Sad Dances In A Field Of White:

Whiteness Fractured Cynthia Levine-Rasky, 2016-02-11 Whiteness Fractured examines the many ways in which whiteness is conceptualized today and how it is understood to operate and to effect social relationships Exploring the intersections between whiteness social class ethnicity and psychosocial phenomena this book is framed by the question of how whiteness works and what it does With attention to central concepts and the history of whiteness it explains the four ways in which whiteness works In its examination of the outward and inward fractures of whiteness the book sheds light on both its connections with social class and ethnicity and with the epistemology of ignorance and the psychoanalytic Representing the long career of whiteness on the one hand and investigating its expansion into new areas on the other Whiteness Fractured reflects the growing maturity of critical whiteness studies It undertakes a critical analysis of approaches to whiteness and proposes new directions for future action and enquiry As such it will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in race and ethnicity intersectionality colonialism and post colonialism and cultural studies

Odysseys Home George Elliott Clarke, 2017-06-22 Odysseys Home Mapping African Canadian Literature is a pioneering study of African Canadian literary creativity laying the groundwork for future scholarly work in the field Based on extensive excavations of archives and texts this challenging passage through twelve essays presents a history of the literature and examines its debt to and synthesis with oral cultures George Elliott Clarke identifies African Canadian literature s distinguishing characteristics argues for its relevance to both African Diasporic Black and Canadian Studies and critiques several of its key creators and texts Scholarly and sophisticated the survey cites and interprets the works of several major African Canadian writers including Andr Alexis Dionne Brand Austin Clarke Claire Harris and M Nourbese Philip In so doing Clarke demonstrates that African Canadian writers and critics explore the tensions that exist between notions of universalism and black nationalism liberalism and conservatism These tensions are revealed in the literature in what Clarke argues to be paradoxically uniquely Canadian and proudly apart from a mainstream national identity Clarke has unearthed vital but previously unconsidered authors and charted the relationship between African Canadian literature and that of Africa African America and the Caribbean In addition to the essays Clarke has assembled a seminal and expansive bibliography of texts literature and criticism from both English and French Canada This important resource will inevitably challenge and change future academic consideration of African Canadian literature and its place in the international literary map of the African Diaspora

Scarlet and blue, or Songs for soldiers and sailors. Ed. by J. Farmer John Farmer, 1898 Not Just Green, Not Just White Mary E. Mendoza, Exhausting Dance Andre Lepecki, 2006-07-13 The only scholarly book in English dedicated to recent European contemporary dance Exhausting Dance Performance and the Politics of Movement examines the work of key contemporary choreographers who have transformed the dance scene since the early 1990s in Europe and the US Through their vivid and explicit dialogue with performance art visual arts and critical theory from the past thirty years this new generation of choreographers challenge our understanding of dance by exhausting the concept of movement Their work demands to be read as performed extensions of the radical politics implied in performance art in post structuralist and critical theory in post colonial theory and in critical race studies In this far ranging and exceptional study Andre Lepecki brilliantly analyzes the work of the choreographers Jerome Bel France Juan Dominguez Spain Trisha Brown US La Ribot Spain Xavier Le Roy France Germany Vera Mantero Portugal and visual and performance artists Bruce Nauman US William Pope L US This book offers a significant and radical revision of the way we think about dance arguing for the necessity of a renewed engagement between dance studies and experimental artistic and philosophical practices A Mazing Space Shirley C. Neuman, Smaro Kamboureli, 1986 Sorry I Don't Dance Maxine Leeds Craig, 2014 Explores the feminization sexualization and racialization of dance in America since the 1960s Four Fields Tim Dee, 2016-01-12 In this book Tim Dee tells the story of four green fields spread around the world their grasses their hedges their birds their skies and both their natural and human histories These four fields walkable mappable man made mowable knowable but also secretive mysterious wild contested and changing play central roles in the sweeping panorama of world history and in the lives of individuals In Dee's telling a field is never just a setting for great battles or natural disasters though it is often this as well A field is the oldest and simplest and truest measure of what a man needs in life especially when looked at contemplated worked in lived with and written about Dee's four fields which he has known and studied for more than twenty years are the fen field at the bottom of his private garden a field in southern Zambia a prairie in Little Bighorn Montana and a grass meadow in the Exclusion Zone at Chernobyl Ukraine Meditating on these four fields Dee makes us look anew at where we live and how He argues that we must attend to what we have made of the wild The Magnetic Fields' 69 Love Songs LD Beghtol, 2006-11-03 A fully illustrated oral history of the Magnetic Fields 1999 triple album 69 Love Songs an album that was afforded classic status by many almost as soon as it was released LD Beghtol's book is chatty incestuous funny dark digressive sexy maddening and delightful in equal measures It documents a vital and influential scene from the inside involving ukuleles and tears citations and footnotes analogue drum machines and floods of cognac Oh and a crossword puzzle too The centre of the book is the secret history of these tuneful acerbic and sometimes heartbreaking songs of old love new love lost love punk rock love gay love straight love experimental music love true love blue love and the utter lack of love that fill the album as told by participants fans imitators naysayers and others Also included are a lexicon of words culled from the album's lyrics recording details performance notes from the full album shows in New York Boston and London plus rare and unpublished images personal memorabilia and much much more Canadian Literature Index, 1991

Sad Dances In A Field Of White : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
