Sermon Outlines For Lent And Easter:

Sermon Outlines for Lent and Easter Charles R. Wood, 1994 Sermon Outlines for Lent & Easter Brian Haig, 1996*

Learn of Him, 1985

Journey of Stones Steven Molin, 2002 This sermon series for Lent and Easter draws on the rich imagery of rocks and stones in scripture. These powerful messages center around the compelling metaphor of stones and our willingness to throw them as representative of our sins. As worshipers enter the sanctuary they are invited to pick up stones as a concrete symbol of each sermon's theme. Then as the message concludes the stones are placed at the foot of the cross. When the stones disappear on Easter just like the stone sealing Jesus' tomb it's a vivid illustration of how the Lord also removes our stones of sin. Each chapter includes several thought-provoking discussion questions to spur further reflection. With messages for Ash Wednesday, five weeks of Lent, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and Easter Sunday, this is an excellent resource for Lenten midweek programming. Molin takes us on a journey of prayerful and honest repentance, a powerful and life-changing journey of celebration of grace, of awe at the miracle of the empty tomb, and the promise of life. Pastor Molin is one of the best sermon story tellers I've heard. But each sermon and every story also teaches a biblical text. These sermons are grounded in the living Word of God. From the Foreword: Glenndy L. Sculley, Bishop's Associate, Minneapolis Area Synod, Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. We used the Journey of Stones as a Sunday Morning preaching series with some modifications. The book and series was a wonderful way to remind all of us that although we are weighed down with our own sins as represented by the stones, each week Christ rolled away the stone that separates us from God at the resurrection and took the weight of our sin upon Himself. He took our burden on Himself and gave us new life. Thanks for being willing to offer such an inspirational book. Pastor Jerry Van Auken. Steven Molin is the senior pastor of Our Savior's Lutheran Church, ELCA, in Stillwater, Minnesota. He has also served parishes in Oregon and South Dakota and been an area director for the youth ministry organization Young Life. Molin is a graduate of Concordia University, St. Paul, Minnesota, and Luther Theological Seminary. The Lutheran Witness, 1924

Latin Sermon Collections from Later Medieval England Siegfried Wenzel, 2005-02-17 Until the Reformation, almost all sermons were written down in Latin. This is the first scholarly study systematically to describe and analyze the collections of Latin sermons from the golden age of medieval preaching in England, the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries. Basing his studies on the extant manuscripts, Siegfried Wenzel analyzes these sermons and the occasions when they were given. Larger issues of preaching in the later Middle Ages, such as the pastoral concern about preaching originality in sermon making and the attitudes of orthodox preachers to Lollards, receive detailed attention. The surviving sermons and their collections are listed for the first time in full inventories which supplement the critical and contextual material. Wenzel presents. This book is an important contribution to the study of medieval preaching and will be essential for scholars of late medieval literature, history, and religious thought. Dickinsons theological quarterly, ed. by Sermon Notes Blessed John Henry Newman, Aeterna Press, It is not likely that his preaching suffered much by the change. If it had, he would have gone back to his old practice. He would have preferred it is true to do what most other priests did for he hated singularity in any shape but this was not a sufficient reason for running the risk of even partial failure before mixed congregations in a town where he was a stranger and at a time when from various causes the no Popery feeling was particularly strong. Neither does the change though he was past middle life when he made it seem to have been a difficulty to him. Apparently he soon discovered that the thoughts that he had in his mind when he entered the pulpit developed themselves and took new shapes while he was speaking for the Notes which are now being published were for the most part written out not before but after the sermon. Redemption to Transformation Richard Gribble, 2017 If the Lenten journey is traversed successfully then we can fully enter into the celebratory time of Easter. Yet even as we observe these events we must acknowledge that the challenges of the Christian life are ever present. We should never forget British writer G. K. Chesterton's admonition in What's Wrong with the World 1910: The Christian life has not been tried and found wanting; it has been found difficult and left untried. The Easter season reminds us that despite the triumph of Christ there will always be challenges to our belief. We seemingly cannot believe unless we see yet we know that faith often is beyond proof and thus beyond sight as well. We are also challenged to discover ways of transforming problematic situations and what appears to be defeat into triumph through the grace of God. Additionally, this great season of grace teaches us that we must continually evaluate what we do and keep our eyes fixed on Christ and his mission and message. Finally, as Jesus ascends to the Father we come to realize that the Lord's work is not complete and therefore each day presents us with the opportunity to do something to complete the master's work. The cycle B second lesson sermons of Reverend Richard Gribble's Redemption to Transformation: The Journey of Lent and Easter represent an understanding of the challenges presented us through this highly significant and very special journey. The church in its wisdom gives us this opportunity annually to review where we are and after ascertaining our present position the challenge to move to higher realms that are more consistent with our common Christian call to holiness. It is hoped that these reflections will be helpful to you as together we travel the path from Lent to Easter and eventually to Christ and eternal life. Redemption to Transformation: The Journey of Lent and Easter provides a second lesson sermon for every Sunday of cycle B which will provide the following advantages: To give busy pastors ideas for their sermon creation; To make the day-to-day life of being a pastor easier; To free up time for counseling, visitation, or just your own leisure. Some Sermon Titles Include: Suffering Leads to Victory 1 Peter 3:18-21; Enduring the Trails of Faith Romans 4:13-25; The Cost of Discipleship Philippians 2:5-11; Sacrifice Leads to Life Hebrews 10:16-25; Rising to New Life 1 Corinthians 15:1-11.
