Sacred Sister:

Priestess, Mother, Sacred Sister Susan Starr Sered, 1996 In this fascinating and path breaking work comparing 12 women's religions Sered investigates how women's religions differ from those dominated by men She then reveals how these religions relate to the special ways women around the world experience reality 19 halftones Inalienable Possessions Annette B. Weiner, 1992-05-13 Weiner provides not only a new perspective on social and natural reproduction but also a framework through which to compare societies This is an original point of view that will have real effects on the direction of future fieldwork and comparative analysis Ivan Karp Smithsonian Institution Female Madrasas in Pakistan Faiza Muhammad Din, 2023-06-20 This study sets out to explain and understand the worldview of students at Female madrasas FeM in Pakistan Beginning as an indigenous informal institute for female education at home FeM has evolved to country wide formal theological seminaries that award women graduate degrees in Islamic studies Since the 1970s state intervention and social engagement have influenced not only the structure of FeMs but their locations Attendance is from all socio economic strata of society A recent development especially in urban centers is the teaching of the state curriculum to enable young students to access mainstream education Public opinion is divided about the role of FeMs in society Some believe that FeMs confine women into the domestic realm others view FeMs as a move forward into modernity as they educate the least educated sectors of society The author uses the lens of language and gender to explore why such divergent views exist about FeMs Specifically language and vocabulary has served as a powerful factor for restricting women to their traditional roles Madrasas have a profound effect on Pakistani society at large as they respond to the immediate socio political and economic needs of the community In the last two decades many books were produced about male madrasas in Pakistan However one focusing on women's madrasas exclusively was needed because currently the number of female students enrolled in madrasas is higher than the male students This unique book is rooted in the author's experience of studying at an FeM She entered a madrasa with a yearning to be closer to God to know the book revealed to the Prophet Muhammad and to learn what he said and did A constant throughout her studies was the recognition that acquiring knowledge is one of the highest acts of righteousness according to the Prophet Muhammad Cosmos and Society in Oceania Daniel de Coppet, Andre Iteanu, 2024-11-01 Current anthropology uses expressions such as society as a whole socio cosmic relations spatiotemporal extension global ideology and cosmomorphy to establish that the clear cut Western dichotomy between society and cosmos is not always to be found in the communities it studies In fact many elements that the West would at first undoubtedly classify as belonging either to the cosmos or to the society appear very often in Melanesia as belonging to neither one of these domains but to a realm which combines the attributes of both Focusing on different examples drawn from diverse Melanesian societies this thought provoking volume by eminent specialists re examines the relationship between society and cosmos and in the process opens new directions for research Tell Me a Story I Don't Know GEORGE. OFMAN, 2023-11-14 In Tell

Me a Story I Don t Know veteran sports reporter and broadcaster George Ofman shares his most fascinating conversations with some of the biggest names in sports media Through these previously untold anecdotes and insights readers will gain a deeper understanding of the events and moments that have shaped sports history as well as a behind the scenes look at how these moments are shared with the world With wit charm and insight Ofman s captivating interviews bring to life the voices and personalities that have made sports such an integral part of our culture Featuring conversations with Bob Costas

Michael Wilbon Eddie Olczyk Sarah Kustok Greg Gumbel Chris Chelios and more Multicultural Family Art Therapy

Christine Kerr,2014-12-17 How does the family art therapist understand the complexities of another s cultural diversity What are international family therapist s perspectives on treatment These questions and more are explored in Multicultural Family Art Therapy a text that demonstrates how to practice psychotherapy within an ethnocultural and empathetic context Each international author presents their clinical perspective and cultural family therapy narrative thereby giving readers the structural framework they need to work successfully with clients with diverse ethnic backgrounds different from their own A wide range of international contributors provide their perspectives on visual symbols and content from America Canada Britain Ireland Australia Israel Russia Singapore Taiwan Japan Korea Trinidad Central America and Brazil They also address a diversity of theoretical orientations including attachment solution focused narrative parent child and brief art therapy and write about issues such as indigenous populations immigration acculturation identity formation and cultural isolation At the core of this new text is the realization that family art therapy should address not only the diversity of theory but also the diversity of international practice Ecopsychology of Border Islands of Okinawa Tatsuhiko Nakajima, Ph.D.,2014-06-26

This is a book of psychoanalysis However the patient is not a human but place and imagination of placing The islands of Okinawa placed on the border of Japan and Taiwan consist of a complex of subtropical islands in the East China Sea with marine life abundantly found in the beautiful emerald ocean However Okinawa is a history of deterritorialization starting from colonization of the former Ryukyu kingdom by Japan in 1879 followed by the World War II and the US occupation until 1972 These tiny dots on the Pacific Ocean became subject to the collective fate of the world However placing oneself in these tiny dots and looking at the world from within provides a picture that is totally different from looking at them externally There are numerous accounts by ethnographers and anthropologists who carried out research in this region of carnival masks and costumes their belief in the oceanic paradise worship of nature ancestor and women s spirituality Psychoanalysis of the anthropological research unfolds complexity of this field and deconstructs dualistic modern mind that separates nature from psyche What appears is an ecological perspective of the psyche of the new era Cloth and Human Experience

