Four and a Half Steps Randy Wagner, 2022-11-14. Wag is a charismatic and mischievous character. A soon-to-be Boston Pizza franchise owner, he likes to push people's buttons and takes life to the extreme. After an evening out with his wife in Calgary, he decides to drive back to his temporary home in Lethbridge to make his early morning shift, hoping he can make it back in time to catch a few hours of sleep before a head office inspection. The next thing he remembers is his wife screaming. Wanting someone to help her, he tries to call out but realizes that he can barely speak, let alone open his eyes. Finally, only remembering sensations and sounds, he wakes up in Calgary Hospital where he learns that he fell asleep behind the wheel and drove into a deep ditch, leaving him as a C5-C6 quadriplegic. Filled with anger and disbelief, he lashes out at those around him. His wife, who is unharmed, tries to remain hopeful, which infuriates him. He begins to spiral into the universal five stages of grief, moving back and forth between denial and anger as he begins his six-month stay at the hospital. Though he finds strength and relief from fellow patients and their views on life, Wag's anger and depression define him, and those around him wonder how he'll survive once he's thrust into the realities of the walking world. Full of dark humour and raw vulnerability, 4 and 1/2 Steps delves into the challenges Wag faces both emotionally and physically as he adjusts to his new stage of life.

Half-hours with the Best Authors Charles Knight, 1856. Roberts' Semi-monthly Magazine, 1841. Our Daily Breach Dennis Patrick Slattery, 2015-09-15. Our Daily Breach: Exploring Your Personal Myth Through Herman Melville's Moby Dick offers both a way of understanding what has generally been called the greatest novel of the American myth while simultaneously exploring one's own personal myth. Its added feature is that it is an interactive book, allowing readers to meditate on one question per page for each day of the year and to uncover many facets of one's personal myth through cursive writing. It has been long understood that classics of literature are their own form of therapy, in that they frequently tap into some of the most shared concerns of being human. This book makes such a connection between our interior life and the plot of the story through the power of mythopoiesis, namely the imaginative act of giving a formative shape to the myth we are each living in and out through the power of analogy, correspondence, or accord with the classic poem. Using Melville's epic of America, the reader may enter the deepest seas of his/her own mythic waters to realize and give language to the myth that resides in our daily plot line.
