pioneering performance artists in contemporary art When Marina Abramovi Dies examines the extraordinary life and death defying work of one of the most pioneering artists of her generation and one who is still at the forefront of contemporary art today This intimate critical biography chronicles Abramovi s formative and until now undocumented years in Yugoslavia and tells the story of her partnership with the German artist Ulay one of the twentieth century s great examples of the fusion of artistic and private life In one of many long durational performances in the renewed solo career that followed Abramovi famously lived in a New York gallery for twelve days without eating or speaking nourished only by prolonged eye contact with audience members It was here in 2002 that author James Westcott first encountered her beginning an exceptionally close relation between biographer and subject When Marina Abramovi Dies draws on Westcott s personal observations of Abramovi his unprecedented access to her archive and hundreds of hours of interviews he conducted with the artist and the people closest to her The result is a unique and vivid portrait of the charismatic self proclaimed grandmother of performance art

Concerning Consequences Kristine Stiles,2016-03-21 Kristine Stiles has played a vital role in establishing trauma studies within the humanities A formidable force in the art world Stiles examines the significance of traumatic experiences both in the individual lives and works of artists and in contemporary international cultures since World War II In Concerning Consequences she considers some of the most notorious art of the second half of the twentieth century by artists who use their bodies to address destruction and violence The essays in this book focus primarily on performance art and photography From war and environmental pollution to racism and sexual assault Stiles analyzes the consequences of trauma as seen in the works of artists like Marina Abramovic Pope L and Chris Burden Assembling rich intellectual explorations on everything from Paleolithic paintings to the Bible s patriarchal legacies to documentary images of nuclear explosions Concerning Consequences explores how art can provide a distinctive means of understanding trauma and promote individual and collective healing

After the Revolution Eleanor Heartney,Helaine Posner,Nancy Princenthal,Sue Scott,2013-11-04 Why Have There Been No Great Women Artists asked the prominent art historian Linda Nochlin in a provocative 1971 essay Today her insightful critique serves as a benchmark against which the progress of women artists may be measured In this book four prominent critics and curators describe the impact of women artists on contemporary art since the advent of the feminist movement

The Mediatization of the Artist Rachel Esner,Sandra Kisters,2018-01-31 This book offers trans historical and trans national perspectives on the image of the artist as a public figure in the popular discourse and imagination Since the rise of notions of artistic autonomy and the simultaneous demise of old systems of patronage from the late eighteenth century onwards artists have increasingly found themselves confronted with the necessity of developing a public persona In the same period new audiences for art discovered their fascination for the life and work of the artist The rise of new media such as the illustrated press photography and film meant that the needs of both parties could easily be satisfied in both words and images Thanks to these new media the artist was transformed from a simple producer of works of art into a public figure The aim of this volume is to reflect on this transformative process and to study the specific role of the media themselves Which visual media were deployed to what effect and with what kind of audiences in mind How did the artist critic photographer and filmmaker interact in the creation of these representations of the artist s image Women and Gender in Central and Eastern Europe, Russia, and Eurasia Mary Zirin,Irina Livezeanu,Christine D. Worobec,June Pachuta Farris,2015-03-26 This is the first comprehensive multidisciplinary and multilingual bibliography on Women and Gender in East Central Europe and the Balkans Vol 1 and The Lands of the Former Soviet Union Vol 2 over the past millennium The coverage encompasses the relevant territories of the Russian Hapsburg and Ottoman empires Germany and Greece and the Jewish and Roma diasporas Topics range from legal status and marital customs to economic participation and gender roles plus unparalleled documentation of women writers and artists and autobiographical works of all kinds The volumes include approximately 30 000 bibliographic entries on works published through the end of 2000 as well as web sites and unpublished dissertations Many of the individual entries are annotated with brief descriptions of major works and the tables of contents for collections and anthologies The entries are cross referenced and each volume includes indexes

Marina Abramović Mary Elizabeth Richards,2010 Marina Abramovic is the creator of pioneering performance art which transcends the form s provocative origins This resource combines a biography an examination of the artist through her writings interviews and influences a detailed analysis of her work and practical explorations of the performances and their origins Marina Abramović Marina Abramovic,Marina Abramovich,Kunstmuseum Bern,1998 On M Abramovic winner of the Leone d Oro at the 47th Venice Biennale 1997 and her art Interactive Experience in the Digital Age Linda Candy,Sam Ferguson,2014-03-28 The use of interactive technology in the arts has changed the audience from viewer to participant and in doing so is transforming the nature of experience From visual and sound art to performance and gaming the boundaries of what is possible for creation curating production and distribution are continually extending As a consequence we need to reconsider the way in which these practices are evaluated Interactive Experience in the Digital Age explores diverse ways of creating and evaluating interactive digital art through the eyes of the practitioners who are embedding evaluation in their creative process as a way of revealing and enhancing their practice It draws on research methods from other disciplines such as interaction design human computer interaction and practice based research more generally and adapts them to develop new strategies and techniques for how we reflect upon and assess value in the creation and experience of interactive art With contributions from artists scientists curators entrepreneurs and designers engaged in the creative arts this book is an invaluable resource for both researchers and practitioners working in this emerging field

Unhuman Culture Daniel Cottom, 2013-05-23 It is widely acknowledged that the unhuman plays a significant role in the definition of humanity in contemporary thought It appears in the thematization of the Other in philosophical psychoanalytic anthropological and postcolonial studies and shows up in the antihumanism associated with figures such as Heidegger Foucault and Derrida One might trace its genealogy as Freud did to the Copernican Darwinian and psychoanalytic revolutions that displaced humanity from the center of the universe Or as Karl Marx and others suggested one might lose human identity in the face of economic technological political and ideological forces and structures With dazzling breadth wit and intelligence Unhuman Culture ranges over literature art and theory ancient to postmodern to explore the ways in which contemporary culture defines humanity in terms of all that it is not Daniel Cottom is equally at home reading medieval saints lives and the fiction of Angela Carter plumbing the implications of Napoleon s self coronation and the attacks of 9 11 considering the paintings of Pieter Bruegel and the plastic surgery as performance of the body artist Orlan For Cottom the unhuman does not necessarily signify the inhuman in the sense of conspicuous or extraordinary cruelty It embraces too the superhuman the supernatural the demonic and the subhuman the supposedly disjunctive animal vegetable and mineral kingdoms the realms of artifice technology and fantasy It plays a role in theoretical discussions of the sublime personal memoirs of the Holocaust aesthetic reflections on technology economic discourses on globalization and popular accounts of terrorism Whereas it once may have seemed that the concept of culture always by definition pertained to humanity it now may seem impossible to avoid the realization that we must look at things differently It is not only art in the narrow sense of the word that we must recognize as unhuman For better or worse ours is now an unhuman culture
