Sexton, 2006-01-01 Describes the social cultural and economic history of the Philippines Filipino American Transnational Activism, 2019-12-09 Read an interview with Robyn Rodriguez Filipino American Transnational Activism Diasporic Politics among the Second Generation offers an account of how Filipinos born or raised in the United States often defy the multiple assimilationist agendas that attempt to shape their understandings of themselves. Despite conditions that might lead them to reject any kind of relationship to the Philippines in favor of a deep rootedness in the United States, many forge linkages to the homeland and are actively engaged in activism and social movements transnationally. Though it may well be true that most Filipino Americans have an ambivalent relationship to the Philippines, many of the chapters of this book show that other possibilities for belonging and imaginaries of home are being crafted and pursued. The Sociology of Tourism Yiorgos Apostolopoulos, Stella Leivadi, Andrew Yiannakis, 2013-04-15. The rapid expansion of the tourism industry has provided many economic benefits and affected every facet of contemporary societies, including employment, government revenue, and cultural manifestations. However, tourism can also be considered a problematic phenomenon promoting dependency, underdevelopment, and adverse sociocultural effects, especially for developing countries. This pioneering work provides a comprehensive review of these complex tourism issues from a sociological perspective. Various theoretical and empirical approaches are introduced, and the following issues are discussed: identifiable and stable forms of touristic behaviour and roles, social divisions within tourism, the interdependence of tourism and social institutions, the effects of transnational tourism and commodification on the ecosystem. Featuring international contributions from nine different countries, this book brings together the most noted theoretical and empirical studies and enriches them with diverse experiences and perspectives. Freedom Incorporated

Colleen Woods, 2020-05-15. Freedom Incorporated demonstrates how anticommunist political projects were critical to the United States expanding imperial power in the age of decolonization and how anticommunism was essential to the growing global economy of imperial violence in the Cold War era. In this broad historical account, Colleen Woods demonstrates how in the mid-twentieth century Philippines, US policymakers and Filipino elites promoted the islands as a model colony. In the wake of World War II, as the decolonization movement strengthened, those same political actors pivoted and after Philippine independence in 1946 lauded the archipelago as a successful postcolonial democracy Officials at Malaca ang Palace and the White House touted the 1946 signing of the liberating Treaty of Manila as a testament to the US commitment to the liberation of colonized people and celebrated it under the moniker of Philippine American Friendship Day Despite elite propaganda from the early 1930s to late 1950s radical movements in the Philippines highlighted US hegemony over the new Republic of the Philippines and in so doing threatened American efforts to separate the US from sordid histories of empire imperialism and the colonial racial order Woods finds that in order to justify US intervention in an ostensibly independent Philippine nation anticommunist Filipinos and their American allies transformed local political struggles in the Philippines into sites of resistance against global communist revolution By linking political struggles over local resources like the Hukbalahap Rebellion in central Luzon to a war against communism American and Filipino anticommunists legitimized the use of violence as a means to capture and contain alternative forms of political economic and social organization Placing the post World War II history of anticommunism in the Philippines within a larger imperial framework in Freedom Incorporated Woods illustrates how American and Filipino intelligence agents military officials paramilitaries state bureaucrats academics and entrepreneurs mobilized anticommunist politics to contain challenges to elite rule in the Philippines
