Senior Language:

Insights into Senior Foreign Language Education Marek Derenowski, 2021-08-25 This book examines the unique characteristics of teaching foreign languages to senior learners. It discusses the potential age-related barriers and learning difficulties which may be encountered in senior foreign language education as well as solutions to overcome these challenges. The author describes the processes of human aging from different perspectives and introduces the concept of lifelong learning. The book proposes classroom practices, activities, and materials that may be adopted when working with senior learners, which will prove useful to teachers and teacher trainers as well as to educational policymakers and planners. Furthermore, it describes potential modifications to educational programmes that may be introduced in order to eliminate affective barriers, making the learning material relevant and motivating and encouraging the use of adult learning strategies.

Diversity and Inclusion in English Language Education Ann-Marie Hunter, 2023-07-28 This edited volume takes an expansive, no-nonsense view of the spectrum of English language learners to address their varied backgrounds and their wide range of needs, worries, motivations, and abilities. Each chapter addresses a key area and group of students to enable English language teachers to come away with the knowledge and skills they need to support their students. The contributors, who represent a diverse range of voices themselves, cover essential topics including dyslexia, neurodiversity, linguistic inclusion, deaf students, LGBTQI students, racial and cultural inclusion, and more. Accessible and grounded in cutting-edge research, this book features key concepts, methodologies, and strategies that will encourage reflection and inclusive pedagogy. An invaluable resource for students, researchers, and professionals, this volume demonstrates how English language education can be a force for transformative change and social inclusion. Professional competencies in language learning and teaching Cecilia Gorla, Lea Guetta, Neil Hughes, Sandra Reisenleutner, Oranna Speicher, 2019-06-08 This volume examines many of the complex issues regarding the language skills and professional competencies acquired by students studying Modern Foreign Languages (MFL) at universities in the United Kingdom and across Europe. It also outlines the innovative pedagogical strategies, methods, and resources employed by language academics to help graduates transition from university into the world of work through their MFL studies. These issues were discussed at the Professional Competencies in Language Learning and Teaching conference that took place on 12th-13th July 2018 at the University of Nottingham. The conference, which was organised as a collaboration between the Department of Modern Languages and Cultures and the Confucius Institute of the University of Nottingham, brought together researchers, practitioners, employers, and experts working on 21st-century professional competencies and language education.

ELT Christoph Haase, Joel Cameron Head, 2015-09-10 This volume presents a survey of the latest results and discussions in the research on English Language Teaching ELT bringing together researchers from four continents and 11 different countries to discuss current topics and issues in the field In doing so it offers a debate in a conducive and intellectually charged environment which enables the reader to gain insights into new technologies ideas and concepts of practitioners working at very different research and teaching institutions The papers collected in this volume provide ample evidence of the lively atmosphere and the interesting conversations present in ELT in recent years Much has changed in the research of ELT the field has become more technical and applied on the one hand and more theoretically informed on the other As such it is a particular achievement of this volume that it enables the diverse disciplines under the umbrella of ELT to communicate and exchange their approaches It is in this way that linguists can talk to methodologists and cultural studies scholars cooperate with literary scholars The tripartite structure of this book reflects this The first part is dedicated to linguistic issues and contains a number of both large scale and micro scale studies The second section collects papers from the cultural and literary studies field The concluding segment concerns new approaches in methodology and offers two very technical contributions on CLIL

Elderly Chinese in Pacific Rim Countries Iris Chi, Neena L. Chappell, James Lubben, 2001-04-01 With longer life expectancy most countries are now experiencing rapid ageing among their populations Ethnic Chinese populations are no exception to these demographic transformations During the twentieth century there has been a wide dispersion of Chinese people throughout the world as well as dramatic socio political changes within China These unique factors have strained traditional filial norms and necessitated a re examination of intergenerational relationships and the roles of elderly Chinese people This book investigates the varied adaptations of social support systems and social integration among ageing Chinese populations within a diverse set of countries in the Pacific Rim region The book is a collection of scholarly papers addressing such topics as community care family support one child families and social isolation Each paper illustrates the importance of social support networks and social integration to the quality of life for elderly Chinese persons living in dissimilar circumstances
