Sacred And Profane Memories:

Sacred and Profane Memories Carl Van Vechten, 1979-01-01 Waugh Without End Carlos Villar Flor, Carlos Villar, Robert Murray Davis, 2005 Compiled on the occasion of Evelyn Waugh's centenary in 2003 this collection of essays shows a renewed critical interest in the author extended by scholars from both sides of the Atlantic The contributions go back to an international symposium held at La Rioja University 15-17 May 2003 Apart from traditional debate over questions of fact and interpretation the book contains innovative approaches to Waugh's oeuvre some of which make use of theories of discourse and media studies and denote an increasingly sophisticated awareness of his religious political and social contexts Beginning with those essays presenting overviews of Waugh's life and work and continuing with discussions of particular books in chronological order this volume deals with a wide variety of aspects that confirm Waugh's rising status as a major twentieth century classic

Narratives of Memory V. Stewart, 2006-10-12 This book identifies memory a previously unexamined concern in both literary and popular writing of the 1940s Emphasizing the use of memory as a structural device this book traces developments in narrative during and immediately after the war Authors include Margery Allingham Elizabeth Bowen Graham Greene Patrick Hamilton and Denton Welch

Brasted Revisited Ken Evans, 2017-04-24 This is the true story of an Anglican ordinand a student preparing for the ordained priesthood in the Church of England and changes in his sense of direction which took him into academia and to then return to his old college as tutor All this set against the historical background at that time of a church losing its sense of direction the madness of a place almost out of time the clash of traditions and ideas and the continuing thoughts that none of this could possibly have happened

Memory in the Twenty-First Century Sebastian Groes, 2016-03-29 This book maps and analyses the changing state of memory at the start of the twenty first century in essays written by scientists scholars and writers It recontextualises memory by investigating the impact of new conditions such as the digital revolution climate change and an ageing population on our world

Historic and Monumental Rome Charles Isidore Hemans, 1874

Recapitulations Thomas Prufer, 2018-03-02 Provides commentary on prominent philosophers on important philosophical themes These unusual and exquisite essays focus on a problem or a text with extraordinary acuity

The Phenomenology of Love and Reading Cassandra Falke, 2018-05-31 The current revival of interest in ethics in literary criticism coincides fortuitously with a revival of interest in love in philosophy The literary return to ethics also coincides with a spate of neuroscientific discoveries about cognition and emotion But without a philosophical grounding this new work cannot speak convincingly about literature's relationship to our ethical lives Jean Luc Marion's articulation of a phenomenology of love provides this philosophical grounding The Phenomenology of Love and Reading accepts Jean Luc Marion's argument that love matters for who we are more than anything more than cognition and more than being itself Cassandra Falke shows how reading can strengthen our capacity to love by giving us practice in love's habits attention empathy and a willingness to be overwhelmed Confounding our expectations literature equips us for the confounding events of love which Falke suggests are not rare and fleeting but rather constitute the most meaningful and durable part of our everyday life
