Captives in the Wilderness Kathryn Dahlstrom,1996 The Good News Club Katherine Stewart,2012-01-24 Traces the author's investigative visits to schools in dozens of cities after discovering that a fundamentalist group was recruiting children during sanctioned after school programs revealing the movement's agenda to reintegrate church and state

Masters of Illusion Frank S. Ravitch,2007-04 Many legal theorists and judges agree on one major premise in the field of law and religion that religion clause jurisprudence is in a state of disarray and has been for some time In Masters of Illusion Frank S Ravitch provocatively contends that both hard originalism a strict focus on the intent of the Framers and neutrality are illusory in religion clause jurisprudence the former because it cannot live up to its promise for either side in the debate and the latter because it is simply impossible in the religion clause context Yet these two principles have been used in almost every Supreme Court decision addressing religion clause questions Ravitch unpacks the various principles of religion clause interpretation drawing on contemporary debates such as school prayer and displaying the Ten Commandments on courthouses to demonstrate that the neutrality principle does not work in a pluralistic society When defined by large overarching principles of equality and liberty neutrality fails to account for differences between groups and individuals If however the Court drew on a variety of principles instead of a single notion of neutrality to decide whether or not laws facilitated or discouraged religious practices the result could be a more equitable approach to religion clause cases Side by Side Peter Ryan,2010 AFL Football is the most competitive sport in Australia and the Collingwood Football Club is the most famous sporting club in that competition Peter Ryan has spent the 2009 season within the inner sanctum of the Collingwood and has witnessed firsthand the reality behind the headlines This book describes that reality the pressure the emotion and the personalities that make AFL football our addictive winter passion It is a wild ride as Collingwood chases its first premiership since 1990 a test of character brains and strength It is both a human story and a sporting story of the inner workings of Australia's most famous sporting club We haven't a title or a final cover image confirmed because we're waiting for the final chapter In this year long story can Collingwood win the 2009 AFL premiership The Return of the Fallen
