Sacred Possessions:

Sacred Possessions Gail Feigenbaum, S. Ebert-Schifferer, Galina Tirnanić, 2011 This innovative study explores how interpretations of religious art change when it is moved into a secular context Sacred Possessions Margarite Fernández Olmos, Elizabeth Paravisini-Gebert, 1997 For review see Joseph M Murphy in HAHR The Hispanic American Historical Review 78 3 August 1998 p 495 496 Inalienable Possessions Annette B. Weiner, 1992-05-13 Weiner provides not only a new perspective on social and natural reproduction but also a framework through which to compare societies This is an original point of view that will have real effects on the direction of future fieldwork and comparative analysis Ivan Karp Smithsonian Institution A Collection of Life Stories Miltiades B. Efthimiou, 2024-10-29 Rev Dr Miltiades B Efthimiou an Orthodox protopresbyter of the Ecumenical Patriarchate of Constantinople shares an encouraging message which motivates the reader to aspire to seek the source of all wisdom focusing on the love between God and man Far from a life history written for family and friends this memoir covers a sweeping range of topics from the existence of life in outer space encouragement to reflect on faith with poetic allusions of the Garden of Eden and the ripple effect caused by politics and religion A Collection of Life Stories takes readers on a journey through Miltiades life with key stops along the way providing important reminders that we create our own destiny The stories within cross continents from ancient to modern times weaving a tapestry of history art religion and memorable life lessons These thought provoking reflections encourage the reader to accept what we cannot change change the things we can and understand the difference between the two It s a beautiful testament to a life well lived in faith and authenticity Origins of Possession Philippe Rochat, 2014-09-11 Human possession psychology originates from deeply rooted experiential capacities shared with other animals However unlike other animals we are a uniquely self conscious species concerned with reputation and possessions affect our perception of how we exist in the eyes of others This book discusses the psychology surrounding the ways in which humans experience possession claim ownership and share from both a developmental and cross cultural perspective Philippe Rochat explores the origins of human possession and its symbolic development across cultures He proposes that human possession psychology is particularly revealing of human nature and also the source of our elusive moral sense The Emperor and the World Alicia Walker, 2012-04-30 Byzantine imperial imagery is commonly perceived as a static system In contrast to this common portrayal this book draws attention to its openness and responsiveness to other artistic traditions Through a close examination of significant objects and monuments created over a 350 year period from the ninth to the thirteenth century Alicia Walker shows how the visual articulation of Byzantine imperial power not only maintained a visual vocabulary inherited from Greco Roman antiquity and the Judeo Christian tradition but also innovated on these artistic precedents by incorporating styles and forms from contemporary foreign cultures specifically the Sasanian Chinese and Islamic worlds In addition to art and architecture this book explores historical accounts and literary works as well as records of ceremonial practices thereby demonstrating how texts ritual and images operated as integrated agents of imperial power Walker offers new ways to think about cross cultural interaction in the Middle Ages and explores the diverse ways in which imperial images employed foreign elements in order to express particularly Byzantine meanings
