Serbia Since 1989 Politics And Society Under Milosevic And After:

Serbia Since 1989 Sabrina P. Ramet, Vjeran I. Pavlakovic, 2011-09-01 During their thirteen years in power Slobodan Milosevic and his cohorts plunged Yugoslavia into wars of ethnic cleansing leading to the murder of thousands of civilians The Milosevic regime also subverted the nation's culture twisted the political mainstream into a virulent nationalist mold sapped the economy through war and the criminalization of a free market returned to gender relations of a bygone era and left the state so dysfunctional that its peripheries Kosovo Vojvodina and Montenegro have been struggling to maximize their distance from Belgrade through far reaching autonomy or through outright independence In this valuable collection of essays Vjeran Pavlakovic Reneo Lukic and Obrad Kesic examine elements of continuity and discontinuity from the Milosevic era to the twenty first century the struggle at the center of power and relations between Serbia and Montenegro Contributions by Sabrina Ramet James Gow and Milena Michalski explore the role of Serbian wartime propaganda and the impact of the war on Serbian society Essays by Eric Gordy Maja Miljovic Marko Hoare and Kari Osland look at the legacy of Serbia's recent wars issues of guilt and responsibility the economy and the trial of Slobodan Milosevic in The Hague Sabrina Ramet and Biljana Bijelic address the themes of culture and values Frances Trix Emil Kerenji and Dennis Reinhartz explore the peripheries in the politics of Kosovo a Vojvodina and Serbia's Roma Serbia Since 1989 reveals a Serbia that is still traumatized from Milosevic's rule and groping toward redefining its place in the world Central and Southeast European Politics Since 1989 Sabrina P. Ramet, Christine M. Hassenstab, 2019-10-03 The collapse of the communist monopoly across Central and Southeastern Europe in 1989 1990 initiated a process of rapid change This updated second edition comprehensively describes the post communist trajectory of the states of Central and Southeastern Europe encompassing democratization privatization corruption and war Discourses on Identity in 'First' and 'Other' Serbia Ana Omaljev, 2016-01-26 Serbia is still widely thought of as an unfinished state whose people struggle to establish a compelling identity narrative in answer to the question who are we While existing literature has over analyzed Serbian nationalism the Serbian public sphere remains largely ignored This engaging and timely book fills this gap by giving context to the persistent and overwhelming dialogue between opposing factions on the identity spectrum in Serbia Omaljev's focus on elite discourses provides a fresh perspective on this contentious subject It offers an original understanding of the competing arguments surrounding First and Other Serbia and of the contested visions of Serbian national identity and broader European identity By closely examining the identity vocabulary of Serbian elites and the opposing ways in which these elites view the use of labels such as anti Serbian patriot and traitor this book provides a vital lesson in post conflict nation building and raises important questions about the symbolic representations of political and cultural identities A much needed and compelling intervention in the Serbian identity discourse Omaljev's work is a must read for any researcher on the Western Balkans Serbian Paramilitaries and the Breakup of Yugoslavia Iva Vukušić, 2022-09-30 This is the first book to offer a comprehensive analysis of the emergence nature and function of Serbian paramilitary units during the violent breakup of Yugoslavia The book investigates the nature and functions of paramilitary units throughout the 1990s and their ties to the state and President Slobodan Milo evi The work relies on the archives of the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia in The Hague which conducted dozens of trials relating to paramilitary violence and records from judicial proceedings in the region It discusses how and why certain important paramilitary units emerged how they functioned and transformed through the decade what their relationships and entanglements were with the state the Milo evi regime and organized crime The study thus investigates the interrelated ideological political and social factors and processes fueling paramilitary engagement and assesses the impact of this engagement on victims of paramilitary violence and on the state and society for which the units purportedly fought It argues that coordinated action by a number of state institutions gave rise to paramilitaries tasked with altering borders while maintaining plausible deniability for the sponsoring regime The outsourcing of violence by the state to paramilitaries led to a significant weakening of the very state these units and their sponsors swore to protect The book also analyzes differences between the units and how they attacked civilians arguing that the different forms of violence stemmed not only from the function they fulfilled for the state but also the ways in which they were set up and operated The final chapter brings the different strands of the argument together into a coherent whole suggesting avenues for further research in the former Yugoslavia and beyond This book will be of much interest to students of ethnic conflict and civil war war crimes Balkan politics and International Relations in general

