Sacco Di Roma Roman:

The Sack of Rome J. Hook, 2004-03-16 The sack of Rome shocked the Christian world Following the battle of Pavia Pope Clement VII joined 1526 the French led League of Cognac to resist the threatened Habsburg domination of Europe Emperor Charles V appealed to the German diet for support and raised an army which entered Italy in 1527 and joined the imperial forces from Milan commanded by the Duke of Bourbon This army marched on Rome hoping to detach the pope from the league The many Lutherans in its ranks boasted that they came with hemp halters to hang the cardinals and a silk one for the pope Rome fell on 6 May 1527 Bourbon being killed in the first assault Discipline collapsed and the city was savagely pillaged for a week before some control was restored Judith Hook s book is here reprinted with a foreward by Patrick Collinson

The Sack of Rome, 1527 André Chastel, 2023-10-17 From a leading art historian of Renaissance Italy a compelling account of the artistic and cultural impact of the sack of sixteenth century Rome In this illustrated account of the sack of Rome as a cultural and artistic phenomenon Andr Chastel reveals the historical ambiguities of preceding events and the traumatic contrast between the flourishing world of art under Pope Clement VII and the city after it was looted by the troops of Emperor Charles V in 1527 Chastel illuminates the cultural repercussions of the humiliation of Rome emphasizing the spread or Europeanization of the Mannerist style by artists who fled the city including Parmigianino Rosso Polidoro Peruzzi and Perino del Vaga At the same time Clement s critics used the new media of printing and engraving to win over the people with caricatures and satirical writings while Rome responded with monumental works affirming the legitimacy of the pope s temporal power Chastel explores both the world that was lost by the sack and the great works of art created during Rome s recovery The Cambridge Modern History Sir Stanley Mordaunt Leathes, 1934 International Banking Directory, 1922

The Papacy and the Levant, 1204-1571 Kenneth M. Pagans and Christians in Late Antique Rome Michele Renee Salzman, Marianne Sághy, Rita Lizzi Testa, 2015-11-12 This book sheds new light on the religious and consequently social changes taking place in late antique Rome The essays in this volume argue that the once dominant notion of pagan Christian religious conflict cannot fully explain the texts and artifacts as well as the social religious and political realities of late antique Rome Together the essays demonstrate that the fourth century city was a more fluid vibrant and complex place than was previously thought Competition between diverse groups in Roman society be it pagans with Christians Christians with Christians or pagans with pagans did create tensions and hostility but it also allowed for coexistence and reduced the likelihood of overt violent physical conflict Competition and coexistence along with conflict emerge as still central paradigms for those who seek to understand the transformations of Rome from the age of Constantine through the early fifth century

Bramante's Tempietto, the Roman Renaissance, and the Spanish Crown Jack Freiberg, 2014-11-10 This groundbreaking book situates Bramante's Tempietto at the center of an arts program that exalted Spain's quest for Christian hegemony

Urban Disasters and the Roman Imagination Virginia M. Closs, Elizabeth Keitel, 2020-09-21 This book affords new perspectives on urban disasters in the ancient Roman context attending not just to the material and historical realities of such events but also to the imaginary and literary possibilities offered by urban disaster as a figure of thought Existential threats to the ancient city took many forms including military invasions natural disasters public health crises and gradual systemic collapses brought on by political or economic factors In Roman cities the memory of such events left lasting imprints on the city in psychological as well as in material terms Individual chapters explore historical disasters and their commemoration but others also consider the effect of anticipated and imagined catastrophes They analyze the destruction of cities both as a threat to be forestalled and as a potentially regenerative agent of change and the ways in which destroyed cities are revisited and in a sense rebuilt in literary and social memory The contributors to this volume seek to explore the Roman conception of disaster in terms that are not exclusively literary or historical Instead they explore the connections between and among various elements in the assemblage of experiences texts and traditions touching upon the theme of urban disasters in the Roman world

