countries been able to successfully deal with this problem while others have not Who are the actors who seek to internationalize conflicts Why and with what means do they become involved and how do their agendas get internalized localized Cases include the separatist movements in the Philippines Southern Thailand Aceh Indonesia and the civil wars in Rwanda Congo and Sierra Leone Liberia Lebanon and Iraq This book finds that a combination of greater democratization internally coupled with constructive outside mediation efforts can produce conditions necessary to prevent conflicts from escalating or diffusing and can facilitate peace building Several chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Asian Security