East Central Europe since 1989 Sabrina P. Ramet, Lavinia Stan, 2024-12-12 This groundbreaking treatment of post communist developments in East Central Europe examines politics economics media religious institutions transitional justice gender inequality and literature highlighting the overt functions latent functions and side effects associated with each sphere Communism in East Central Europe had cracks from the beginning as uprisings in East Germany in 1953 and Hungary in 1956 demonstrated But with the establishment of the Independent Trade Union Solidarity in Poland in the Summer of 1980 communism went into steady decline and between 1988 and 1991 crumbled What followed has been an unsteady transition to various forms of often corrupt pluralism with democracy doing best in the Czech Republic with the exception of the years 2017 2021 and Slovenia and worst in Hungary Albania Serbia and Bosnia Herzegovina Drawing on the functionalist theory of Robert K Merton the authors examine what policymakers communist and post communist were or are trying to accomplish the intended and unintended results of these policies and the side effects they have produced This volume will be of interest not only to specialists in East Central Europe but also to graduate and undergraduate students members of the diplomatic corps and general readers

Genocide on the Drina River Edina Becirevic, 2014-07-29 Explores the widespread ethnic cleansing that occurred in Bosnia and Herzegovina from 1992 through 1995 war crimes and crimes against humanity committed by Serbs against Bosnian Muslims that fully meet the criteria for genocide established after World War II by the

Genocide Convention of 1948 Contextualizes the East Bosnian program of atrocities with respect to broader scholarly debates about the nature of genocide Publishers website Political Discourse in Central, Eastern and Balkan Europe Martina Berrocal,Aleksandra Salamurović,2019-07-15 This edited volume offers new insights into contemporary political discourses in Slavic speaking countries by focusing on discursive and linguistic means deployed in relevant genres such as parliamentary discourse commemorative and presidential speeches mediated communication and literal and philosophical essays The depth of the linguistic analysis reflects different levels of linkage between language and social practice constituting the discourse The theoretical and methodological approaches discussed range from interactional pragmatics over corpus linguistics to CDA The chapters contain original language material in Russian Polish Czech Croatian Serbian and Macedonian and the authors address issues such as the affiliation to different political and social groups within parliamentary settings national identity gender and minorities as well as cultural memory and reconciliation The Milošević Trial Timothy William Waters,2015 The international trial of Slobodan Milosevic who presided over the violent collapse of Yugoslavia was already among the longest war crimes trials when Milosevic died in 2006 Yet precisely because it ended without judgment its significance and legacy are specially contested The contributors to this volume including trial participants area specialists and international law scholars bring a variety of perspectives as they examine the meaning of the trial s termination and its implications for post conflict justice The book s approach is intensively cross disciplinary weighing the implications for law politics and society that modern war crimes trials create For Kin or Country Stephen M. Saideman,R. William Ayres,2008-07-01 The collapse of an empire can result in the division of families and the redrawing of geographical boundaries New leaders promise the return of people and territories that may have been lost in the past often advocating aggressive foreign policies that can result in costly and devastating wars The final years of the Austro Hungarian and Ottoman empires the end of European colonization in Africa and Asia and the demise of the Soviet Union were all accompanied by war and atrocity These efforts to reunite lost kin are known as irredentism territorial claims based on shared ethnic ties made by one state to a minority population residing within another state For Kin or Country explores this phenomenon investigating why the collapse of communism prompted more violence in some instances and less violence in others Despite the tremendous political and economic difficulties facing all former communist states during their transition to a market democracy only Armenia Croatia and Serbia tried to upset existing boundaries Hungary Romania and Russia practiced much more restraint The authors examine various explanations for the causes of irredentism and for the pursuit of less antagonistic policies including the efforts by Western Europe to tame Eastern Europe Ultimately the authors find that internal forces drive irredentist policy even at the risk of a country s self destruction and that xenophobia may have actually worked to stabilize many postcommunist states in Eastern Europe Events in Russia and Eastern Europe in 2014 have again brought irredentism into the headlines In a new Introduction the authors address some of the events and dynamics that have developed since the original version of the book was published By focusing on how nationalist identity interact with the interests of politicians For Kin or Country explains why some states engage in aggressive irredentism and when others forgo those opportunities that is as relevant to Russia and Ukraine in 2014 as it was for Serbia Croatia and Armenia in the 1990s

Representing Genocide Rebecca Jinks, 2016-06-02 This book explores the diverse ways in which Holocaust representations have influenced and structured how other genocides are understood and represented in the West Rebecca Jinks focuses in particular on the canonical 20th century cases of genocide Armenia Cambodia Bosnia and Rwanda Using literature film photography and memorialisation she demonstrates that we can only understand the Holocaust's status as a benchmark for other genocides if we look at the deeper structural resonances which subtly shape many representations of genocide Representing Genocide pursues five thematic areas in turn how genocides are recognised as such by western publics the representation of the origins and perpetrators of genocide how western witnesses represent genocide representations of the aftermath of genocide and western responses to genocide Throughout the book distinguishes between mainstream and other more nuanced and engaged representations of genocide It shows how these mainstream representations the majority largely replicate the representational framework of the Holocaust including the way in which mainstream Holocaust representations resist recognising the rationality instrumentality and normality of genocide preferring instead to present it as an aberrant exceptional event in human society By contrast the more engaged representations often but not always originating from those who experienced genocide tend to revolve around precisely genocide's ordinariness and the structures and situations common to human society which contribute to and become involved in the violence

