Servants For Christ The Adventist Church Facing The 80s:

Servants for Christ Gottfried Oosterwal, Robert E. Firth, 1980 The Oxford Handbook of Seventh-Day Adventism Michael W. Campbell, Christie Chui-Shan Chow, David Holland, Denis Kaiser, Nicholas Miller, 2024 This Oxford Handbook contains 39 original essays on Seventh day Adventism Each chapter addresses the history theology and various other social and cultural aspects of Adventism from its inception up to the present as a major religious group spanning the globe The Variety of American Evangelicalism Donald W. Dayton, Robert K. Johnston, 1997-03-03 What have Baptists to do with Lutherans of Holiness groups Pietists with premillennialists Pentecostals with restorationists The self consciously Reformed with Black religionists Or fundamentalists with Adventists or Mennonites Despite the apparent diversity of these groups each has in some way been identified with American evangelicalism Just how appropriate is such identification How do these various traditions see themselves in relation to one another and the larger phenomenon known as evangelicalism The editors of this volume have sought answers to these questions by inviting twelve expert interpreters of these traditions to compare each tradition s self understanding with its understanding of evangelicalism The result is a fascinating collection of essays of interest to general readers as well as students and scholars which make a significant contribution to the ongoing efforts to define and understand American evangelicalism Literacy and Religion Cushla Kapitzke, 1995-08-04 This book explores the interrelation of literacy and religion as practiced by Western Christians in first historical contexts and second in one contemporary church setting Using both a case study and a Foucauldian theoretical framework the book provides a sustained analysis of the reciprocal discursive construction of literacy religiosity and identity in one Seventh day Adventist Church community of Northern Australia Critical linguistic and discourse analytic theory is used to disclose processes of theological church familial home and educational school normalisation of community members into regulated ways of hearing and speaking reading and writing being and believing Detailed analyses of spoken and written texts taken from institutional and local community settings show how textual religion is an exemplary technology of the self a politics constituted by canonical texts interpretive norms textual practices ritualised events and sociopolitical protocols that ultimately are turned in upon the self The purpose of these analyses is to show how across denominational difference in belief tradition and practice particular versions of self and society are constructed through economies of truth from text that constrain what can and cannot be articulated and enacted by believers The Bible, Cultural Identity, and Missions Dziedzorm Reuben Asafo, Daniel Kwame Bediako, Daniel Berchie, 2016-04-26 This collection brings together a number of very carefully authored articles that outline practical approaches to three of theology s most intriguing subjects namely The Bible Cultural Identity and Mission Each of these subjects is indispensable to both the astute Christian theologian and Christian since they form the very core of what Christians believe Each contributor explores a unique theme and carefully through academic exactness and contextual experience communicates this without forgetting to employ very basic and familiar cultural analogies to drive home the
