Separatism And Womens Community:

Separatism and Women's Community Dana R. Shugar, 1995-01-01 This is the kind of book I've been looking for Bonnie Zimmerman author of The Safe Sea of Women Lesbian Fiction 1969 1989 The energy spent on all sides of debates about women's separatism demonstrates the vitality of separatism as an important issue Excited by the prospect that changes in their personal lives could reverberate through the nation many women have organized rural communes and urban business collectives putting ideas into practice Separatism and Women's Community reviews debates in separatist theory historical narratives by members of separatist collectives and utopian novels that envision how collectives might be formed Shugar compares the ideas and proposals of theorists including Robin Morgan Shulamith Firestone Joyce Cheney Joan Nestle Ti Grace Atkinson and the Radicalesbians with the experience of women from collectives as diverse as Cell 16 the Combahee River Collective the Gutter Dyke Collective the Seattle Collective the Bloodroot Collective and the Lavender Woman Collective of Chicago Despite the attempts to connect action and thought many women were ill prepared for the problems they found in collective life Women who theorized that oppression based on difference was a man made phenomenon were confronted by other women who challenged their racism classism or homophobia The community had to respond to these confrontations in ways that would strengthen rather than destroy their tentative connections with other women Dana R Shugar is an assistant professor of English and women's studies at the University of Rhode Island

Reader's Guide to Women's Studies Eleanor Amico, 1998-03-20 The Reader's Guide to Women's Studies is a searching and analytical description of the most prominent and influential works written in the now universal field of women's studies Some 200 scholars have contributed to the project which adopts a multi layered approach allowing for comprehensive treatment of its subject matter Entries range from very broad themes such as Health General Works to entries on specific individuals or more focused topics such as Doctors

Sapphists and Sexologists; Histories of Sexualities Mary McAuliffe, Sonja Tiernan, 2009-03-26 Sapphists and Sexologists Histories of Sexualities Volume II contributes to the ever evolving debates on lesbian lives and histories This volume includes a mixture of engaging essays from established and young scholars and opens with a succinct incisive and often comical take on lesbian lives relationships and cats by internationally esteemed scholar Sally R Munt Unique essays include the personal reflections on writing historical fiction by the celebrated author Emma Donoghue and an exclusive conversational record from Joan Nestle on her life loves and activism The scope of this collection is truly international a collaborative work of scholars from many different disciplines universities and countries The central theme of the book continues from the first volume Tribades Tommies and Transgressives Histories of Sexualities in its questioning of established histories of sexualities methodologies and theoretical practices

Disreputable Women Christina Jessica Carney, 2025 Disreputable Women is a deeply transdisciplinary study of how black women use sex work and place making to claim economic bodily and sexual autonomy in a militarized city that is intent on displacing and caging them

Christina Jessica Carney distills the production of these disreputable women during two major twentieth century urban development processes in downtown San Diego where municipal police public health officials and even activists designated street involved sex workers and the places they congregated as blight Carney documents how some black women reconceptualized the public and private spheres by using residential hotels and multiuse commercial spaces for housing and work controlling their erotic economies and their sexual cultural lives She marks how discrete and explicit intellectual economic and political practices by black women complicate a dominant understanding of red light areas and black sex workers as undesirable contaminators to be cleaned out Instead her intuitive framework of disreputability offers a more ethical and workable approach to imagining the built environment and its inhabitants developing a rich and robust grammar for understanding black women s lives amid scenes of militarization and gendered anti blackness

The Queerness of Home Stephen Vider, 2022-01-21 Stephen Vider considers how the meanings of domesticity shifted for gay men and lesbians from the late 1960s to early 1980s from a site of supposed isolation or deviance to a source of identity community and pleasure His manuscript reveals the multiple uses appeals and limits of domesticity for LGBTQ people in the post World War II period in their efforts to make social and sexual connections and to appeal for expanded rights and freedoms For example the 1970s witnessed an efflorescence of gay communal households that proved to be seedbeds for alternative modes of domesticity using the privacy of domestic space to achieve broader social and political changes Vider brings a novel perspective to gay identity and culture examining domesticity as a meeting point between practices and discourse the local and national the private and the public

No Angel in the Classroom Berenice M. Fisher, 2001 No Angel in the Classroom Teaching through Feminist Discourse presents a theoretically complex yet down to earth and personal account of feminist teaching in higher education Starting with a nuanced interpretation of consciousness raising longtime feminist educator Berenice Malka Fisher develops her philosophy of feminist teaching as a form of political discourse Through reflection on a series of candid classroom stories she analyzes knotty problems faced by academics and activists What counts as knowledge in discussion of feminist issues Can teachers exercise authority without being authoritarian What is the role of caring in political deliberation Should safety be considered when students and teachers address volatile topics How can feminist and other teachers committed to social justice give serious attention to the intersections of gender race and sexual orientation This groundbreaking book is intended for the beginning and veteran teachers and others concerned with the contribution of education to extending social justice Fisher s work offers a pedagogical vision that inspires both passion and critical thinking

Media Narratives in Popular Music Chris Anderton, Martin James, 2021-12-16 The historical significance of music makers music scenes and music genres has long been mediated through academic and popular press publications such as magazines films and television documentaries Media Narratives in Popular Music examines these various publications and questions how and why they are constructed It considers the typically linear narratives that are based on simplifications exaggerations and omissions and the histories they construct an approach that leads to totalizing official histories that reduce otherwise messy narratives to one dimensional interpretations of a heroic and celebratory nature This book questions the basis on which these mediated histories are constructed highlights other hidden histories that have otherwise been neglected and explores a range of topics including consumerism the production pressure behind documentaries punk fanzines Rolling Stones covers and more
