Ryan Silva: Star Pitcher , The Other Side of Silence Linda Azema,2005-09-01 Ever make a mistake Sure we all have The choices we make don t always lead to the results we had hoped for And what about the other people involved Making our choice may cause misunderstanding hurt pain grief or separation How do we fix that How can we be reconciled to those we love How do we forgive or ask to be forgiven But it s none of their business you say It s my life and I m making my choices alone Alone Linda Azema thought she was alone too Using stories from her childhood teenage and college years Linda reveals an intricate web of voices clamoring around us continually bombarding us with their messages and entangling our emotions Linda is convinced We are not alone not in a single decision that we make God comes near and speaks because He loves you The world broadcasts its message because it aims to use you And the devil who is called Satan will also speak his thoughts into your mind because he wants to destroy you Silence Just you and your own thoughts Listen again There is more to our world than you may have realized on The Other Side of Silence Still wondering if you should read this book You ll be wasting your time unless you are Someone who faces choices to make on a daily basis dealing with the thoughts and different options that bounce around in your head Might be you Someone who might have a tendency to see things only from his own perspective Not you Okay Someone who knows a person who needs to realize there s more to life than just me Still not you but you know some don t you Someone who already knows these things and needs a tool to help others Minnesota
