Sacreds Of The Universe:

My Journey as a Religious Pluralist Alan Race,2021-06-02 Christian theology of religions remains a central component of the Christian response to global religious diversity In the face of theological refusals to engage with issues of religious absolutism and new impressions from interreligious encounters this book seeks to inject fresh energy into a debate that has stalled in recent years The encounter between Christians and people of different religious persuasions raises questions of how to interpret Christian absolutism for a new and developing consciousness that values the experience of the religious other This book argues that interreligious dialogue interreligious ethical collaboration and comparative studies all point to a pluralist future where we are obliged to recognize the spiritual authenticity of the experience animating many religions Building friendly relations between faith communities is to be applauded but it is insufficient in the face of the many challenges confronting the global human community Whether we are speaking of cooperation in civil society peace in the world or the overarching ecological crisis encompassing the planet as a whole the acceptance of the diversity of religions as a positive religious value will strengthen the sense of global responsibility that is needed Shanghai Sacred Benoît

Vermader,Liz Hingley,Liang Zhang,2018-04-15 Shanghai a dynamic world metropolis is home to a multitude of religions from Buddhism and Islam to Christianity and Baha'ism to Hinduism and Daoism and many more In this city of 24 million inhabitants new religious groups and older faiths together claim and reclaim spiritual space Shanghai Sacred explores the spaces rituals and daily practices that make up the religious landscape of the city offering a new paradigm for the study of Chinese spirituality that reflects the global trends shaping Chinese culture and civil society Based on years of fieldwork incorporating both comparative and methodological perspectives Shanghai Sacred demonstrates how religions are lived constructed and thus inscribed into the social imaginary of the metropolis Evocative photographs by Liz Hingley enrich and interact with the narrative making the book an innovative contribution to religious visual ethnography The Unitarian

Review and Religious Magazine Charles Lowe, Henry Wilder Foote, John Hopkins Morison, Henry H. Barber, James De Normandie, 1886 Making Friends Across the Boundaries of Religious Differences DEUSDEDIT NKURUNZIZ,2014-12-09 Making Friends Across the Boundaries of Religious Differences Religions Building Peace for a New World Order discusses the meaning reality and dynamism of religion explores different faiths religious traditions currently influencing humanity today and argues that interreligious dialogue is the way to go for the people of different religions to work together to enhance a culture of justice human rights democratic governance nonviolence and peace in the world today While religion has been used to cause conflict violence and war the book explains how in this time of globalization faith and religion can be enhanced as resources for a new world order of justice and peace The book further highlights interreligious dialogue as a methodology and way of life which brings about unity in diversity advocacy for a world without terrorism theological perspectives women in interreligious dialogue and how in Africa interreligious action is the soul of social economic transformation African

Renaissance and Cosmopolitanism Unitarian Review and Religious Magazine ,1876 This Sacred Life Norman Wirzba,2021-10-14 In a time of climate change environmental degradation and social injustice the question of the value and purpose of human life has become urgent What are the grounds for hope in a wounded world This Sacred Life gives a deep philosophical and religious articulation of humanity s identity and vocation by rooting people in a symbiotic meshwork world that is saturated with sacred gifts The benefits of artificial intelligence and genetic enhancement notwithstanding Norman Wirzba shows how an account of humans as interdependent and vulnerable creatures orients people to be a creative healing presence in a world punctuated by wounds He argues that the commodification of places and creatures needs to be resisted so that all life can be cherished and celebrated Humanity s fundamental vocation is to bear witness to God s love for creaturely life and to commit to the construction of a hospitable and beautiful world The Sacred Revival Kingsley L. Dennis,2017-10-24 The Sacred Revival is a thought provoking examination of the social cultural and personal development that is part of a new and unfolding era in our history Its central thesis is that a new form of energy has entered our post industrial post mechanical epoch and that this energy will be more conducive to a respect for feminine attributes and organization and our inward interior search and gaze The author predicts there will be a healing of life on the planet from an emerging new planetary ecosystem that will be physical digital biological and a greater drive toward a coherent cosmic consciousness He explains that one of our greatest needs is for a connection with the transcendent Yoga and the Sacred Fire: Self-Realization and Planetary Transformation David Frawley,2025-05-31 Yoga and the Sacred Fire explores the evolution of life and consciousness according to the cosmology and psychology of Fire viewing Fire not only as a material but also as a spiritual principle It shows how Yoga s deeper fire wisdom can help us move forward to an enlightened planetary age where humanity and nature can again be one in a higher awareness Encountering Earth Trevor George Hunsberger Bechtel,Matt Eaton,Tim Harvie,2018-05-14 One day Matthew Eaton was walking through an impromptu animal shelter display at his local pet store when suddenly an eight month old kitten dug his claws into Eaton s flesh Eaton recognized that the eyes of this cat and the curve of his claw compelled a response analogous to those found in the writings of Buber Levinas and Derrida And not just Eaton but a whole community of theologians have found themselves in an encounter with particular places and animals that demands rich theological reflection Eaton enlisted fellow editors Harvie and Bechtel to collect the essays in this volume in which theologians listen to horses rats snakes cats dogs and the earth itself who become new theological voices demanding a response In this volume the voice of the more than human world is heard as making theology possible These essays suggest that what we say theologically represents not simply ideas of our own making subsequently superimposed onto the natural world through our own discovery but rather flow from an expressive Earth With additional contributions from Kimberly Carfore Lisa E Dahill Celia Deane Drummond Heather Eaton Nathan Kowalsky Abigail Lofte Jame Schaefer Cristina D Vanin Mark Wallace Grace Y Kao Chris Carter John Berkman Laura

Hobgood Sacred Journey Gerald Robinson,2020-04-14 This companion reveals Rudolf Schwarz to be one of the greatest theologians of the twentieth century As a German architect and mystic he created some beautiful churches in a stripped down 1930s Modern style but he is most revered for a single book in English translation The Church Incarnate In it he explores the relationships between God and God s people relationships expressed when they meet together in worship Schwarz is revered for his spiritual insights but it is sometimes hard to follow him on his mystical wanderings This companion accompanies him on his sacred journey gently guiding him back on track when he wanders off course and keeping him cheerful This journey has had a surprising outcome a discovery that embedded in its union of earth and heaven is a practical and logical structure for the renewal of the church renewal of its worship space and its ministry Already several congregations seeking renewal have used these concepts to find clarity and direction for their own sacred journey into the future
