Loosening The Seams:

Reading Native American Literature Joseph Coulombe, 2011-03-17 Native American literature explores divides between public and private cultures ethnicities and experience In this volume Joseph Coulombe argues that Native American writers use diverse narrative strategies to engage with readers and are writing for connection with both Native and non Native audiences Beginning with a historical overview of Native American literature this book presents focused readings of key texts including N Scott Momaday s House Made of Dawn Leslie Marmon Silko s Ceremony Gerald Vizenor s Bearheart James Welch s Fool s Crow Sherman Alexie s The Lone Ranger and Tonto Fistfight in Heaven Linda Hogan s Power Suggesting new ways towards a sensitive engagement with tribal cultures this book provides not only a comprehensive introduction to Native American literature but also a critical framework through which it may be read The New North American Studies

Winfried Siemerling, 2005 Winner of the English Book Award Grand Prix du Livre 2006 de la Ville de Sherbrooke In this original and groundbreaking study Winfried Siemerling examines the complexities of recognition and identity rejecting previous nationalized thinking to approach North American cultural transformations from transnational and interdisciplinary perspectives Using material from the United States and Canada as case studies and drawing on a wide range of texts and theorists he examines postcoloniality and cultural emergence from the sixties to the present against earlier backgrounds Siemerling s argument for a retheorization of the field takes on the full history of multiculturalism debates including radical readings of W E B Du Bois and Charles Taylor and their relation to G W F Hegel and challenging many of the models of multiculturalism in use today Tackling controversial subjects such as identity politics The New North American Studies proposes a fresh outlook on the most central issues of North American cultural politics from debates on canon formation to the role of racial and linguistic difference Concluding with a look at the future of cultural difference Winfried Siemerling s study is an innovative rethinking of the whole field of North American Studies Postindian Conversations

Gerald Vizenor, A. Robert Lee, 2003-06-01 Postindian Conversations is the first collection of in depth interviews with Gerald Vizenor one of the most powerful and provocative voices in the Native world today These lively conversations with the preeminent novelist and cultural critic reveal much about the man his literary creations and his critical perspectives on important issues affecting Native peoples at the beginning of the twenty first century The book also casts new light on his sometimes controversial ideas about contemporary Native identity politics economics scholarship and literature Gerald Vizenor is a professor of American Studies and Native American literature at the University of California Berkeley He is the author of more than twenty books including the American Book Award winner Griever An American Monkey King in China A Robert Lee is a professor of American literature at Nihon University in Tokyo His books include Designs of Blackness Mappings in the Literature and Culture of Afro America His edited works include Shadow Distance A Gerald Vizenor Reader
