Sacred Hoop A Cycle Of Earth Tales:

The Sacred Hoop Bill Broder, 1992 An allegorical treatment of man's relationship with the earth illustrated with contemporary art and artifacts captures those historical moments in which man's relationship with the natural world underwent radical change

Surviving in Two Worlds Lois Crozier-Hogle, Darryl Babe Wilson, Ferne Jensen, 2010-06-28
Surviving in Two Worlds brings together the voices of twenty six Native American leaders The interviewees come from a variety of tribal backgrounds and include such national figures as Oren Lyons Arvol Looking Horse John Echohawk William Demmert Clifford Trafzer Greg Sarris and Roxanne Swentzell Their interviews are divided into five sections grouped around the themes of tradition history and politics healing education and culture They take readers into their lives their dreams and fears their philosophies and experiences and show what they are doing to assure the survival of their peoples and cultures as well as the earth as a whole Their analyses of the past and present and especially their counsels for the future are timely and urgent

Where the Wild Books Are Jim Dwyer, 2010-04-01 As interest in environmental issues grows many writers of fiction have embraced themes that explore the connections between humans and the natural world Ecologically themed fiction ranges from profound philosophical meditations to action packed entertainments Where the Wild Books Are offers an overview of nearly 2 000 works of nature oriented fiction The author includes a discussion of the precursors and history of the genre and of its expansion since the 1970s He also considers its forms and themes as well as the subgenres into which it has evolved such as speculative fiction ecodefense animal stories mysteries ecofeminist novels cautionary tales and others A brief summary and critical commentary of each title is included Dwyer's scope is broad and covers fiction by Native American writers as well as ecofiction from writers around the world Far more than a mere listing of books Where the Wild Books Are is a lively introduction to a vast universe of engaging provocative writing It can be used to develop book collections or curricula It also serves as an introduction to one of the most fertile areas of contemporary fiction presenting books that will offer enjoyable reading and new insights into the vexing environmental questions of our time

The Sacred Hoop Paula Gunn Allen, 2015-03-03 Almost thirty years after its initial publication Paula Gunn Allen's celebrated study of women's roles in Native American culture history and traditions continues to influence writers and scholars in Native American studies women's studies queer studies religion and spirituality and beyond This groundbreaking collection of seventeen essays investigates and celebrates Native American traditions with special focus on the position of the American Indian woman within those customs Divided into three sections the book discusses literature and authors history and historians sovereignty and revolution and social welfare and public policy especially as those subjects interact with the topic of Native American women Poet academic biographer critic activist and novelist Paula Gunn Allen was a leader and trailblazer in the field of women's and Native American spirituality Her work is both universal and deeply personal examining heritage anger racism homophobia Eurocentrism and the enduring spirit of the American Indian