Nationalism, Identity and Statehood in Post-Yugoslav Montenegro Kenneth Morrison, 2018-01-11 This book provides the most comprehensive study to date of political and social developments in Montenegro from the processes that led to the disintegration of the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia to Montenegro's eventful trajectory towards independence and later towards Euro Atlantic integration Kenneth Morrison draws upon an extensive range of primary and secondary sources to illuminate the key developments in Montenegro during three decades characterised by political social and economic flux Beginning with the happening of the people in 1988 and concluding with a detailed analysis of political developments in the first decade since Montenegro gained its independence the author addresses the themes of nationalism identity statehood and the party political dynamics in both the Montenegrin and the wider Southeast European context

States, Secessionists and De Facto Control after Separatist Wars Nicholas Barker, 2025-05-05 This book investigates how states and secessionists seek to resolve questions of de facto control in the aftermath of secessionist wars This work presents a study of the termination and aftermath of separatist wars using two in depth case studies the Georgia Abkhazia conflict 1994 2006 and the Serbia Kosovo conflict 1999 2008 to develop an empirically grounded theoretical framework to explain state and secessionist strategies for controlling territory and populations in post war environments It draws on fieldwork and archival research carried out in Georgia Abkhazia Serbia Kosovo and the UN archives and presents further evidence to develop and extend the framework using shadow cases of the separatist wars in the Caucasus and the Balkans By focusing on actors objectives and their strategies for controlling territory and populations within the constraints and opportunities of a post war context this study helps explain what states and secessionists do and why in the critical period after a war ends and helps inform understanding of the formation and trajectories of post war orders This study has relevance for international policymakers with reflections on how the theoretical framework may facilitate conflict analysis and inform policy responses towards protracted armed conflict This book will be of interest to students of statehood intra state conflict and civil wars international security and International Relations in general

Civil Society and Transitions in the Western Balkans V. Bojicic-Dzelilovic, J. Ker-Lindsay, D. Kostovicova, 2013-01-11 This book explores the ambiguous role played by civil society in the processes of state building democratization and post conflict reconstruction in the Western Balkans challenging the assumption that civil society is always a force for good by analysing civil society actors and their effects in post communist and post conflict transition

Strategies of Symbolic Nation-building in South Eastern Europe Pål Kolstø, 2016-04-01 After the conflagration of Tito's Yugoslavia a medley of new and not so new states rose from the ashes Some of the Yugoslav successor states have joined or are about to enter the European Union while others are still struggling to define their national borders symbols and relationships with neighbouring states Strategies of Symbolic Nation building in South Eastern Europe expands upon the existing body of nationalism studies and explores how successful these nation building strategies have been in the last two decades Relying on new quantitative research results the contributors offer interdisciplinary analyses of symbolic nation building in Albania Bosnia Herzegovina Croatia Kosovo Macedonia Montenegro and Serbia to show that whereas the citizens of some states have reached a consensus about the nation building project other states remain fragmented and uncertain of when the process will end A must read not only for scholars of the region but policy makers and others interested in understanding the complex interplay of history symbolic politics and post conflict transition

