Donahue,1988-01-01 Professor Donahue here argues that the parables of Jesus offer a Gospel in miniature while at the same time giving shape direction and meaning to the Gospels in which they appear To study the parables of the Gospels is to study the gospel in parable After surveying recent discussions of parable metaphor and narrative Donahue examines and interprets the parables of Mark Matthew and Luke as texts in the context of the theology of each of these Gospels Finally he outlines what The Gospel in Parable looks like and offers suggestions for the proclamation of parables today