Rome: Continuing Encounters between Past and Present Dorigen Caldwell, 2016-12-05 Few other cities can compare with Rome's history of continuous habitation nor with the survival of so many different epochs in its present This volume explores how the city's past has shaped the way in which Rome has been built rebuilt represented and imagined throughout its history Bringing together scholars from the disciplines of architectural history urban studies art history archaeology and film studies this book comprises a series of studies on the evolution of the city of Rome and the ways in which it has represented and reconfigured itself from the medieval period to the present day Moving from material appropriations such as spolia in the medieval period through the cartographic representations of the city in the early modern period to filmic representation in the twentieth century we encounter very different ways of making sense of the past across Rome's historical spectrum. The broad chronological arrangement of the chapters and the choice of themes and urban locations examined in each allows the reader to draw comparisons between historical periods. An imaginative approach to the study of the urban and architectural make-up of Rome this volume will be valuable not only for historians of art and architecture but also for students of cultural history and film studies.

Sebastiano del Piombo and the World of Spanish Rome Piers Baker-Bates, 2017-07-05

Sebastiano del Piombo c. 1485-1547 was a close associate and rival of the central artistic figures of the High Renaissance notably Michelangelo and Raphael. After the death of Raphael and the departure of Michelangelo from Rome Sebastiano became the dominant artistic personality in the city. Despite being one of the most significant artistic figures of the period he remains the last artist of major importance in the western canon about whom no recent work has been published in English. In this study Piers Baker-Bates approaches Sebastiano's career through analysis of the patrons he attracted following his arrival at Rome. The first half of the book concentrates on Sebastiano's network of patrons predominantly Italian who had strong factional ties to the Imperial camp; the second half discusses Sebastiano's relationship with his principal Spanish patrons. Sebastiano is a leading example of a transcultural artist in the sixteenth century and his relationship with Spain was fundamental to the development of his career. The author investigates the domination of Sebastiano's career by patrons who had geographically different origins but who were all members of a wider network of Imperial loyalties. Thus Baker-Bates removes Sebastiano from the shadow of his contemporaries bringing him to life for the reader as an artistic personality in his own right. Baker-Bates' characterization of the Rome in which Sebastiano made his career differs from previous scholarly accounts and he describes how Sebastiano was ideally suited to flourish in the environment he depicts. Sebastiano del Piombo and the World of Spanish Rome thus re-appraises not only Sebastiano's place in the canon of Renaissance art but using him as a lens also the cultural worlds of Early Modern Italy and Spain in which he operated.

Urban Space and Aristocratic Power in Late Antique Rome Carlos Machado, 2019-10-17

Between 270 and 535 AD the city of Rome experienced dramatic changes. The once glorious imperial capital was transformed into the much humbler centre of western Christendom in a process that redefined its political importance, size and identity. Urban Space and Aristocratic Power in Late Antique Rome examines these transformations by focusing on the city's powerful elite the senatorial aristocracy and exploring their involvement in a process of urban change that would mark the end of the ancient world and the birth of the Middle Ages in the eyes of contemporaries and modern scholars. It argues that the late antique history of Rome cannot be described as merely a product of decline; instead it was a product of the dynamic social and cultural forces that made the city relevant at a time of unprecedented historical changes. Combining the city's unique literary, epigraphic and archaeological record the volume offers a detailed examination of aspects of city life as diverse as its administration public building rituals housing and religious life to show how the late Roman aristocracy gave a new shape and meaning to urban space identifying itself with the largest city in the Mediterranean world to an extent unparalleled since the end of the Republican period The Frescoed Façade in Renaissance Roman Visual Culture Alexis Culotta, 2025-10-01

This book examines Roman fa ades decorated with fresco and sgraffito between the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries that once enveloped the central rioni of Rome within a web of symbolic social political and familial allegiances that transformed a street side stroll into a visually engaging experience Today many of these faces are lost and our understanding of what they comprised is frighteningly incomplete This book offers a refreshed look at this often forgotten facet of Renaissance visual culture to reignite interest in the tradition before its last remnants disappear In addition to offering a new compilation of these documented fa ades this book also places new emphasis on the making and meaning of these painted faces to provide new insights into the place of the decorated fa ade at the intersections of patron identity and painterly innovation in a city working tirelessly to reinvent itself
