Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention and Runaway Youth United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor. Subcommittee on Equal Opportunities, 1974 The Bar , 1896 The Judge , 1924 Jonathan Jack, and GBS John O'Donovan, 1993 John O Donovan 1921 85 Irish playwright journalist scholar broadcaster raconteur and wit has been described as the despair of his enemies the delight of his friends and sometimes vice versa He was probably the most witty literate and learned Irish dramatist to appear after the Second World War and the four plays contained in this volume present him at his most thoughtful ribald and moving His Abbey Theatre play Copperfaced Jack is a rich tragicomedy about the tormented and Falstaffian Lord Clonmell in the turbulent revolutionary years following 1798 His Abbey play The Shaws of Synge Street is about the tumultuous and musical family and friends of the young Bernard Shaw His radio play The Fiddler and the Dean is an imaginative reconstruction of a dialogue between Handel who gave the first performance of The

Messiah in Dublin and Dean Swift who was unwilling to let his choristers take part in Messiah Carlotta a late play here published for the first time is an informed four hander between the mature George Bernard Shaw his wife his sister and his unruly and vivid leading lady Mrs Patrick Campbell Taken together these four plays offer persuasive evidence for O Donovan s position as one of the few eminent Irish dramatists to emerge after Sean O Casey and before Brian Friel City of the Beast Phil Baker,2022-08-16 A work that combines biography and psychogeography to trace Aleister Crowley s life in London I dreamed I was paying a visit to London Aleister Crowley wrote in Italy continuing It was a vivid long coherent detailed affair of several days with so much incident that it would make a good sized volume Crowley had a love hate relationship with London but the city was where he spent much of his adult life and it was the capital of the culture that created him Crowley was a post decadent with deviant Victorian roots in the cultural ferment of the 1890s and the magical revival of the Golden Dawn Not a walking guide although many routes could be pieced together from its pages this is a biography by sites A fusion of life writing with psychogeography steeped in London s social history from Victoria to the Blitz it draws extensively on unpublished material and offers an exceptionally intimate picture of the Great Beast We follow Crowley as he searches for prostitutes in Hyde Park and Pimlico drinks absinthe and eats Chinese food in Soho and find himself down on his luck in Paddington Green and never quite losing sight of the illumination that drove him the abiding rapture he wrote in his diary which makes a bus in the street sound like an angel choir A Question of Commitment R. Brian Howe,Katherine Covell,2007-06-15 In 1991 the Government of Canada ratified the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child requiring governments at all levels to ensure that Canadian laws and practices safeguard the rights of children A Question of Commitment Children s Rights in Canada is the first book to assess the extent to which Canada has fulfilled this commitment The editors R Brian Howe and Katherine Covell contend that Canada has wavered in its commitment to the rights of children and is ambivalent in the political culture about the principle of children s rights A Question of Commitment expands the scope of the editors earlier book The Challenge of Children s Rights for Canada by including the voices of specialists in particular fields of children s rights and by incorporating recent developments A Dictionary of Quotations from the English Poets Henry George Bohn,1881 Imagining Brazil Jessé Souza,Valter Sinder,2007-01-01 Imagining Brazil provides a comprehensive and multifaceted picture of Brazil in the age of globalization Privileging diversity in relation to the authors as well as the manner in which Brazil is perceived JessZ Souza and Valter Sinder have assembled historians political scientists sociologists literary critics and scholars of culture in an attempt to understand a complex society in all its richness and diversity Rising from one of the worldOs poorest societies in the 1930s to the eighth largest world economy in the 1980s Brazil is used as an example of globalizationOs impact on peripheral societies exploring in new contexts the serious social problems that have always characterized this society Imagining Brazil explores the connections between society and politics and culture and literature creating an encompassing volume of interest to scholars of Latin American studies as well as those interested in how globalization impacts the varied aspects of a country Power-Sharing Allison McCulloch, John McGarry, 2017-04-21 Power sharing is an important political strategy for managing protracted conflicts and it can also facilitate the democratic accommodation of difference Despite these benefits it has been much criticised with claims that it is unable to produce peace and stability is ineffective and inefficient and obstructs other peacebuilding values including gender equality This edited collection aims to enhance our understanding of the utility of power sharing in deeply divided places by subjecting power sharing theory and practice to empirical and normative analysis and critique Its overarching questions are Do power sharing arrangements enhance stability peace and cooperation in divided societies Do they do so in ways that promote effective governance Do they do so in ways that promote justice fairness and democracy Utilising a broad range of global empirical case studies it provides a space for dialogue between leading and emerging scholars on the normative questions surrounding power sharing Distinctively it asks proponents of power sharing to think critically about its weaknesses This text will be of interest to students scholars and practitioners of power sharing ethnic politics democracy and democratization peacebuilding comparative constitutional design and more broadly Comparative Politics International Relations and Constitutional and Comparative Law A Dictionary of Quotations from the English Poets Henry G. Bohn, 2021-10-27 Reprint of the original first published in 1867 Representative American Dramas, National and Local Montrose Jonas Moses, 1925 Theory of World Security Ken Booth, 2007-12-20 What is real What can we know How might we act This book sets out to answer these fundamental philosophical questions in a radical and original theory of security for our times Arguing that the concept of security in world politics has long been imprisoned by conservative thinking Ken Booth explores security as a precious instrumental value which gives individuals and groups the opportunity to pursue the invention of humanity rather than live determined and diminished lives Booth suggests that human society globally is facing a set of converging historical crises He looks to critical social theory and radical international theory to develop a comprehensive framework for understanding the historical challenges facing global business as usual and for planning to reconstruct a more cosmopolitan future Theory of World Security is a challenge both to well established ways of thinking about security and alternative approaches within critical security studies Re-Imagining Sociology in India Gita Chadha, M.T. Joseph, 2018-05-16 This book maps the intersections between sociology and feminism in the Indian context It retrieves the lives and work of women pioneers of and in sociology asking crucial questions of their feminisms and their sociologies The chapters address the experiential realities of women in the field pedagogical issues methodological frameworks mentoring processes and artistic engagements with academic work The volume s strength lies in bringing together Indian scholars from diverse social backgrounds and regions reflecting on the specificity of the Indian social sciences The chapters cover a range of key areas including sexuality law environment science and medicine This volume will greatly interest students teachers researchers and practitioners of sociology women s studies gender studies and feminism politics and postcolonial studies
