Senses And Sensibilities:

Senses and Sensibilities Jillyn Smith, 1989-05-24 A lively book about the five senses beginning with a history of sensing. Comprehensively treats each of the five senses from concrete explanations and problems of sensory loss and deprivation to the sociological implications of our sensory input. From sensory disorders and individual differences in perception to an exploration of the fine art of tasting and an exploration of therapeutic touch. Engagingly entertains such subjects as eyebrow greetings, artificial noses and the effect of sugar on our moods. The Universal (in the Realm of the Sensible) Dorothea Olkowski, 2007. The Universal proposes a radically new philosophical system that moves from ontology to ethics. Drawing on the work of De Beauvoir, Sartre and Le Doeuff among others and addressing a range of topics from the Asian sex trade to late capitalism, quantum gravity and Merleau-Ponty's views on cinema. Dorothea Olkowski stretches the mathematical, political, epistemological and aesthetic limits of continental philosophy and introduces a new perspective on political structures. Straddling a course between formalism and conventionalism, Olkowski develops the concept of an ontological unconscious that arises from our sensible relation to the world: the information we absorb and emit that affects our encounters with the environment and others. In this realm of the senses or the field of vulnerability defined by our experience with pleasure and pain, Olkowski is able to rethink the space-time relations put forth by Irigaray's notion of the interval, Bergson's recollection, Merleau-Ponty's idea of the flesh and Deleuze's plane of immanence. This aesthetic sense is shared by all humankind and nonhuman entities in the organic and inorganic world. The sensible universal can be applied to categories of pure and practical reason, experiential binaries of male/female and subject/object and issues of autonomy, moral laws and the regulation of perception. The Science of Sensibility: Reading Burke's Philosophical Enquiry Koen Vermeir, Michael Funk Deckard, 2011-11-08. Attracting philosophers, politicians, artists as well as the educated reader, Edmund Burke's Philosophical Enquiry first published in 1757 was a milestone in western thinking. This edited volume will take the 250th anniversary of the Philosophical Enquiry as an occasion to reassess Burke's prominence in the history of ideas. Situated on the threshold between early modern philosophy and the Enlightenment, Burke's oeuvre combines reflections on aesthetics, politics and the sciences. This collection is the first book-length work devoted primarily to Burke's Philosophical Enquiry in both its historical context and for its contemporary relevance. It will establish the fact that the Enquiry is an important philosophical and literary work in its own right. Sensible Objects Elizabeth Edwards, Chris Gosden, Ruth Phillips, 2020-05-31. Anthropologists of the senses have long argued that cultures differ in their sensory registers. This groundbreaking volume applies this idea to material culture and the social practices that endow objects with meanings in both colonial and postcolonial relationships. It challenges the privileged position of the sense of vision in the analysis of material culture. Contributors argue that vision can only be understood in relation to the other senses. In this they present another challenge to the assumed western five-sense model and show how our understanding of material culture in both historical and contemporary contexts might be reconfigured if we consider the role of smell taste touch and sound as well as sight in making meanings about objects
