professional journals university curricula and census records Victorian Perceptions reframes works by seminal authors such as John Ruskin Walter Pater John Addington Symonds and Geoffrey Scott alongside those by architect authors such as William J Anderson and Reginald Blomfield within contemporary architectural debates Relevant for architectural historians as well as literary scholars and those in Victorian studies Victorian Perceptions reassesses the history of Renaissance architecture within the formation of a modern British architectural profession Reconstruction Neal Shasore, Jessica Kelly, 2023-02-23 Commendation the Colvin Prize 2023 Society of Architectural Historians of Great Britain Reconstruction explores the impact of the First World War on the built environment examining the immediate and longer term aftermath of the Great War on the architecture of Britain and the British Empire during the interwar years While much attention has been paid by historians to post war architectural reconstruction after 1945 the earlier developments of the interwar period 1919 1939 have been comparatively overlooked This volume reveals how the architectural developments of this period not only provided important foundations for what happened after 1945 they are also of real significance in their own right Sixteen essays written by leading and emerging scholars bring together new and diverse approaches to the period a period of reconstruction fraught with the challenges of modernity and democratisation The collection considers the complex effects of reconstruction on design discourse practice and professionalism and deals with the full spectrum of architectural styles and approaches privileging neither Modernism nor traditional styles like the neo Georgian It brings to the fore social and political histories of the built environment and makes important postcolonial interventions into the architectural history of British Imperialism at home and in its far reaches in Cairo South Africa Australia and India No more giants Jessica Kelly, 2023-01-24 Architecture is more than buildings and architects It also involves photographers writers advertisers and broadcasters as well as the people who finance and live in the buildings Using the career of the critic J M Richards as a lens this book takes a new perspective on modern architecture Richards served as editor of The Architectural Review from 1937 to 1971 during which time he consistently argued that modernism was integrally linked to vernacular architecture not through style but through the principle of being an anonymous expression of a time and public spirit Exploring the continuities in Richards s ideas throughout his career disrupts the existing canon of architectural history which has focused on abrupt changes linked to individual pioneers encouraging us to think again about who is studied in architectural history Britain Alan Powers, 2007 Thoroughly illustrated with images of the buildings under and how they are researched discussion advertisements and other historical photographs Britain is an authoritative yet highly accessible account of Bluecoat, Liverpool Bryan Biggs, John Belchem, 2020-05-23 Bluecoat is a unique twentieth century British architecture and much loved Liverpool institution its oldest city centre building This book tells the fascinating story of its transformation from charity school to contemporary arts centre the UK s first Its early 18th century origins shed light on the religious and maritime mercantile environment of the growing port whose merchants supported the school Echoes from then are revealed in themes explored by artists in the 20th century including slavery and colonial legacies. The predominant focus is on an inclusive building for the arts starting with colourful bohemian society the Sandon who established an artistic colony in 1907 hosting significant exhibitions by the Post Impressionists and many leading modern British artists Bluecoat Society of Arts emerged as the building s custodians paving the way for the arts centre which despite financial struggles and wartime bomb damage survived and continues to play a prominent role in Liverpool s and the UK s culture Bluecoat is described as where village hall meets the avant garde In its rich story Picasso Stravinsky Yoko Ono Captain Beefheart Simon Rattle and the inspirational Fanny Calder are just some of the names encountered as key strands including music visual art performance and the building s tenants are traced Sir John Soane? Influence on Architecture from 1791 Oliver Bradbury, 2017-07-05 Sir John Soane's Influence on Architecture from 1791 A Continuing Legacy is the first in depth study of this eighteenth century British architect's impact on the work of others extending globally and still indeed the case over 200 years later Author Oliver Bradbury presents a compelling argument that the influence of Soane 1753 1837 has persevered through the centuries rather than waning around the time of his death Through examinations of internationally renowned architects from Benjamin Henry Latrobe to Philip Johnson as well as a number of not so well known Soanean disciples Bradbury posits that Soane is perhaps second only to Palladio in terms of the longevity of his influence on architecture through the course of more than two centuries