The Legacy of Yugoslavia Othon Anastasakis, Adam Bennett, David Madden, Adis Merdzanovic, 2020-06-25 What are the consequences of Yugoslavia's existence and breakup for the present This book reflects on this very question identifying and analysing the political legacies left behind by Yugoslavia through the prism of continuities and ruptures between the past and present of the area After the collapse of Yugoslavia its former states adopted a nation building process which opted to eradicate the past as such an approach seemed more convenient for the new national projects The new states adopted new institutions new market oriented economic paradigms and new national symbols Yugoslavia existed for 70 years and to consider the current political situation in post Yugoslav states such as Slovenia Croatia Bosnia and Herzegovina Serbia Montenegro North Macedonia and Kosovo without taking into account the legacy and remnants of Yugoslavia is to discount a vital part of their political history This volume takes a multi disciplinary and multi faceted approach to examining the legacy of Yugoslavia covering politics society international relations and economics Focusing on distinctive features of Yugoslavia including worker self management the combination of liberalism and communism and the Cold War policy of Non Alignment The Legacy of Yugoslavia places Yugoslavia in historical perspective and connects the region s past with its contemporary political situation The Politics of Social Ties Mila Dragojevic,2016-02-24 After forced migration to a country where immigrants form an ethnic majority why do some individuals support exclusivist and nationalist political parties while others do not Based on extensive interviews and an original survey of 1 200 local Serbs and ethnic Serbian refugees fleeing violent conflict in Bosnia and Croatia The Politics of Social Ties argues that those immigrants who form close interpersonal networks with others who share their experiences such as the loss of family friends and home in addition to the memory of ethnic violence from past wars are more likely to vote for nationalist parties Any political mobilization occurring within these interpersonal networks is not strategic rather individuals engage in political discussion with people who have a greater capacity for mutual empathy over the course of discussing other daily concerns This book adds the dimension of ethnic identity to the analysis of individual political behavior without treating ethnic groups as homogeneous social categories It adds valuable insight to the existing literature on political behavior by emphasizing the role of social ties among individuals After Civil War Bill Kissane,2015 Civil war inevitably causes shifts in state boundaries demographics systems of rule and the bases of legitimate authority many of the markers of national identity Yet a shared sense of nationhood is as important to political reconciliation as the reconstruction of state institutions and economic security After Civil War compares reconstruction projects in Bosnia Cyprus Finland Greece Kosovo Northern Ireland the Republic of Ireland Spain and Turkey in order to explore how former combatants and their supporters learn to coexist as one nation in the aftermath of ethnopolitical or ideological violence After Civil War synthesizes research on civil wars reconstruction and nationalism to show how national identity is reconstructed over time in different cultural and socioeconomic contexts in strong nation states as well as those with a high level of international intervention Chapters written by anthropologists historians political scientists and sociologists examine the relationships between reconstruction and reconciliation the development of new party systems after war and how globalization affects the processes of peacebuilding After Civil War thus provides a comprehensive comparative perspective to a wide span of recent political history showing postconflict articulations of national identity can emerge in the long run within conducive institutional contexts Contributors Risto Alapuro Vesna Bojicic Dzelilovic Chares Demetriou James Hughes Joost Jongerden Bill Kissane Denisa Kostovicova Michael Richards Ruth Seifert Riki van Boeschoten Kosovo's Foreign Policy and Bilateral Relations Liridon Lika,2023-04-14 This edited book analyzes Kosovo s foreign policy and bilateral relations with the United States and several European countries After the 1999 liberation from Serbia Kosovo built close relations with various countries that supported it in the process of reconstruction economic stabilization institution building and state building From 1999 to 2008

many of these states were politically and operationally engaged in Kosovo under the leadership of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization NATO and of the United Nations Interim Administration Mission in Kosovo UNMIK Since its independence in 2008 the Republic of Kosovo has adopted a foreign policy in accordance with its values and strategic interests a foreign policy that aims to strengthen Kosovo s security and foster its socio economic prosperity in collaboration with primarily Western countries In this volume each chapter is dedicated to Kosovo s bilateral relations with a selected state with which it has established diplomatic relations The book shows that Kosovo has been able to develop and achieve strong bilateral relations with major allies and partners It argues that Kosovo s foreign policy aims to develop maintain and enhance the position of the young state on the international stage The volume bridges various methodological and disciplinary approaches in order to present Kosovo s foreign policy objectives and the trajectory of its relations with some of its most important international partners This book will be of interest to students of Balkan politics state building foreign policy and International Relations

Bordieuan Field Theory as an Instrument for Military Operational Analysis Håkan Gunneriusson, 2017-09-18 This book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license This book uses Pierre Bourdieu s field theory as a lens through which to examine military operations Novel in its approach this innovative text provides a better more nuanced understanding of the modern battlespace particularly in instances of prolonged low intensity conflict Formed in two parts this book primarily explores the scope of Bourdieu theory before secondly providing a detailed case study of the Yugoslavian succession war of 1990-1992 Gunneriusson suggests that although theories do not necessarily provide answers they do help us ask better questions This volume suggests new lines of interdisciplinary investigation that will be of interest to members of armed forces practitioners from NGOs and policymakers

Beyond NGO-ization Kerstin Jacobsson, Steven Saxonberg, 2016-04-15 The celebrations marking the 20th anniversary of the fall of the Berlin Wall provoked a debate on the outcomes of the transition process in the post communist countries including a debate on the functioning of civil society This provided a good opportunity for researchers to collect new data and revise the discourse on collective action and the dynamics of civil society in these countries Jacobsson and Saxonberg s collection of essays looks at social movements and their forms of mobilization and organization as well as action repertoires in relation to the social context and their success or failure The book meets an important need in the discourse on post communist social movements by going beyond the usual discourse about the weak and non participatory civil society in the post communist context This book gives a nuanced and updated view of social movements in post communist Europe by looking at the cases of relatively successful mobilization by examining groups that have often been neglected in the discourse on social movements and civil society including animal rights groups racist movements and non feminist family organizations and by giving a deeper analysis of the different strategies that civil society organizations and groups can use Rather than expecting social movements in post communist Europe to follow the same patterns and operate in the same fashion as in Western Europe this volume shows that a wider view of contentious action is needed in order to understand the variety of strategies employed by collective actors operating in this context
