s consultation paper Introducing a Statutory Register of Lobbyists Cm 8233 ISBN 9780101823326 focused the register on those who undertake lobbying activities on behalf of a third party client Under the proposals a lobbyist who worked in house for a large company such as News International would not be required to register whereas a one man band lobbyist would be and have to name their clients and pay for the privilege There is no evidence to suggest that third party lobbyists are a particular problem within the lobbying community the Government s own records of ministerial meetings suggest that third party lobbyists make up less than 1% of all meetings with Ministers The Government should abandon its plans and introduce regulation to cover all those who lobby professionally in a paid role including those who lobby on behalf of charities trade unions and think tanks The Committee specifically recommends the Government publish information about ministerial meetings no more than a month after the month in which the meeting occurred improve the level of detail in meeting disclosures so that the actual topic of a meeting is disclosed rather than obscure terms like general discussion publish where applicable the company or charity number of any organisation that meets with Ministers or officials so that the identity of the organisation can be properly verified standardise the format of meeting data with a view to publishing all ministerial and official meetings on one website rather than on many different Government websites
