Marieclaire Adouble Tour:

In the Flesh of the Text Peter Broome, 2008-01-01 This closely focused study of the inner movements dynamic tensions and tactile richness of an intensely sensual but deeply searching poetry is the first full length monograph devoted to one of France's foremost contemporary woman poets Marie Claire Bancquart's work explores primarily through the vulnerabilities and sensitivities of the body hence this book's carnal title the possibility of releasing a cry a salvation of language and spirit from indifference abstraction and dehumanisation a celebration of a moment's reunion with the recreative vitality of the physical universe an act of love in its most private yet cosmic expression Bancquart has described her language as a braille of the living minimal interrupted and riddled with obscurities and gaps of the unsayable but apprehending the world and composing its significance in a singularly tactile translation This study will appeal to those keen to discover one of the most original voices of present day European poetry the distinctive poetic resonances of one of its most self aware and vibrant female sensibilities and the provocative orientations of new writing traversed by the dilemmas and paradoxes of our own era

The Lives of Others Annie Ring, 2022-10-06 This study offers a fresh approach to the remarkable German film The Lives of Others 2006 known for its compelling representation of a Stasi surveillance officer and the moral and ethical turmoil that results when he begins spying on a playwright and his actress lover Annie Ring analyses the film's cinematography mise en scene and editing tracing connections with Hollywood movies such as Casablanca and Hitchcock's Torn Curtain in the film's portrayal of an individual rebelling against a brutal dehumanising regime Drawing on archival sources including primary research from the Stasi files themselves as well as Enlightenment philosophies of art and Brecht's theories on theatre dating from his GDR years she explores the film's strong but much disputed claims to historical authenticity She examines the way the film tracks the world changing political shift that took place at the end of the Cold War away from the collective dreams of socialism and towards the dreams of the private individual arguing that this is what makes it at once widely appealing and fascinatingly problematic In doing so she highlights why The Lives of Others is a crucial film for thinking at the horizon between film and recent world history

The French New Wave Peter Graham, Ginette Vincendeau, 2022-09-08 The French New Wave is an essential anthology of writings by and about the critics and filmmakers of this revolutionary cinematic movement which has had a radical impact on film practice and the way we think and write about film The volume includes foundational writings such as Francois Truffaut's A Certain Tendency in French Cinema and Andre Bazin's La Politique des auteurs as well writings by Jean Luc Godard Claude Chabrol and Alexandre Astruc This new edition now represents writings by and about women critics and film makers including important articles by the critics Evelyne Sullerot Michele Firk and Fran oise Aude addressing issues of gender and representation as well as considering New Wave films in the context of contemporary political events notably France's colonialist war on the Algerian independence movement To accompany the case study of Godard's bout de souffle the new edition includes a case study of the critical reception of two films by Agnès Varda La Pointe Courte and Cléo de 5 à 7 The articles have been specially translated for the volume by Peter Graham and some are published for the first time in English These classic writings are accompanied by contextualising introductions by Ginette Vincendeau updated for this new edition to form a unique resource on this key cinematic movement and its practitioners

In the Darkroom Susan Faludi, 2016-06-14 A Pulitzer Prize winner's memoir of her search for her enigmatic father is an absolute stunner probing steel nerved moving in ways you'd never expect New York Times In the summer of 2004 I set out to investigate someone I scarcely knew my father The project began with a grievance the grievance of a daughter whose parent had absconded from her life I was in pursuit of a scofflaw an artful dodger who had skipped out on so many things obligation affection culpability contrition I was preparing an indictment amassing discovery for a trial But somewhere along the line the prosecutor became a witness So begins Susan Faludi's extraordinary inquiry When the feminist writer learned that her 76 year old father long estranged and living in Hungary had undergone sex reassignment surgery her investigation turned personal and urgent How was this new parent who identified as a complete woman now connected to the silent explosive and ultimately violent father she had known Faludi chases that mystery into the recesses of her suburban childhood and her father's many previous incarnations American dad Alpine mountaineer swashbuckling adventurer in the Amazon outback Jewish fugitive in Holocaust Budapest Her struggle to come to grips with her father's metamorphosis takes her across borders historical political religious sexual to bring her face to face with the question of the age Is identity something you choose or is it the very thing you can't escape Riveting Ms Faludi unfolds her father's story like the plot of a detective novel Wall Street Journal Penetrating and lucid rich and arresting New York Times Book Review A gripping exploration of sexual national and ethnic identity Kirkus Reviews starred review The Films of Jean-Luc Godard Wheeler W.
