Sense Of An Ending Studies In The Theory Of Fiction:

The Sense of an Ending Frank Kermode, 1968 The Sense of an Ending Frank Kermode, 2000-04-06 Frank Kermode is one of our most distinguished critics of English literature Here he contributes a new epilogue to his collection of classic lectures on the relationship of fiction to age old concepts of apocalyptic chaos and crisis Prompted by the approach of the millennium he revisits the book which brings his highly concentrated insights to bear on some of the most unyielding philosophical and aesthetic enigmas Examining the works of writers from Plato to William Burrows Kermode shows how they have persistently imposed their fictions upon the face of eternity and how these have reflected the apocalyptic spirit Kermode then discusses literature at a time when new fictive explanations as used by Spenser and Shakespeare were being devised to fit a world of uncertain beginning and end He goes on to deal perceptively with modern literature with traditionalists such as Yeats Eliot and Joyce as well as contemporary schismatics the French new novelists and such seminal figures as Jean Paul Sartre and Samuel Beckett Whether weighing the difference between modern and earlier modes of apocalyptic thought considering the degeneration of fiction into myth or commenting on the vogue of the Absurd Kermode is distinctly lucid persuasive witty and prodigal of ideas The Sense of an Ending John Frank Kermode, 1975 The Sense of an Ending. Studies in the Theory of Fiction. (The Mary Flexner Lectures, 1965.). Frank Kermode, 1967 Time and Narrative. Volume 2 Paul Ricoeur, 1984 In the first two volumes of this work Paul Ricoeur examined the relations between time and narrative in historical writing fiction and theories of literature This final volume a comprehensive reexamination and synthesis of the ideas developed in volumes 1 and 2 stands as Ricoeur's most complete and satisfying presentation of his own philosophy An Introduction to Literature, Criticism and Theory Andrew Bennett, Nicholas Royle, 2014-07-10 Fresh original and compelling An Introduction to Literature Criticism and Theory is the essential guide to literary studies Starting at the beginning and concluding with the end the book covers topics that range from the familiar character narrative the author to the more unusual secrets pleasure ghosts Eschewing abstract isms Bennett and Royle successfully illuminate complex ideas by engaging directly with literary works so that a reading of Jane Eyre opens up ways of thinking about racial difference whilst Chaucer Raymond Chandler and Monty Python are all invoked in a discussion of literary laughter Each chapter ends with a narrative guide to further reading and the book also includes a glossary and bibliography The fourth edition has been revised to incorporate two timely new chapters on animals and the environment A breath of fresh air in a field that can often seem dry and dauntingly theoretical this book will open the reader s eyes to the exhilarating possibilities of both reading and studying literature Postapocalyptic Fantasies in Antebellum American Literature John Hay, 2017-10-05 This book examines the widespread use of postapocalyptic fantasies in American literary texts in the early Postmodern, Marxist, and Christian Historical Novels Lynne W. Hinojosa, 2022-06-15 Postmodern nineteenth century Marxist and Christian Historical Novels Hope and the Burdens of History argues historical novels can help readers receive the burdens of history meaning both the burdens of the past present and future and the burden of living in time and develop a more robust conception of and concrete practice of hope Since the 1960s historical novels have been a dominant literary genre but they have been influenced primarily not by Christian but by postmodern and marxist thinkers and writers This book provides a theological and literary analysis of all three types of historical novels postmodern marxist and Christian and outlines what each school of thought can learn from each other regarding historical understanding and hope Using I rgen Moltmann's theology of hope and Frank Kermode's literary criticism as a theoretical basis the book offers readings of novels by Julian Barnes A S Byatt Kazuo Ishiguro Margaret Atwood Michael Ondaatje Ian McEwan and Ursula LeGuin among others and ends with an extended analysis of Marilynne Robinson's Gilead series International Companion Encyclopedia of Children's Literature Peter Hunt, 2004-08-02 Children's literature continues to be one of the most rapidly expanding and exciting of interdisciplinary academic studies of interest to anyone concerned with literature education internationalism childhood or culture in general The second edition of Peter Hunt's bestselling International Companion Encyclopedia of Children's Literature offers comprehensive coverage of the subject across the world with substantial accessible articles by specialists and world ranking experts Almost everything is here from advanced theory to the latest practice from bibliographical research to working with books and children with special needs This edition has been expanded and includes over fifty new articles All of the other articles have been updated substantially revised or rewritten or have revised bibliographies New topics include Postcolonialism Comparative