SUPERSERVANT LEADER Fr. P. Amah (PhD), 2012-09-21 Ken Blanchard from Servant Leadership Revisited With the traditional pyramid the boss is always responsible and the staff are supposed to be responsive to the boss When you turn the pyramid upside down those roles get reversed Your people become responsible and the job of management is to be responsive to their people That creates a very different environment for implementation If you work for your people then what is the purpose of being a manager To help them accomplish their goals Your job is to help them win Shann Ray Ferch PhD Professor of Leadership Gonzaga University In an elegant and evocative rendering of the life of one of the world's great servant leaders Edeh Dr Amah has given us a glimpse of global servant leadership and a true vision of the kind of leaders we need to help heal the heart of the world Dr Amah's book is a resource with global implications and with the honesty and tenderness that move us forward as human beings and that restore us to the deepest and most vital expressions of our collective humanity In envisioning for us the life and impact of Emmanuel Edeh Nigerian and global servant leader Dr Amah gives hope to the people of every continent and in fact helps us reach as global citizens for one another in hope and love and good service This hope is established first in the person then the collective and finally the world Peter Amah has given us a guide to that hope and placed in our hands the gift that leads us from the despair of the past to a future graced by discernment and love
