Dill, 2013-01-01 The ministry of the Rev Stephen F Dill was forged in the turbulent civil rights years when he stood for social justice and spoke against racial segregation In this collection of sermons many from his 20 years as pastor of Dauphin Way United Methodist Church in Mobile Alabama Dill reflects on the implications of his faith for the lives of individuals and for the life of the world Robin Wilson one of Dill's successors at Dauphin Way praises the bold humility of his message and author Frye Gaillard in the book s introduction offers this description of Dill and his sermons Almost inevitably the poetry of his preaching caught the quick of my imagination and quietly inevitably made me think Appropriately the publication of The Poetry of Faith coincides with the 100th anniversary of Dauphin Way But these challenging and reassuring sermons resonate far beyond those walls As Methodist educator Gorman Houston put it this is the Christian faith at its finest for Stephen Dill has always been one of those ministers able to see the church as it should be and not as it was The Frugal Chariot Francis L. Fennell, 2023-12-06 If you love poetry this book is about you and for you It doesn't matter whether you are a scholar or a lover of beautiful poetry this book brings everyone together by responding to a current crisis the falling interest in and support for the humanities especially poetry. This book argues that the most fruitful place to begin to reinvigorate literary reading and thus the humanities is with the close and careful attention to the experience of non academic readers This book explores their experiences listening carefully to what they have to say how they you respond to poetry why you love it The book shows in other words at least a partial cure for that falling interest in the humanities which gets so much attention in newspapers and on TV The book employs the poetry of Gerard Manley Hopkins and lets him supply the illustrative material Hopkins is one of the seven most read poets in the English language but you do not have to know Hopkins well to understand the revolutionary approach to poetry and literary study that this book offers After Lives John Casey, John Peter Anthony Casey, 2013-03-07 A fascinating exploration of ideas of life after death ranging from ancient times to the present and from religion and philosophy Collected Poems: 1950-2012 Adrienne Rich, 2016-06-21 The collected works of Adrienne Rich to literature and science whose poetry is distinguished by an unswerving progressive vision and a dazzling empathic ferocity New York Times A Finalist for the 2017 Pulitzer Prize in Poetry Adrienne Rich was the singular voice of her generation and one of our most important American poets She brought discussions of gender race and class to the forefront of poetical discourse pushing formal boundaries and consistently examining both self and society This collected volume traces the evolution of her poetry from her earliest work which was formally exact and decorous to her later work which became increasingly radical in both its free verse form and feminist and political content The entire body of her poetry is on display in this vast volume including the National Book Award winning Diving Into the Wreck and her prize winning Atlas of the Difficult World The Collected Poems of Adrienne Rich gathers and memorializes all of her boldly political formally ambitious thoughtful and lucid work the whole of which makes her one of the most prolific and influential poets of our time Later Poems Adrienne Rich,2013 Presents a selection of poetry that draws from twelve volumes of the late author's published work as well as a manuscript posthumously left behind Tonight No Poetry Will Serve Adrienne Rich,2011 Collects new poems by the author that celebrate social presence under enforced isolation aggressive authority and ancient and present wars Doorways to Hope Christopher Chapman,2025-01-31 When so much seems to be falling apart it is a struggle to find ground for hope In forty daily reflections Christopher Chapman explores the nature of hope and offers ways of cultivating and practicing it Avoiding wishful thinking or looking on the bright side he offers a hope rooted in a God whose dynamic creative breath is always bringing the new into being This hope is incarnate and redemptive forever coming along side us to renew what is broken It is relational drawing all into a life of giving and receiving The door of hope is open and God steps through it with purpose and compassion

Reading the Two Books of God Thomas W. Mann, 2022-09-29 Thomas W Mann is a biblical scholar and retired parish minister and the author of numerous books and articles He is particularly interested in how experiences in nature prompt theological reflection based in the Bible shaping our sense of sacred time and place and how the lectionary readings of the church year also provide a spiritual calendar for the seasons of our lives. The result is a conversation inspired by poets and writers like Mary Oliver Wendell Berry and John Muir but also by philosophers and theologians ranging from Abraham Joshua Heschel to David Kelsey Along the way we enter beach time and take backpacking trips in the Sierras but also join the triumphal entry parade on Palm Sunday and listen to the stable animals on Christmas Eve We perceive the beauty of creation through the eyes of science as well as religion sensually as well as intellectually We celebrate our communion with all creatures from fungus to forests inspired with awe and reverence and with a responsibility to care for the earth so threatened by climate change And the Birds Began to Sing ,2022-06-08 Taking as its starting point the ambiguous heritage left by the British Empire to its former colonies dominions and possessions And the Birds Began to Sing marks a new departure in the interdisciplinary study of religion and literature Gathered under the rubric Christianity and Colonialism essays on Brian Moore Timothy Findley Margaret Atwood and Marian Engel Thomas King Les A Murray David Malouf Mudrooroo and Philip McLaren R A K Mason Maurice Gee Keri Hulme Epeli Hau ofa J M Coetzee Christopher Okigbo Chinua Achebe Amos Tutuola and Nguqi wa Thiong o explore literary portrayals of the effects of British Christianity upon settler and native cultures in Northern Ireland Canada Australia New Zealand and the South Pacific and the Africas These essays share a sense of the dominant presence of Christianity as an inherited system of religious thought and practice to be adapted to changing post colonial conditions or to be resisted as the lingering ideology of colonial times In the second section of the collection Empire and World Religions essays on Paule Marshall and George Lamming Jean Rhys Olive Senior and Caribbean poetry V S Naipaul Anita Desai Kamala Markandaya and Bharati Mukherjee interrogate literature exploring relations between the scions of British imperialism and religious traditions other than Christianity Expressly concerned with literary embodiments of belief systems in post colonial cultures particularly West African religions in the Caribbean and Hinduism on the Indian subcontinent these essays also share a sense of Christianity as the pervasive presence of an ideological rhetoric among the economic social and political dimensions of imperialism In a polemical Afterword the editor argues that modes of reading religion and literature in post colonial cultures are characterised by a theodical preoccupation with a praxis of equity