Studies Ancient Texts Contemporary Children's Rhymes and Folklore Contemporary Comics War Horror Series Fiction Film Creative Writing and Crossover literature The international section has been expanded to reflect world events and now includes separate articles on countries such as the Baltic states the Czech and Slovak Republics Iran Korea Mexico and Central America Slovenia and Taiwan Hans Urs von Balthasar and the Question of Tragedy in the Novels of Thomas Hardy Kevin Taylor, 2013-09-26 What role do novels drama and tragedy play within Christian thought and living The twentieth century Catholic theologian Hans Urs von Balthasar addressed these questions using tragic drama For him Christ was the true tragic hero of the world who exceeded all tragic literature and experience Balthasar demonstrated how ancient pre Christian tragedy and Renaissance works contained important Christian concepts but he critiqued modern novels as failing to be either truly tragic or Christian By examining the tragic novels of Thomas Hardy on their own terms we have an important counterpoint to Balthasar's argument that the novel is too prosaic for theological reflection Hardy's novels are an apt pairing for examination and critique as they are both classically and biblically influenced as well as contemporary The larger implication for Balthasar's theology is that his innovations in theological aesthetics and tragedy must be expanded in the light of modernity and the tragic novel Kate Atkinson Armelle Parey, 2022-11-15 This timely in depth study of award winning Kate Atkinson's work provides a welcome comprehensive overview of the novels play and short stories It explores the major themes and aesthetic concerns in her fiction Combining close analysis and literary contextualisation it situates her multi faceted work in terms of a hybridisation of genres and innovative narrative strategies to evoke contemporary issues and well as the past Chapters offer insights into each major publication from Behind the Scenes at the Museum to Big Sky the latest instalment in the Brodie sequence through the celebrated Life After Life and subsequent re imaginings of the war in relation to the key concerns of Atkinson's fiction including self narrativisation history memory and women s lives Aggressive Fictions Kathryn Hume, 2012-01-15 A frequent complaint against contemporary American fiction is that too often it puts off readers in ways they find difficult to fathom Books such as Bret Easton Ellis s American Psycho Katherine Dunn s Geek Love and Don DeLillo s Underworld seem determined to upset disgust or annoy their readers or to disorient them by shunning traditional plot patterns and character development Kathryn Hume calls such works aggressive fiction Why would authors risk alienating their readers and why should readers persevere Looking beyond the theory based justifications that critics often provide for such fiction Hume offers a commonsense guide for the average reader who wants to better understand and appreciate books that might otherwise seem difficult to enjoy In her reliable and sympathetic guide Hume considers roughly forty works of recent American fiction including books by William Burroughs Kathy Acker Chuck Palahniuk and Cormac McCarthy Hume gathers attacks on the reader into categories based on narrative structure and content Writers of some aggressive fictions may wish to frustrate easy interpretation or criticism Others may try to induce certain responses in readers Extreme content deployed as a tactic for distancing and alienating can actually produce a contradictory effect for readers who learn to relax and go with the flow the result may well be exhilaration rather than revulsion Novels of William Boyd Dr. Rajesh Shashikant Latane, 2015-02-25 have great pleasure in writing this foreword to Dr Latane s book on the Novels of William Boyd The book is a significant contribution to Boyd criticism It has discussed the early the middle and the last phase of Boyd's novels In doing if the author has defined the totality of Boyd's vision Indeed every novel is a part of this totality and the totality is more than a mere sum of the novels The reciprocal relationship between the part and the whole is the crux of novel criticism and the book has given due justice to this aspect Another important feature of the book is the analysis of the postmodernist element in Boyd's novels This critical framework can be used to analysis the postmodernist element in the contemporary Indian novel in English Even going further it can be used to analyse the Postmodernist element in the contemporary Marathi novel A thesis is really acknowledged when it become a source material for the future researchers and comparatives Mr Latane s book has that potential I heartily wish a good reception to the book Dr Prakash Deshpande Kejkar Former Professor of English Shivaji University Kolhapur Narrative Form Suzanne Keen, 2015-07-28 This revised and expanded handbook concisely introduces narrative form to advanced students of fiction and creative writing with refreshed references and new discussions of cognitive approaches to narrative nonfiction and narrative emotions Piers Plowman and the Books of Nature Rebecca Davis, 2016-09-08 Piers Plowman and the Books of Nature explores the relationship of divine creativity poetry and ethics in