from the early 1790s to today concluding with the recent return to pure revivalism Previous investigations have been limited to focusing on Soane's late Georgian and then post modern influence this is the first in depth study of his impact over the course of two centuries Through this survey Bradbury demonstrates that Soane's influence has been truly international in the pre modern era reaching throughout the British Isles and beyond to North America and even colonial Australia Through his inclusion of select detailed case studies Bradbury contends that Soane s is a continuing not negated The Carter Prestons and Tyson Smiths Panagiotis Konikkos, 2014-12-12 Document from the year legacy in architecture 2012 in the subject History Miscellaneous grade 71 100 course MArch language English abstract The present study explores the transformation of the city of Liverpool from a British commercial city into a centre of culture architecture art and sculpture from the late 19th century to the end of 20th century It analyses the lives careers and artistic family trees of two of the most important sculptors of the time Herbert Tyson Smith and Edward Carter Preston including the potter Julia Carter Preston Also it explores medal design sculpture and architectural decoration in Liverpool at the period with detailed analysis on the sculptures of the Anglican Cathedral and the Martins Bank building The period from 1880 s until 1960 s was enough for the Liverpool architects and artists of the time to produce an incredible collection of sculptures and architectural decoration which accompanied the modern Beaux Arts steel framed buildings Finally the architectural decorations medals and sculptures were out of favour by the late 20th century and also the artistic family trees of Herbert Tyson Smith and Edward Carter Preston came to an end after their grandchildren's generation with none of them having become a

Gunnar Asplund's Gothenburg Nicholas Adams, 2015-01-14 In the west coast port city of Gothenburg Sweden the architect Gunnar Asplund built a modest extension to an old courthouse on the main square 1934 36 Judged today to be one of the finest works of modern architecture the courthouse extension was immediately the object of a negative newspaper campaign led by one of the most noted editors of the day Torgny Segerstedt Famous for his determined opposition to National Socialism he also took a principled stand against the undermining of urban tradition in Gothenburg Gothenburg s problems with modern public architecture though clamorous and publicized throughout Sweden were by no means unique In

Gunnar Asplund's Gothenburg Nicholas Adams places Asplund's building in the wider context of public architecture between the wars setting the originality and sensitivity of Asplund's conception against the political and architectural struggles of the 1930s Today looking at the building in the broadest of contexts we can appreciate the richness of this exquisite work of architecture This book recaptures the complex magic of its creation and the fascinating controversy of its completed form

Designs on Democracy Neal Shasore, 2022 Designs on Democracy provides an ambitious revision of how we understand the pivotal period of the formation of the profession of architecture in twentieth century Britain spanning the excitable discussions about the reconstruction of the profession for a democratic age after WWI and the reconstruction and planning Urban Planning Education Andrea I. Frank, Christopher Silver, 2017-06-26 This book examines planning education provision and approaches globally through a comparative and longitudinal perspective It explores the emergence of planning education in the 20th century with its rich variation and yet a remarkable degree of cross fertilization Each of the sections of the book is framed by an overview essay which has been prepared by the editors to provide the reader with a critical exposure to relevant scholarship drawing on the detailed case studies and exploratory essays on key issues in planning education The first part of this volume focuses on the emergence of planning education programs in the twentieth century as a way to understand the current planning education environment Then we explore how education in urban regional and spatial planning has developed in different ways in different countries and continents The final part of this volume aims to envision how planning can adapt and develop to remain relevant to the development of human environments in the 21st century Urban planning education has become a pervasive practice throughout the world as urbanization and development pressures have increased over the past half century and as demand increased for professional trained experts to guide those processes The approaches vary widely based in part upon the discipline from which the planning program developed as well as the context specific challenges within the country or region where the program resides Rebuildina Britain's Blitzed Cities Catherine Flinn, 2018-12-27 Many British cities were devastated by bombing during the Second World War and faced stark economic dilemmas concerning reconstruction planning and implementation after 1945 How did politicians civil servants and local authorities manage to produce the cities we live in today Rebuilding Britain's Blitzed Cities examines the underlying processes and pressures especially financial and bureaucratic which shaped postwar urbanism in Britain Catherine Flinn integrates architectural planning with in depth economic and political analyses of Britain's blitzed cities for the first time She examines early reconstruction arrangements the postwar economic apparatus and the challenges of postwar physical planning across the country while providing insightful case studies from the cities of Hull Exeter and Liverpool By addressing the ideology versus the reality of reconstruction in postwar Britain Rebuilding Britain's Blitzed Cities highlights the importance of economic and political factors for understanding the British postwar built environment

