S S Beaver The Ship That Saved The West:

J. F. Bosher, 2010-04 During the century 1850 1950 Vancouver Island attracted Imperial officers and other Imperials from India the British Isles and elsewhere in the Empire Victoria was the main British port on the north west Pacific Coast for forty years before the city of Vancouver was founded in 1886 to be the coastal terminus of the Canadian Pacific Railway These two coastal cities were historically and geographically different The Island joined Canada in 1871 and thirty five years later the Royal Navy withdrew from Esquimalt but Island communities did not lose their Imperial character until the 1950s P 4 of cover The Beaver James P. Delgado, 1993 The Hudson s Bay Company s paddle steamship the Beaver was the first and for many years the only steam vessel on the coast of British Columbia In 1888 her long and successful career came to a sad end on the rocks of Prospect Point but she remains an object of fascination to divers This is the biography of the Beaver a ship that made an unparalleled contribution to the history of the west coast

S. S. Beaver: the Ship that Saved the West Derek Pethick, 1970 Sam Hill's Peace Arch Richard Clark, 2005 Standing but a stone s throw from the continent s western shoreline Samuel Hill a Quaker devoted to peace and a road builder rolling in wealth addressed 4 000 celebrants gathered at the United States Canada border on the Fourth of July 1915 There they celebrated a century of international peace and the opening of the Pacific Highway now known simply as the I 5 As the ceremony closed one member of the crowd stood and proposed construction of an international arch of peace at the site whereon they stood Hill agreed and acted upon the proposal Six years later on September 6 1921 Samuel Hill stood before a crowd estimated at 10 000 or more and dedicated the International Peace Arch to the cause of world peace War satisfies neither the victors nor the vanquished he said opening his dedicatory address Perfect peace alone satisfies For more than 80 years the Peace Arch has stood between freeway lanes where millions of travelers heading south into Washington state or north into British Columbia have seen it as a symbol of peace resident of Blaine Washington whose home is but one block from Peace Arch State Park completed an exhaustive manuscript after fifteen years of research The Peace Arch standing on beautiful international parkland has also been enshrouded with myths and mysteries that Clark has uncovered in the course of his research Peace Arch devotees long forgotten have been restored to remembrances they have long deserved Vital facts long lost have been recovered and given merited recognition The Peace Arch has been the setting of devotion and demonstrations queens and quarrels marriages and marching bands But in its history so notably marked by variation ranging from violence to indifference peace has remained its ongoing theme Trading Beyond the Mountains Richard S. Mackie, 2011-11-01 During the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries the North West and Hudson s Bay companies extended their operations beyond the Rocky Mountains to the Pacific Ocean There they encountered a mild and forgiving climate and abundant natural resources and with the aid of Native traders branched out into farming fishing logging and mining Following its merger with the North West Company in 1821 the Hudson s Bay Company set up its headquarters at Fort Vancouver on the lower Columbia River From there the company dominated much of the non Native economy sending out goods to markets in Hawaii Sitka and San Francisco Trading Beyond the Mountains looks at the years of exploration between 1793 and 1843 leading to the commercial development of the Pacific coast and the Cordilleran interior of western North America Mackie examines the first stages of economic diversification in this fur trade region and its transformation into a dynamic and distinctive regional economy He also documents the Hudson s Bay Company s employment of Native slaves and labourers in the North West coast region

The Vancouver Island Letters of Edmund Hope Verney Allan Pritchard,2011-11-01 This previously unknown collection of letters lets us experience colonial British Columbia through the eyes of a young British naval officer who spent three years on Vancouver Island commanding a Royal Navy gunboat during the Cariboo gold rush A keen observer of life in the new world Edmund Hope Verney corresponded on a regular basis with his father a prominent British MP In his letters which are filled with lively narration and description candid commentary and fascinating personal detail he talks about having the opportunity to observe a colony in its first stage of existence and to watch the development of a community Glyphs and Gallows Peter Wilton Johnson,1999 In 1995 Peter Johnson went looking for a rare set of petroglyphs located on the outer coast of Vancouver Island near an abandoned whaling village Encouraged by archival research that yielded court records 90 year old correspondence and a tantalizing 1926 newspaper article Peter sought to tie these glyphs to the 1869 wreck of the trading barque John Bright and the bizarre colonial trial that followed He found more questions than answers Why for example were two Nuuchahmuls men so readily hung from a gallows erected in front of their village at Hesquiat And how did this event relate to the rock carvings that Peter knew existed in a cove many miles south along the life saving West Coast Trail by the Graveyard of the Pacific This story explores the significance of particular petroglyphs colonial injustice and the European trading mentality on the west coast at the time of contact Peter interweaves a personal journal with historical narrative in order to produce a lively account of the relationship between our coastal history and a little known Aboriginal art form

Captain Alex MacLean Don MacGillivray,2008-11-01 Alex MacLean was the inspiration for the title character in Jack London s bestselling novel The Sea Wolf Originally from Cape Breton MacLean sailed to the Pacific side of North America when he was twenty one and worked there for thirty five years as a sailor and sealer His achievements and escapades while in the Victoria fleet in the 1880s laid the foundation for his status as a folk hero But this biography reveals more than the construction of a legend Don MacGillivray opens a window onto the sealing dispute brought the United States and Britain to the brink of war with Canadian sealing interests frequently enmeshed in espionage scientific debate diplomatic negotiations and vexing questions of maritime and environmental law S.S. mcq questions for class 10 maths chapter 2 polynomials - Apr 02 2022 web feb 1 2022 explanation we know that if we divide or multiply a polynomial by any constant real number then the zeroes of polynomial remains same here $\alpha = 2$ and $\beta = 5$ $\alpha\beta = 2 \times 5 = 10$ and $\alpha + \beta = 2 + 5 = 7$ so required polynomial is $x^2 - 7x + 10$
