A Sentimental Journey and Other Writings Laurence Sterne,2003-07-10 Love is nothing without feeling And feeling is still less without love Celebrated in its own day as the progenitor of a school of sentimental writers A Sentimental Journey 1768 has outlasted its many imitators because of the humour and mischievous eroticism that inform Mr Yorick s travels Setting out to journey to France and Italy he gets little further than Lyons but finds much to appreciate in contrast to contemporary travel writers whom Sterne satirizes in the figures of Smelfungus and Mundungus A master of ambiguity and double entendre Sterne is nevertheless as concerned as his peers with exploring the nature of virtue unlike other writers of sentimental fiction Sterne insists on the inseparability of desire and feeling This new edition includes a selection from The Sermons of Mr Yorick which shed light on the concerns of the Journey The Journal to Eliza which records Sterne s feelings as he languishes for the company of Eliza Draper and A Political Romance the satire on a local ecclesiastical squabble that was the catalyst for Sterne s literary career ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World s Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford s commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more      Observations on

Tregear,2017-07-05 The essays in this classic volume range from broad concerns with critical theory and aesthetic formulation to specific analysis of forms and texts Levin discusses such matters as the symbolic interpretation of literature the development of literary criticism during the past half century European attitudes toward contemporary American writers and re evaluations of Joyce Proust Balzac Cervantes Melville and Hemingway Because Levin is both a learned scholar and imaginative critic there is no comparable book that offers the wit taste and learning one finds in these pages His historical and comparative approaches to literary theory enable Levin to place a given work precisely by relating it to other works and manifestations of culture World literature is not the province of this work But Levin views it as the horizon against which our own traditions may be measured Just as anthropologists discover similar processes working through diverse cultures so through can we glean understanding of common patterns through the analysis of world literature our own peculiarly specialized branch of the science of man The effect of convention in shaping the extent to which literature may be conceived as an institution has been widely discussed A Gallery of Mirrors raises theoretical questions that touch the methodology of humanistic scholarship with regard to other disciplines and the status of art with regard to other modes of knowledge With changing schools of critical thought Levin relies considerably on semantics as a precision instrument for defining concepts in the terms of those for whom they were most meaningful      Masterpieces of Western Art Robert Suckale,2002 This volume traces the history of painting from medieval times to modern times with a focus on each era and its major artists This volume traces the history of painting from medieval times to modern times with a focus on each era and its major artists
