Veiled in Flesh Melvin

Tinker, 2019-10-17 Veiled in flesh the Godhead see Hail the incarnate deity Jesus our Emmanuel Great words from one of the most popular Christmas carols but what do they actually mean and do they really matter Melvin Tinker introduces the doctrine of the incarnation of God the Son in Jesus Christ in two parts Part One approaches the incarnation by way of an exposition of chapter 1 of the New Testament letter to the Hebrews This grounds the doctrine in Scripture working through some of the theological and pastoral implications Part Two goes deeper drawing on systematic and historical theology especially the creeds to tease out what the doctrine means and why it is vital to the life and health of the church and Christian devotion While the treatment is clearly theological dealing with biblical truth it is also doxological leading to praise and pastoral practical in its outworking The doctrine is set alongside and related to two other key Christian beliefs the Trinity and the atonement

Preaching That Makes the Word Plain William Clair Turner Jr.,2008-03-15 This work includes essays in preaching method and a series of sermons on Romans 10 a mini treatise on preaching It reflects on the tasks of preaching and teaching preaching as a form of communication that is critical to the life of the church Despite the numerous existing volumes useful texts are still needed The quest is for methods of preparation that can be applied with consistency and that suggest habits for labor which can be tedious or cause tasteless outcomes The volume is intended as a contribution to replenishing voices that already have spoken ably and eloquently It is located in the praxis of one who preaches with weekly regularity while at the same time teaching homiletics It aims at absorbing and synthesizing proven methods while relating them to a generation that lives in the tensions of faithfulness to the gospel of Jesus Christ the decline of a Christian consensus in the culture the rise of secularism and competition from other religions Added to that is the challenge of vying for space in the public sphere with countless social prophets such as talk show hosts radio commentators screen writers and entertainers with various agendas What one finds in the following pages is a venture of service to the newly called the fledgling preachers the veterans as well as those who teach It dares to challenge proverbs like It is better caught than taught or Those who know don t tell and those who tell don t know It risks a word in an attempt to speak reflectively about a task that is daunting to the novice and as near to a veteran as a second skin It is a brazen attempt to step out of comfortable skin to tell another how it feels from the inside It hazards a gesture to say how to do the work with confidence without becoming arrogant How do you scratch the pad or go to a blank computer screen from week to week By what means does one glean and give a fresh word before the exhaustion of delivering the last word has abated Web sites that supply sermons are in the public domain and can easily be discovered The challenge for those who mount the pulpit from week to week does not relent The labor reflected in these pages is born of the bias that all preaching can be improved with study reflection and critical assistance

Dogmatic Theology William Greenough Thayer Shedd,1888

Dim Wit Rosemarie Jarski,2008-12-05 They underestimated me George W Bush Einstein said only two things are infinite the universe and human stupidity So in deference to the dumbing down of our culture comes Dim Wit a collection of the most jaw droppingly stupid things ever said The cast includes every famous foot in mouther from George W Bush to Prince Philip Paris Hilton to Jade Goody not to mention hundreds of unsung idiots plucked from villages the world over The result is a confederacy of dunces more pro fun than profound a clever witticism may coax an inward smile but it takes a really stupid remark to deliver a belly laugh So pick up Dim Wit and prepare to embrace your inner moron it may be the smartest thing you do My grandma overheard two women talking in a doctor s surgery After a while one said to the other Do you know Mary I don t feel too well I think I ll go home Robyn Jankel I don t think anyone should write his autobiography until after he s dead Samuel Goldwyn Winston Churchill Wasn t he the first black President of America There s a statue of him near me that s black Danielle Lloyd
