On the Right Track Marion Jones, 2010-10-26 For more than a decade Marion Jones was hailed as the the fastest woman on the planet At the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney Australia she became the first woman ever to win five medals at one Olympics That same year the Associated Press and ESPN named her Athlete of the Year She was on the cover of Vogue and Time She seemed to have it all fame fortune talent and international acclaim Now she is a convicted felon The trouble started in 2003 when she lied to federal agents about her use of a performance enhancing drug and her knowledge of a check fraud scam In 2007 no longer able to live with the lies she admitted the truth In a sad end to what seemed like a storybook career she was stripped of her medals and her track and field records were wiped from the books She was incarcerated at Carswell federal prison in Fort Worth Texas a prison known for its violence and abuse While there she kept herself in shape and her sanity intact by running on a dirt track and a treadmill in the prison's improvised weight room But her imprisonment was not the end for Marion Jones In fact it marked a new beginning She is now using her story to change the lives of people the world over and inspire others who like her face obstacles that seem insurmountable On the Right Track is the candidly told story of how Marion came to grips with her lies and the consequences of her actions and how she found meaning in all of it What she tells her children and has now applied to her own life is that when you make a mistake you admit it you accept the consequences you move on you make the wrong a right She teaches her children and others to take a break and pause before making impulsive and potentially harmful decisions At the heart of this book are real issues that we all face learning to grow through pain making decisions that will help us far into the future overcoming failure and discouragement and applying practical principles that point the way to personal and spiritual breakthrough Amazing Pace Paul McMullen, 2006-08-08 A vibrant portrait of American swimmer Michael Phelps the dominant athlete at the 2004 Olympics who has relentlessly pushed himself promoted his sport and appears poised to ultimately accumulate the most gold medals in Olympic history Before he was old enough to have a driver s license Michael Phelps had a world record Before he ever took a college class or turned 20 he had earned distinction by winning 8 medals 6 gold and 2 bronze at the Athens Olympics the most in non boycotted Games Along the way he captivated an American television audience and confounded the critics who questioned his ambition Amazing Pace provides the most revealing look yet at a young man who became a world class athlete before he had the chance to grow up by respected Baltimore Sun journalist Paul McMullen who followed Phelps s rise from an obscure 14 year old to the most scrutinized competitor at the world s biggest sporting event details the plotting of his career from turning professional at age 16 to the management of the first crises he encountered Paul McMullen s 5 years of observation add dramatic context to the life of a young athlete whose rise to prominence coincided with the tumult of the first Summer Olympics after 9 11 No Olympian has ever earned 10 gold medals in a career but Michael Phelps is on pace to achieve that milestone at the 2008 Games in Beijing China Built to Win Leslie Heywood, Shari L. Dworkin, Annotation The sculpted speed of Marion Jones The grit and agility of Mia Hamm The slam dunk style of Lisa Leslie The skill and finesse of these sports figures are widely admired no longer causing the puzzlement and discomfort directed toward earlier generations of athletic women Built to Win explores this relatively recent phenomenon the confident empowered female athletes found everywhere in American popular culture Leslie Heywood and Shari L Dworkin examine the role of female athletes through interviews with elementary and high school age girls and boys careful readings of ad campaigns by Nike Reebok and others discussions of movies like Fight Club and Girlfight and explorations of their own sports experiences They ask what if any dissonance is there between popular images and the actual experiences of these athletes Do these images really redefine femininity and contribute to a greater inclusion of all women in sport Are sexualized images of these women damaging their quest to betaken seriously Do they inspire young boys to respect and admire female athletes and will this ultimately make a difference in the ways gender and power are constructed and perceived Proposing a paradigm shift from second to third wave feminism Heywood and Dworkin argue that in the years since the passage of Title IX gender stereotypes have been destabilized in profound ways and they assert that female athletes and their imagery are doing important cultural work to that end Important refreshing and engrossing Built to Win examines sport in all its complexity Jet, 2001-09-24 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news African