Annette B. Weiner,Jane Schneider,2013-08-06 Cloth and Human Experience explores a wide variety of cultures and eras discussing production and trade economics and symbolic and spiritual associations Report of the Federal Security Agency

United States. Office of Education,1908 Annual Report of the Department of the Interior United States. Department of the Interior,1898 Report of the Commissioner of Education Made to the Secretary of the Interior for the Year ... with Accompanying Papers United States. Bureau of Education,1908 Annual Report United States. Office of Education,1905 The Kill J. A. Medford,2023-10-19 Consciousness is an aberration in the Cosmos and must be eradicated So says the Inner a bodyless visitor to the Milky Way Galaxy In an effort to destroy consciousness he sets up the environment to play his game The Kill If he can get two gamers one from Earth and one from Genesis to enter the electromagnetic eye on Genesis the magnetosphere which protects Earth from charged cosmic particles will be destroyed His gamers Lodgemen and Sacred Sisters ritualize their avatars and it s game on But the gamers Luther Keyes and Sek the Beast of Genesis wound each other exchange blood and break the rules of The Kill As the controller searches for consciousness while struggling to retain control of his game Luther a former playboy now in the throes of his first love realizes that whether he wins or loses The Kill the outcome will mean Earth s demise This science fiction fantasy romance follows the Inner on his relentless search for consciousness and Luther Keyes as he finds true love and realizes he may have to lose it to save us all Queer Nuns Melissa M. Wilcox,2018-05-22 Modern day badass drag queen superhero nuns It was like this asteroid belt the origins and growth of the sisters We are nuns silly serious parody as activism A sacred powerful woman complicating gender Sister outsiders navigating whiteness A secular nun serious parody and the sacred New world order Blooper reel Studying the sisters Power Sharing Elizabeth Lillian Keating,1998 What allows certain individuals and groups to maintain control over the actions and lives of others Linguistic anthropologist Elizabeth Keating went to the island of Pohnpei in Micronesia and studied how people use language and other semiotic codes to reproduce and manipulate status differences The result is this inside view of how language works to create power and social inequality This book challenges widely held theories on the nature of social stratification including women s roles in creating hierarchy Enduring Acequias Juan Estevan Arellano,2014-10 For generations the Rio Embudo watershed in northern New Mexico has been the home of Juan Estevan Arellano and his ancestors From this unique perspective Arellano explores the ways people use water in dry places around the world Touching on the Middle East Europe Mexico and South America before circling back to New Mexico Arellano makes a case for preserving the acequia irrigation system and calls for a future that respects the ecological limitations of the land Blessed Events Pamela E. Klassen,2001-10-07 Blessed Events explores how women who give birth at home use religion to make sense of their births and in turn draw on their birthing experiences to bring meaning to their lives and families Pamela Klassen introduces a surprisingly diverse group of women in their own words while also setting their birth stories within wider social political and economic contexts In doing so she emerges with a study that disrupts conventional views of both childbirth and religion by blurring assumed divisions between conservative and feminist women and by taking childbirth seriously as a religious act Most American women who have a choice give birth in a hospital and request pain medication Yet enough women choose and advocate unmedicated home birth and do so for carefully articulated reasons social resistance among them to constitute a movement Klassen investigates why women whose religious affiliations range from Old Order Amish to Reform Judaism to goddess centered spirituality defy majority opinion the medical establishment and sometimes the law to have their babies at home In considering their interpretations including their critiques of the dominant medical model of childbirth and their views on labor pain she examines the kinds of agency afforded to or denied women as they derive religious meanings from childbirth Throughout she identifies tensions and affinities between feminist and traditionalist appraisals of the symbolic meaning of birth and the power of women What does home birth a woman centered movement working to return birth to women s control mean in practice for women s gender and religious identities Is this supreme valuing of procreation and motherhood constraining or does it open up new realms of cultural and social power for women By asking these questions while remaining cognizant of religion s significance Blessed Events challenges both feminist and traditionalist accounts of childbearing while broadening our understanding of how religion is lived in contemporary America

Narratives of Sorrow and Dignity Bardwell L. Smith, 2013-07-11 Bardwell L Smith offers a fresh perspective on mizuko kuyo the Japanese ceremony performed to bring solace to those who have experienced miscarriage stillbirth or abortion Showing how old and new forms of myth symbol doctrine praxis and organization combine and overlap in contemporary mizuko kuyo Smith provides critical insight from many angles the sociology of the family the power of the medical profession the economics of temples the import of ancestral connections the need for healing in both private and communal ways and perhaps above all the place of women in modern Japanese religion At the heart of Smith s research is the issue of how human beings experience the death of a life that has been and remains precious to them While universal these losses are also personal and unique The role of society in helping people to heal from these experiences varies widely and has changed enormously in recent decades In examples of grieving for these kinds of losses one finds narratives not only of deep sorrow but of remarkable dignity

Where Were You Before The Tree of Life? Volume 4 Peter R. Farley, 2011-04-04 Volume 4 of 9 These books are the first to fully map out the history of alien interaction with the Earth past present and into the near future Extending the work of noted researchers such as Erich Von Daniken and Zecharia Sitchin the book series goal is to show its readers the extensive repercussions this interaction has had on life on this planet especially its formative role in the global conspiracy known as the New World Order