Museum Architecture Suzanne MacLeod, 2013-04-12 Recent decades have witnessed an explosion of museum building around the world and the subsequent publication of multiple texts dedicated to the subject Museum Architecture A new biography focuses on the stories we tell of museum buildings in order to explore the nature of museum architecture and the problems of architectural history when applied to the museum and gallery Starting from a discussion of the key issues in contemporary museum design the book explores the role of architectural history in the prioritisation of specific stories of museum building and museum architects and the exclusion of other actors from the history of museum making These omissions have contemporary relevance and impact directly on the ways in which the physical structures of museums are shaped Theoretically the book places a particular emphasis on the work of Pierre Bourdieu and Henri Lefebvre in order to establish an understanding of buildings as social relations the outcome of complex human interactions and relationships The book utilises a micro history an in depth case study of the National Gallery of the North the Walker Art Gallery in Liverpool to expose the myriad ways in which museum architecture is made Coupled with this detailed exploration is an emphasis on contemporary museum design which utilises the understanding of the social realities of museum making to explore ideas for a socially sustainable museum architecture fit for the twenty first century Community Green David Nichols, Robert Freestone, 2024-02-06 Neighbourhood open space ranks highly as a key component in suburban liveability assessments originating from the development of urban planning as a profession and the proliferation of the garden suburb Community Green uniquely connects the past present and future of planning for small open spaces around the narrative of internal reserves The distinctive planned spaces are typically enclosed on every side hidden within residential blocks serving as local pocket parks and reflecting the evolving values of community life from the garden city movement to contemporary new urbanism This book resuscitates the enclosed almost secretive reserve from history as a distinctive form of local open space whose problems and potentialities are relevant to many other green community spaces. In so doing it opens up even wider connections between localism and globalism the past and the future and for connecting community initiatives to broader global challenges of cohesion health food and climate change This fully illustrated book charts the outcomes and implications of this evolution across several continents injecting human stories of civic initiatives struggles and triumphs along the way Community Green will be of interest to a wide readership interested in studying managing and improving the quality of all small open spaces in the urban landscape Professionalism for the Built Environment Simon Foxell, 2018-09-03 In the aftermath of the Grenfell Tower tragedy this new book provides thought provoking commentary on the nature of the relationship between society the prevailing economic system and professionalism in the built environment It addresses the changing responsibilities of professionals and in particular their obligation to act in the wider public interest It is both an introduction to and an examination of professionalism and professional bodies in the sector including a view of the future of professionalism and the organisations serving it Simon Foxell outlines the history of professionalism in the sector comparing and contrasting the development of the three major historic professions working in the construction industry civil engineering architecture and surveying He examines how their systems have developed over time up to the current period dominated by large professional services firms and looks at some options for the future whilst asking difficult questions about ethics training education public trust and expectation from within and outside the industry The book concludes with a six point plan to help if not ensure that the professions remain an effective and essential part of both society and the economy a part that allows the system to operate smoothly and easily but also fairly and to the benefit of all Essential reading for built environment professionals and students doing the professional studies elements of their training or in the process of applying for chartership or registration The issues and lessons are applicable across all building professions
