Psicología Social de Género. Proyecto docente García Dauder, Silvia, 2015 El libro Psicología Social de Género es un texto que proviene de la experiencia docente y reflexiva de introducir la perspectiva crítica de género en la docencia e investigación de la psicología social. Lo que ofrece es una aproximación alternativa a los temas clásicos de dicha rama: identifica el androcentrismo y el sexismo de sus teorías e historia; los sesgos de género en su investigación; y propone un proyecto formativo que utiliza la psicología social como herramienta para analizar cómo se hacen cotidianamente las relaciones de género. El libro se divide en dos partes: la primera es un ejercicio reflexivo sobre la práctica docente y el acto educativo como acto político y socialmente responsable donde se argumenta la necesidad de introducir el pensamiento crítico de género de forma transversal en la formación universitaria; en concreto, en la Psicología. La segunda es una guía formativa que ofrece herramientas para analizar por medio de diferentes prácticas y actividades las relaciones de género desde la psicología social. EN definitiva es una herramienta útil para cualquiera que quiera trabajar sobre el género y aprender simultáneamente. S. García Dauder es activista y docente de Psicología Social en la Universidad Rey Juan Carlos.