William Langland's fourteenth century dream vision These concerns converge in the poem's rich vocabulary of kynde the familiar Middle English word for nature broadly construed But in a remarkable coinage Langland also uses kynde to name nature s creator who appears as a character in Piers Plowman The stakes of this representation could not be greater by depicting God as Kynde that is under the guise of creation itself Langland explores the capacity of nature and of language to bear the plenitude of the divine In doing so he advances a daring claim for the spiritual value of literary art including his own searching form of theological poetry This claim challenges recent critical attention to the poem s discourses of disability and failure and reveals the poem s place in a long and diverse tradition of medieval humanism that originates in the twelfth century and indeed points forward to celebrations of nature and natural capacity in later periods By contextualizing Langland's poetics of kynde within contemporary literary philosophical legal and theological discourses Rebecca Davis offers a new literary history for Piers Plowman that opens up many of the poem's most perplexing interpretative problems Feeling Time Amit S. Yahav, 2018-05-08 Literary historians have tended to associate the eighteenth century with the rise of the tyranny of the clock the notion of time as ruled by mechanical chronometry The transition to standardized scheduling and time discipline the often told story goes inevitably results in modernity s time keeper societies and the characterization of modern experience as qualitatively diminished In Feeling Time Amit Yahav challenges this narrative of the triumph of chronometry and the consequent impoverishment of individual experience She explores the fascination eighteenth century writers had with the mental and affective processes through which human beings come not only to know that time has passed but also to feel the durations they inhabit Yahav begins by elucidating discussions by Locke and Hume that examine how humans come to know time noting how these philosophers often consider not only knowledge but also experience She then turns to novels by Richardson Sterne and Radcliffe attending to the material dimensions of literary language to show how novelists shape the temporal experience of readers through their formal choices Along the way she considers a wide range of eighteenth century aesthetic and moral treatises finding that these identify the subjective experience of duration as the crux of pleasure and judgment described more as patterned durational activity than as static state Feeling Time highlights the temporal underpinnings of the eighteenth century s culture of sensibility arguing that novelists have often drawn on the logic of musical composition to make their writing an especially effective tool for exploring time and for shaping durational experience Mind, Body, Motion, Matter Mary Helen McMurran, Alison Conway, 2016-04-06 Mind Body Motion Matter investigates the relationship between the eighteenth century s two predominant approaches to the natural world mechanistic materialism and vitalism in the works of leading British and French writers such as Daniel Defoe William Hogarth Laurence Sterne the third Earl of Shaftesbury and Denis Diderot Focusing on embodied experience and the materialization of thought in poetry novels art and religion the literary scholars in this collection offer new and intriguing readings of these canonical authors Informed by contemporary currents such as new materialism cognitive studies media theory and post secularism their essays demonstrate the volatility of the The Literary Devices in John's core ideas opened up by materialism and the possibilities of an aesthetic vitalism of form Gospel David W. Wead, 2018-07-18 As an interdisciplinary forerunner of the new literary approaches to gospel narratives over the last four decades in New Testament scholarship the revised and expanded monograph by David Wead makes a timely contribution to the advancement of those studies Rooted in comparative analyses of contemporary Hellenistic and Jewish literary techniques and drawing from the best of Continental scholarship Wead not only points Johannine scholars to relevant ancient resources but his analyses prepare the way for fresh interpretations of John's story of Jesus today Published originally in Switzerland this book was overlooked by many scholars to the detriment of their work However in addressing such themes as John's post resurrection point of view the Johannine sign the Johannine double meaning irony in the Fourth Gospel and metaphor in the Fourth Gospel Wead's work is now available to new generations of scholars who will find his work both instructive and provocative This newly revised and expanded edition edited by Paul Anderson and Alan Culpepper not only includes a new epilogue by David Wead featuring new reflections and insights but it also includes an expansive overview of the literature before and after Wead's work including a helpful assessment of Wead's monograph in service to ongoing Johannine scholarship No serious study of Gospel literary features devices and strategies can afford to overlook this important book UGC-NET/SET: English (Paper II & III) IRF and Assistant Professor Exam Guide High Definition Books.
