Sacred Boundaries Religious Coexistence And Conflict In Early Modern France:

Sacred Boundaries Keith P. Luria, 2005-08 Religious rivalry and persecution have bedeviled so many societies that confessional difference often seems an unavoidable source of conflict Sacred Boundaries challenges this assumption by examining relations between the Catholic majority and Protestant minority in seventeenth century France as a case study of two religious groups constructing confessional difference and coexistence Early Modern Toleration Benjamin J. Kaplan, Jaap Geraerts, 2023-08-31 This book examines the practice of toleration and the experience of religious diversity in the early modern world Recent scholarship has shown the myriad ways in which religious differences were accommodated in the early modern era 1500 1800 This book propels this revisionist wave further by linking the accommodation of religious diversity in early modern communities to the experience of this diversity by individuals It does so by studying the forms and patterns of interaction between members of different religious groups including Christian denominations Muslims and Jews in territories ranging from Europe to the Americas and South East Asia This book is structured around five key concepts the senses identities boundaries interaction and space For each concept the book provides chapters based on new original research plus an introduction that situates the chapters in their historiographic context Early Modern Toleration New Approaches is aimed primarily at undergraduate and postgraduate students to whom it offers an accessible introduction to the study of religious toleration in the early modern era Additionally scholars will find cutting edge contributions to the field in the book's chapters Peace and Authority During the French Religious Wars c.1560-1600 P. Roberts, 2013-05-29 Through a wide ranging and close analysis of archival sources this book re evaluates both the role of royal authority and of local agency in the French religious wars in the lead up to the Edict of Nantes of 1598 Drawing on extensive research it provides a new perspective on the political religious social and cultural history of the conflict Cultures of Conflict Resolution in Early Modern Europe Stephen Cummins, Laura Kounine, 2017-05-15 Disputes discord and reconciliation were fundamental parts of the fabric of communal living in early modern Europe This edited volume presents essays on the cultural codes of conflict and its resolution in this period under three broad themes peacemaking as practice the nature of mediation and arbitration and the role of criminal law in conflicts Through an exploration of conflict and peacemaking this volume provides innovative accounts of state formation community and religion in the early modern period Living with Religious Diversity in Early-Modern Europe Dagmar Freist, 2016-12-05 Current scholarship continues to emphasise both the importance and the sheer diversity of religious beliefs within early modern societies Furthermore it continues to show that despite the wishes of secular and religious leaders confessional uniformity was in many cases impossible to enforce As the essays in this collection make clear many people in Reformation Europe were forced to confront the reality of divided religious loyalties and this raised issues such as the means of accommodating religious minorities who refused to conform and the methods of living in communion with those of different faiths Drawing together a number of case studies from diverse parts of Europe Living with Religious Diversity in Early Modern Europe explores the processes involved when groups of differing confessions had to live in close proximity sometimes grudgingly but often with a benign pragmatism that stood in opposition to the will of their rulers By focussing on these themes the volume bridges the gap between our understanding of the confessional developments as they were conceived as normative visions and religious culture at the level of implementation The contributions thus measure the religious policies articulated by secular and ecclesiastical elites against the lived experience of people going about their daily business In doing this the collection shows how people perceived and experienced the religious upheavals of the confessional age and how they were able to assimilate these changes within the framework of their lives

Reframing Treaties in the Late Medieval and Early Modern West, 2025-08-02 The history of peacemaking has traditionally been reduced to isolated case studies and seen as the prelude to the presumed universal and modern international order Countering this one dimensional and Eurocentric narrative this multi authored volume reconceptualizes peace treaties as a range of successful and failed agreements settlements truces leagues and other forms of conflict resolution thus recovering their multilayered history throughout the medieval and early modern period Rather than a series of great treaties peacemaking is reframed as a flexible phenomenon a political grammar whose complexity is reflected in its variety of forms and sources Drawing on both diplomatic history and international relations studies this volume traces the central role that peacemaking has played in the political history of the Western World

Cosmos and Materiality in Early Modern Prague Suzanna Ivanič, 2021 In the seventeenth century Prague was the setting for a complex and shifting spiritual world By studying the city's material culture this book presents a bold alternative understanding of early modern religion in central Europe

Illustrated Religious Texts in the North of Europe, 1500-1800 Prof Dr Els Stronks, Dr Adam Morton, Asst Prof Feike Dietz, Professor Marc Van Vaeck, Ms Lien Roggen, 2014-07-28 Illustrated Religious Texts in the North of Europe 1500 1800 provides a new perspective on the role of visual imagery in the Reformation period by focusing on international forms of collaboration and makes a significant contribution to ongoing debates concerning the history of the book by focusing on the ideological as well as practical side of international contacts

A Companion to Multiconfessionalism in the Early Modern World Thomas Max Safley, 2011-06-09 This volume brings together recent scholarship on early modern multiconfessionalism that challenges accepted notions of reformation confessionalization and state building and suggests a new vision of religions state and society in early modern Europe

Reformation and Early Modern Europe David M. Whitford, 2007-11-01 Continuing the tradition of historiographic studies this volume provides an update on research in Reformation and early modern Europe Written by expert scholars in the field these eighteen essays explore the fundamental points of Reformation and early modern history in religious studies European regional studies and social and cultural studies Authors review the present state of research in the field new trends key issues scholars are working with and fundamental works in their subject area including the wide range of electronic resources now available to researchers Reformation and Early Modern Europe A Guide to Research is a valuable resource for students and scholars of early modern Europe
