Creighton, 2019-10-01 Margaret Drabble is a writer who plays a lively role in both popular and literary culture Widely read and studied throughout the world her novels attract both the general reader and the literary critic Originally published in 1985 Joanne Creighton examines this phenomenon and places particular emphasis on her Englishness her role as a woman writing credibly about modern women and her ability to mediate between the traditional and the modern She argues that the resonances of Drabble's work grow out of her strong sense of the powers and resources of existing literary traditions coupled with her intelligent portrayal of the familiar problems of people in modern society and that is precisely this mediating position which makes Drabble an important voice in contemporary fiction and links her with other writers of her generation Challenging those critics who see Drabble as a fiction traditionalist Creighton finds her work open ended inquiring equivocal and unquestionably contemporary in spirit A Democratic Mind Israel W.

Charny, 2017-07-25 A Democratic Mind Psychology and Psychiatry with Fewer Meds and More Soul focuses on how an individual lives one's life and on the extent of harm that an individual can inflict on oneself or others In this book Charny provides a new lens for treating real people rather than offering treatments that alleviate symptoms The Sad Comedy of El_dar Riazanov David MacFadyen, 2003 Russia's funniest and most popular films are the work of El_dar Riazanov a director whose light lyrical tales of love lost and found have garnered audiences of over one hundred million Although Western scholars have largely ignored Riazanov's oeuvre in favour of more serious filmmakers no director in Russia has been so loved by both the public openly and politicians covertly His early comedies mapped the relations between society and socialism allowing him to create a radically apolitical art of kindness and kindred spirits David MacFadyen investigates what made Riazanov's films so wildly popular and what if any relationship that popularity had to Soviet policy Using the works of Deleuze Lacan and Kristeva MacFadyen looks at how Riazanov's films relate to society audience demand and Soviet politics In more than twenty love stories that have precious little to do with statecraft Soviet or otherwise Riazanov captures the willful inclusiveness of socialist culture Interdisciplinary Pediatric Palliative Care Joanne Wolfe, 2022 We hope that the lives of all children will be filled with possibility with open horizons and rainbows into the future Children with serious illnesses their families and those who care for them confront the realization that not everything is possible that despite dramatic scientific and medical advances the lifespan of some children will be shortened This threat of premature loss heightens the sense of time for children and families alike and challenges clinicians to create new pathways of hope for them
